Corman Wants Potatoes.

O. T. Corman, of Spring Mills want's potatoes immediately, and will pay the highest market price for them. Bear in mind that the potato market will soon be over for old stock, and it is policy to sell now.

Corn Planting.

The continued rains for the past two weeks hindered corn planting. Monday and since that the corn planters were at work again, and by this time the crop is no doubt entirely planted through the valley. The corn planted early is up nicely, but a "little yellow."

Officers of General Synod.

At the meeting of the General Synod held in De Moines, Iowa, the old officers of the body were re-elected except the president, Dr. Breckinridge. The officers for the next two years are as follows: President—Rev. Dr. W. S. Frens, Baltimore, Md.; Secretary—Rev. Dr. W. E. Fischer, Shamokin, Pa.; Treasurer—Rev. Dr. Louis Manss, Cincinnati, Ohio.

A Pretty Wedding.

A pretty event took place last Wednesday evening at six o'clock, at Linden Hall, when Mr. Al. Stump gave away his daughter, Miss Keturah, in marriage to Mr. Robert Herman, of Lemont, Rev. A. A. Black, of Boalsburg, officiating. Notwithstanding the incessant rain, between forty and fifty guests assembled and witnessed the happy event. They were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Herman will move to Philipsburg where Mr. Herman is engaged in the mercantile business.

Jack Wilson Dead.

Jack Wilson, of Tyrone, died suddenly Monday evening at the age of about sixty years. He was attending services in the Presbyterian church that evening where he was suddenly taken very ill and owing to the absence of his family, his wife being in New York, he was taken to the home of a neighbor where he died in a short time, without regaining consciousness. Mr. Wilson was a son of Peter Wilson, deceased, of Spring Mills, and about thirty years ago went to Tyrone where he was engaged in the mercantile business. He is survived by his wife and two sons, both being in business in Tyrone. Funeral will take place from his late residence this, Thursday afternoon. Interment in the Tyrone cemetery.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS CHANGE.

Mr. Sellers Succeeds the Firm of Rearick & Sellers.
Articles of agreement were entered into this (Thursday) morning whereby Edward Sellers becomes the successor to the firm W. O. Rearick & Edward Sellers. The partnership which was thus dissolved was entered into last spring.
Mr. Rearick, who retires from the Centre Hall Implement Works, has been a partner in the business for eight years, during which time the concern turned out a large number of complanters, rollers, feed cutters, and other implements and tools.
Mr. Sellers, who is now sole proprietor of the Centre Hall Implement Works, is a machinist and wood-worker and has rich experience in business. He is thoroughly equipped from all points of view to successfully conduct the business. The foundry, as it is commonly called, is an important industry in Centre Hall, and all are glad to know that such an honorable and good citizen as Mr. Sellers will in future continue the business at this place.
Mr. Rearick's future has not been decided upon, but he will not be an iller.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

Squire Housman Tells about Centre Counts in the City.
J. S. Housman, Esq., who some ten days ago took his daughter, Miss Blanche, to Philadelphia for treatment, writes the Reporter under date of June 4, and says they are getting along finely. Miss Blanche is improving, and they are anxiously awaiting the time when they can return. He further says:
Since I have been in the city, I met a great many Centre county boys. Korman Spicher, who had been employed by the Union Traction Company, but recently quit that company and is now in the postal mail delivery service.
Jonas Smith, of Colyer, is with the Union Traction company as an extra conductor, and is doing well. Wm. Jordan is employed in the yards of the New York ship building company of Camden, N. J. By the way, he had his foot badly hurt and was disabled for some time, but returned to work again Monday.
John A. Boal, son of P. S. Boal, the mayor of Pole Cat City, is a cook in the Manufactory Club.
John H. Glasgow, Second and Vine streets, came to Philadelphia some few years ago, is conducting a first-class saloon in a fine building of his own. He has held public office of great honor and is held in high esteem by all who know him. He is kind and genial, and is always glad to have his former associates in Potter township call on him. If you chance to come to the city you will miss seeing a good friend if you fail to call on Mr. Glasgow.

