

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, PENN'A.
May 16, 1901.

Millheim.

Rev. Haven held communion services in the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Miss Lide Stamm, who had been attending Roanoke College, Va., arrived in town Saturday afternoon and will spend her vacation at the home of A. Walker, on East Main Street.

J. P. Coudo and wife, and D. L. Zerby and wife spent a part of Sunday at Wolfe's Store, as guests of C. W. Freeby.

Mrs. Sarah Rishel is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jonathan Royer, in Tusseyville.

Messrs. George Tobias and Paul Gutelius, of Millinburg, arrived in town early Sunday morning and spent the day at the home of the former. George has been employed by Mr. Gutelius, a paper hanger, for the last month, and is well pleased with his position.

Mrs. C. H. Morris and Miss Ada Barry visited friends in Loganton several days last week.

Millheim will observe Memorial Day in an appropriate manner. The exercises will be under the auspices of a committee selected from the various Sunday schools of the town. The address will be by a noted orator from Lewisburg.

Note of Warning.

The Pennsylvania Experiment Station connected with Pennsylvania State College issued a circular warning farmers against the purchase of the "Hazzeltine Moth Catcher," on the recommendation of Prof. Stedman, of the Missouri Experiment Station, which has been reconstructed to entirely misrepresent the writer's intention and deceive the public.

Linden Hall.

John Potter, Esq., of Milesburg, visited with friends and relatives at this place during the past week.

Miss Ketura Stump, who has been staying at Lemont for some time, returned home Monday.

The indications at present are for a large crop of small fruit but few apples through this section.

Prof. Irvin Zeigler, editor and publisher of the Boalsburg Literary Star, which has become quite famous within the past few weeks, with his sister, spent Saturday at Bellefonte.

Miss Mary Dale, of Lemont, who teaches instrumental and vocal music, has a class of thirty students through this section.

Miss Lizzie Gettig returned home on Tuesday, after a week's sojourn with friends at State College.

John Huss, who was a citizen of this place before moving to Johnstown, but who lately moved to Centre Hall, was looking up his friends in this section, after an absence of several years.

The many friends of Mrs. Ed. Lucas will be glad to learn that she has recovered from a long siege of typhoid fever.

Miss Nora Floray, of Tusseyville, has decided to make her home at this place for a few weeks, and if everything arranges itself satisfactorily, she may locate here permanently.

Mrs. Annie Rossman, of Tusseyville, spent Saturday as the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Gettig.

Weber and son, of Boalsburg, and Josiah Zeigler, of Pleasant Gap, have been busy cutting and papering through the section for some time.

Mrs. Charles Dagle entertained her sister and sister-in-law during the week.

Miss May Stump, who had been confined to her bed for some time, is recovering.

The U. Ev. Sunday school has announced that they will hold their Children's Day exercises on the 9th of June.

The friends of Philip Bradford will be sorry to hear that he and his son Carl are sick with typhoid fever.

Among the visitors in town were noticed Miss Sadie Lee, who is visiting with her brother-in-law, Philip Bradford, Sanson Burreis, of Centre Hall, Foster Jordan, wife and sister, of Boalsburg, Mrs. Isaac Tressler, Oak Hall, and Mrs. J. A. Long and daughter Annie, Centre Hall.

Captain William B. Weber, of Lewisburg, died suddenly from heart failure. Mr. Weber was one of the organizers of the Logan Guards in '58, and when they responded to the President's first call for troops was a sergeant.

Boys Fire a Stable.

Saturday afternoon a building owned by Frank McCoy and situated on the hillside west of the McCoy forge, near Bellefonte, was destroyed by fire together with about six tons of hay stored in the building, a dilapidated structure formerly a tenement house, was set on fire by three boys from Bellefonte who were on their way to fish in the Bald Eagle. The little rascals were discovered in the act and caught after a lively chase. They were brought before Mr. McCoy who gave them a severe lecture and on their promise doubtless to go and sin no more they were given their liberty.

THE HOME GOLD CURE.

An Ingenious Treatment by Which Drunkards are Being Cured Daily in Spite of Themselves.

No Noxious Doses. No weakening of the nerves; a pleasant and positive cure for the liquor habit.—It is now generally known and understood that Drunkenness is a disease and not a weakness. A body filled with poison, and nerves completely shattered by perniciolous or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison, and destroying the craving for intoxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by this wonderful "Home Gold Cure" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according to directions of this wonderful discovery is positively guaranteed to cure the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men.

Wives cure your husbands!! Children cure your fathers!! This remedy is in no sense a nostrum but is a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of drunkards have cured themselves with this priceless remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temperate men by having the "cure" administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee or tea, and believe today that they discontinued drinking of their own free will. Do not wait. Do not be deluded by apparent and misleading "improvement." Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "Home Gold Cure" is sold at the extremely low price of one dollar, thus placing within reach of everybody a treatment more effectual than others costing $25 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepaid to any part of the world on receipt of one dollar. Address Dept. B734 Edwin B. Giles & Company, 2339 and 2332 Market Street, Philadelphia. All correspondence strictly confidential.

Growth of the Grange.

During the past ten years there has been a wide spread revival of interest in the organization of the grange and the outlook is exceedingly promising. Since 1890 the membership has increased not less than 75 per cent. New York at present has 500 subordinate granges with 43,000 members; Pennsylvania 526 granges and 20,000 members; Maine 275 granges with 29,000 members; New Hampshire, 260 granges with 21,000 members; Michigan 450 granges and nearly 25,000 members. These states lead, but the orders are also active and strong in Vermont and Connecticut, Ohio, Massachusetts. Thirty states pay dues to the national grange treasury, and twenty-four were represented by delegates at the last national grange.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

A FELLOW

Came to Bellefonte last Thursday with about Twenty Samples of Men's Suits. The samples represented a few over Two Hundred Suits. This fellow was anxious to

Trade for Cash

... all he had and wind up his spring business. We got together and the trade was made.

The Result:

There are a few more than Two Hundred Men's Suits—new, stylish goods—on our counters at fully one third less than their actual value. They go to you the same way. Can you use them? Take a look anyway. If there is anything in the lot that you like you can save easily from three to five dollars. There are only a few over Two Hundred of them, not a thousand or two thousand suits or the entire stock of one of the biggest manufacturers in America, but just a wee small lot of a few hundred men's suits
