Potters Mills.

The M. E. Sunday school at Spruce-town observed Children's Day Sunday; it was a grand success in every particular and the church was well filled notwithstanding the disagreeable weather.

Miss Junie Hutchinson, of Bellefonte, is visiting friends at this place.

Dr. H. S. Alexander and wife made a business trip to Bellefonte one day last week.

John Slack lost a valuable horse Monday morning.

Stuart Long is moving up Chestnut street.

Fred Neuman is visiting friends at Tusseyville.

Linden Hall.

Many invitations have been issued by the committee for a picnic at "Big Rock," on Nittany Mountain, Saturday, the 22nd, where the young people from this community will meet those from Pleasant Gap and vicinity and a good time is promised to all.

Among the visitors to Bellefonte during the past week were Mrs. Chestie Tressler and Miss Gertrude Wieland.

J. T. Sparr and brother, of Madison, Ohio, whose father inherited the historic Sparr farm south of town at the death of his cousins, the Sparr sisters, paid a week's visit to this place and looked up their business interests in this section.

Jacob Meyer visited his sister at Rock Springs Friday last.

Philip Bradford and little son Carl, are able to sit up, and hope soon to be out again.

Isaac Smith, of Centre Hall, was a visitor at the Hess mansion in town Monday.

This town has been full of life insurance men the last few weeks; judging from the number and the frequency of their visits, every man, woman and child in the neighborhood must be investing in insurance.

Robert Campbell and wife and that new baby were guests of Mrs. Wilson over Sunday.

The pay train Saturday killed a dog belonging to Dan Bohn.

William Way, of State College, agent for the De Laval cream separator company transacted business here Tuesday.

Business Stand for Sale.

W. W. Boob, of Centre Hall, offers for sale his private residence, business place, and established retail carriage and wagon hardware trade.

A Sprained Ankle Quickly Cured. "At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says George E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va.

Spring Mills.

Children's Day services in the Methodist church Sunday evening last proved a very interesting occasion, and attracted a very large audience.

In the absence of Rev. Kershner, of the Reformed church, Dr. D. M. Wolf will occupy the pulpit Sunday next.

Woodward.

Misses Nora and Lottie Gusewite, of State College, paid their mother, Mrs. D. M. Stover and family a pleasant visit Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Fisher, of Zion, the jolly shoe man, was in town Monday and called on the merchants.

Miss Fannie Welsh, of Freeport, Illinois, arrived in town Monday and is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. C. Motz.

James Ritter, of Winfield, Union county, passed through town Tuesday morning with three wagons loaded with corn, oats and potatoes.

Miss Maude Miller, of Rock Springs and Ray Williams, of Oak Hall, spent Saturday and Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. R. M. Wolfe; Monday noon they left for their respective homes.

Last Monday A. M. Kremer, of Penn Hall, was in town after some farming implements he had left here when he moved away.

Coburn.

The festival held by the Coburn cornet band on Saturday, although it rained, proved a success.

C. A. Weaver and family left for Huntingdon one day last week. Mr. Weaver returned on Tuesday but the family will not return for several weeks; he is a prominent member of the Coburn cornet band.

K. H. Stover and wife, of Millburg, are visiting their many friends and relatives at this place.

T. G. Hosterman has just returned from West Virginia, where he has purchased a large timber tract. A. L. Harter and W. C. Krader are also in that state investigating timber lands.

Jacob Witmyer made sale of his household goods Saturday; the sale was fairly well attended considering the bad weather, and the articles sold brought good prices.

Miss Annie Shaffer attended commencement at State College and reports having had a fine time.

A party of six from Spring Mills, stopped at the Coburn House for dinner on Sunday.

W. H. Witmyer went down the country for the purpose of purchasing a horse; he intends to haul lumber for the Harter Bros.

Owing to the absence of Rev. E. H. Gerhart there were no services in the Reformed church last Sunday.

From Millheim Journal.

Al. Harter and W. C. Krader, of Coburn, returned Monday from a trip to West Virginia, where they had gone to look after timberland.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

"Something New Under the Sun." All doctors have tried to cure Catarrh by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form.

"Snuffles" is the only perfect catarrh cure ever made, and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease.

Catarrh when neglected often leads to consumption—"Snuffles" will save you if you use it at once.