We expect to return home by the latter part of next week, or beginning of the week following.
COUNCIL TAKES ACTION.
The Reservoir Will be made Water Tight B. D. Brisbin Supervisor.
At a meeting of the town council Tuesday night it was decided to repair the reservoir, which heretofore never proved satisfactory. The plan adopted will no doubt prove successful, and is this:
A trench will be dug through the breast and part of the sides until solid ground is reached, and a wall laid in cement upon a concrete foundation. The wall at the base will be four or five feet in thickness and slope to two feet at the top. This will be protected on all sides by the heavy earth breast, and will not be affected by the action of the frost. The council made considerable inquiry as to the advisability of proceeding along this line, and have reasonable assurances that with a wall thus properly built the reservoir will hold water to its brim.
B. D. Brisbin has been selected to superintend the work, and will use every means of securing good workmanship.

JEWELRY STORE ROBBED.

J. W. Glasgow, of Coburn, is Believed of $200 Worth of Jewelry.
Robbers entered the store room of J. W. Glasgow, at Coburn, one night last week, and got away with over $200 worth of watches and jewelry. The money drawer was forced open, but fortunately for its owner, it contained only a small amount of money in small change. There is no clue to the perpetrators, but it is believed the work was done by professional thieves. A suspicious character had been around the previous morning.

To the Trade.

I am permitted to say for the Bellefonte laundry that any work sent out from that establishment that is not satisfactory will be cheerfully righted. Can you ask more than that? I appreciate every collar and cuff you give me, and will deal with you fairly. I came in possession of the business without crowding, or attempting to crowd, any one out; I pay my own bills and apply the profits to my own use. If you feel that I am worthy of your support and continue to render it, I will assure you that I will not prove an ingrate in after years.
Yours, TED BALLY.

BRIEF LOCALS.

Commencement at New Berlin—14 to 20.
Governor Stone signed the voting machine bill.
Auman's flour is gaining a reputation for its fine quality. Try it.
The news on Monday morning was a bright sky, welcomed by all.
Wm. Lehr, of this place, is in Bellefonte, where he will remain for several weeks.
The Colyer band will hold a festival, June 15. Ice cream, cake and fruit will be served.
John Van Pelt and a friend, of Bellefonte, spent a few days in Centre Hall last week.
Miss Mamie Stump spent Saturday and Sunday at Pleasant Gap. Also Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gross.
Wm. Mitterling will ship a car of fine cows Friday morning. He claims they are the best lot to be had in the county.
Dev's done had chicken at her house. It's easy tellin' dat.
An' de feathers in her hat.
Dr. D. M. Wolf closed his special term of school for advanced scholars at Spring Mills Wednesday last. The class was unusually large.

Rev. John Keller, of Centre Hall, filled the pulpit of Rev. Spahn, at Adamsburg, Sunday. Rev. Spahn went to South Carolina to visit his brother.
The south side of the county was well represented at the Democratic convention. The townships and boroughs were all represented by delegates and others.
Miss Lizzie Walters and Olin Johnson, both of Pine Hill, were married Wednesday of last week by Rev. Aikens, of Pine Grove Mills, at the home of Moses Walters, father of the bride.
Aaron Thomas will have the mechanical supervision of the building of the barn for Samuel Durst and the house for Elmer Royer, which heretofore was spoken of as the house of Abner Alexander.

Five ministers attended the funeral of Samuel Wagner, near Tusseyville, last week, namely: Rev. J. F. Shultz, Rev. W. H. Schuyler, Rev. C. H. Goodling, Rev. J. W. Wagner, Rev. G. W. Kershner.
All the merchants of Spring Mills make a favorable report of business for the month of May. Commercial agents passing through the valley report traffic on the road only moderate; orders limited and quite small.
Misses Emilie Alexander, of Tyrone, and Grace, student at State College, daughters of Dr. J. F. Alexander, returned home Saturday for a week's stay. Dr. Alexander also arrived on same day from Tyrone and Phillipsburg.
Miss Clara Campbell who has been at Phillipsburg the past winter, paid a visit to her former home at David Campbell's, west of Linden Hall. Miss Clara has been in very delicate health for several years and after leaving there expects to enter a hospital for treatment.
Centre Hall will be well represented at the State College Commencement exercises. Interest is created on account of the fact of two of the graduates at that institution being from this place—Miles Arney and Miss Grace Alexander, both of whom graduate with honors.

