A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

"Something New Under the Sun."
All doctors have tried to cure Catarrh by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of Catarrh, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures catarrh, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the afflicted parts. This wonderful remedy is known as "Snuffles" the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure," and is sold at the extremely low price of one dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a full month's treatment and everything necessary to its perfect use.

"Snuffles" is the only perfect catarrh cure ever made, and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently and is also wonderfully quick to relieve hay fever, or cold in the head.

Catarrh when neglected often leads to consumption—"Snuffles" will save you if you use it at once. It is no ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is positively guaranteed to cure catarrh in any form or stage if used according to the directions which accompany each package. Don't delay but send for it at once, and write full particulars as to your condition, and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you beyond the regular price of "Snuffles" the "Guaranteed Catarrh Cure."

Sent prepaid to any address in the United States or Canada on receipt of one dollar. Address, Dept. B734, Edwin B. Giles & Company, 2330 and 2332 Market Street, Philadelphia.

The Oldest Visiting Card.

The state archives of Venice are said to possess the oldest visiting card of which there is any record, of course leaving aside the probable use of such articles for some thousands of years in China. Giacomo Contarini, professor at the University of Padua, sent the card in question as a curiosity to a Venetian friend, saying that the German students who came to Italy had the elegant and laudable custom of leaving such little cards, with their name and place of origin, at the houses of friends when they called and found them absent. The card referred to bears a coat of arms with the motto, "Espoir me confort," and beneath, "Joannes Westhof Westphalus scribat Patavii 4 Martii 1560."—London Tablet.

The sum asked of the state for the national guard is $775,000.

DALY'S EARLY DAYS.

Where the Millionaire and His Bride Spent Their Honeymoon.

Marcus Daly at the time of his recent death could draw his check for millions, owned many blooded race horses and magnificent residences, yet it may well be doubted that he was as happy as in the olden days when he dwelt with his young bride in a little clap-boarded cabin among the mountains of Utah. He was only a poor prospector then, with very little money and mighty slim prospects of getting any, but he lived there nearly two years and worked his mining claims early and late until he went entirely broke. The offer of a foremanship in Montana carried him away from his tiny home forever, but he fully intended to return to work his claims again.

In after years when he had accumulated millions of dollars in mining and other pursuits Daly never forgot the lessons he learned in the little cabin.

THE DALY CABIN.

It is recorded of him that up to his death he used to leave his bed at half past 6 and begin his work as early as any clerk in his employ. If ever a man earned the title of self made Marcus Daly was that man. He was born in New York and drifted to San Francisco at 13. The first occupation of the multimillionaire was digging potatoes, and though it nearly broke his back he stuck to it for three weeks. Then he struck out for the mines as a prospector and soon developed wonderful ability as a mining expert.

While he was only a poor miner he married, and by a strange coincidence his wife's sister is the wife of the brother of Daly's bitterest enemy, William A. Clark. It is told by the people of the vicinity that Daly revisited his old cabin about a year before his death.

A New Toy.

Mrs. Poppers—Oh, John, you must raise side whiskers!
Mr. Poppers—What! You've often told me you hated such things.
Mrs. Popper—I want you to raise nice long ones, like Mr. Markley's. He called today, and baby enjoyed pulling his whiskers so much! It was too cute for anything!—Philadelphia Press.