The Woman's Home Companion for June has an unusually varied table of contents. A chatty article on "Early Visitors at Wellesly" and two papers on "The Higher Education of Woman" are timely. Edward Page Gaston talks of the social life of American diplomats.
Harry Fleisher, who operates the circular saw mill in Wm. Colyer's Colyer mill, was in town Saturday for repairs for the mill machinery. The mill hands are at present working on the bills for two barns—Samuel Durst's near Centre Hall, and Robert McClellan's at Linden Hall.
David Stover, of Lincoln county, Kansas, is east on a visit. Twenty-three years ago Mr. Stover went west from his home in Pine Grove Mills, where he was born and raised, and went to farming. At present he is living retired. He is a distant relative of Mrs. Derstine, in this place, whom in company of Mr. Kuhn, of Pleasant Gap, he visited Tuesday.

Ira. C. Korman, of Oak Hill, was a caller Monday. Mr. Korman is doing a big business in implements, a car of Osborne machinery having reached him beginning of this week. Including phosphate. Mr. Korman's freight receipts will amount to six or eight car loads this summer. He advertises, which acquaints people with the fact that he is in business for business.
Wm. C. Walters, of Centre Hill, Tuesday of last week purchased a Jersey cow and calf from Jos. Woods of Boalsburg, drove them home and thought himself in good luck in his purchase. Friday afternoon following the cow strayed from his premises, and since he has not been able to locate her. The animal had white on forehead and on flanks; short horns, and has the general appearance of a Jersey. Any information of her whereabouts will be gladly received by Mr. Walters.

GENERAL LOCALS.

Ephraim Harter, the expert Red Mill miller was in town Saturday.
The time set for Sugar Valley camp-meeting, at Boonville, is August 22-23.
A children's day service will be held in the Presbyterian church Sunday at 10:30 A. M.
B. D. Brisbin wants a good team and teamster at the reservoir.
In another column will be found a financial statement of the public schools of the borough.
By some miscalculation Centre Hall was without a festival Decoration day.
Rev. David A. Solly is located at Richmond, Va. Until recently he served a Baptist congregation in Roanoke, Va.
If the last Friday in May rules June, the present month will be a very pleasant one with just enough sun shine and rain.

Mrs. J. O. Dininger returned from New Bloomfield Tuesday, where she has stayed for some weeks with her daughter, Mrs. James E. Stewart.
When you are in Bellefonte go around to see Joshua Burley's mechanical shooting gallery, and take a shot at the game parading before your eyes.
D. A. Boozer purchased the John Neff lots along the pike at the upper end of town. There are two good front lots and about two and one-half acres back.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Meyer, of Millersburg, came up to Centre Hall Monday for a few days stay. Mr. Meyer is engaged in the livery business, and is doing well.

Mrs. C. L. Irvin, of Bellefonte, was in town Wednesday and prepared their household goods for shipment to Bellefonte. The Irvins at present are stopping at the Brokerhoff House.
G. H. Long, of Steubenville, Ohio, formerly one of Spring Mills' merchants, made a visit of a few days last week to that place. Mr. Long is very favorably impressed with his present location.
Will Sandoe, who for eight years sold and delivered the daily papers in Centre Hall, sold out to John Foreman, son of F. A. Foreman, who will serve the patrons of the daily papers regularly.
I. H. Hazle, of Spring Mills, has improved and enhanced the value of his property by the removal of an old dilapidated shed which stood close to his residence, and was simply a home for owls and bats.

Read Swartz's reminder in this issue of the Reporter. You will find something of interest to you in this advertisement, and if you go to this store at Tusseyville you will not regret having made the visit.
Thursday afternoon of last week the single and married men played a game of base ball which proved that the old ball players could still play a good game. The score ran way up into the tens in favor of the married men.
W. E. Burkholder, of Centre Hill, was a caller at this office Friday. Mr. Burkholder was on hand early in the day for teachers' examination, and he and G. W. Smith, of the same place, were judged by spectators the best informed in the class.

J. C. Morris, of Rebersburg, who is one of the leaders in educational work in Miles township, and a representative of the American book company, spent Thursday in Centre Hall, and was a spectator at the teachers' institute held on that day.
The Cosmopolitan for June is even more than usually strong in fiction. Ian MacLaren tells more adventures of that incorrigible youth, Sparrow. Richard Le Gallienne writes with charming freshness and simplicity the love-story of "Aucassin and Nicolette." H. G. Wells concludes "The First Men in the Moon" with Cavor's sudden death at the hands of the Grand Lunar. Tudor Jenks contributes a clever little satire on justice. Egerton Castle's powerful novel, "The Secret Orchard," continues, and O'Neil Latham writes a half-humorous, half-sad fairy-story, "Prince Weary-heart."

Married at Rebersburg.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of ex-Commissioner John Wolf, at Rebersburg, Wednesday evening, when Miss Winifred S. Wolf and Prof. Edwin M. Brungart were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of guests, immediate relatives of the principals, by Rev. Herman, of the Lutheran church. The wedding party Thursday morning started for Buffalo. The bride and groom are both young people who stand high socially in this community and every one wishes them success through life.

BICYCLES.—I have just received a lot of new chain, and chainless bicycles which I offer at greatly reduced prices. Also a number of second-hand wheels on hand from $5.00 up. Also a complete line of bicycle sundries. Coaster brakes a specialty. Thanking you for past patronage and respectfully soliciting a continuance of the same I remain
Respectfully,
W. W. BOON, Centre Hall, Pa.

DR. AND MRS. W. E. PARK.

On Tuesday evening at seven o'clock, a quiet wedding took place at the home of Captain and Mrs. George M. Boal, of this place, the contracting parties being their daughter, Miss Blanche, and Dr. William Edwin Park.

A beautiful wedding march was rendered by Miss A. Mabel Boal, sister of the bride, as the wedding party entered the parlor. The first to enter the room was Miriam, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Meyer, of Millersburg, who acted as flower girl. She wore a beautiful dress of white organdie and carried a basket of roses and carnations and gracefully performed her part.

The bride and groom followed and the ceremony which united them in marriage was performed by Dr. W. H. Schuyler, of the Presbyterian church. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of white Paris muslin, with white satin trimmings and carried a large bouquet of pink and cream roses. The ceremony was witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

Dr. W. E. Park graduated from the Bellevue Medical College, New York City, in 1898. The following year he served as house physician in the hospital. In September, 1899 he came to Centre Hall and began practicing medicine, and the following December passed the Pennsylvania State Board, and is now a rising young physician, with prospects for a bright future.

The bride is a bright, accomplished and handsome young lady, who by her genial disposition and pleasant manner won many friends, and is quite popular with all her associates.

After the ceremony the guests were invited to the dining room where refreshments were served, after which the bridal party was taken to Bellefonte by carriage, and on Wednesday morning they left for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, visiting Cayuga Lake Park, Geneva, Watkins Glen, and on their way home will spend several days with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jewett Gorham, at Elbridge, N. Y.

They will be absent about two weeks and on their return to Centre Hall will at once occupy their beautiful and cosy home on Main Street, which is furnished in readiness for the bride, and they will be at home to their friends after July 1.

The happy couple have the best wishes of hosts of friends, who join in hearty congratulations, wishing them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

The workmen at McNitts stave Mill, No. 1, who are performing some wonderful feats in the line of stave sawing are Messrs. H. S. Horner, sawyer; J. A. Dubbs, edger; Daniel Calahan, bolter; Samuel Cable, cut off; Leslie Horner, tireman and Hugh Calahan, piler.

The Potter township school board and township auditors met in the Bank Building Monday for the purpose of auditing school accounts. After the auditors had completed their work the township board organized by electing M. M. Rossmann president, and A. J. Heckman secretary.
