CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICE.

Evangelicals Render a Delightful Program to a Large Audience.

On last Sunday evening the Evangelicals of Centre Hall celebrated Children's Day, and a very good program was presented. The following children took part, and all are to be complimented on their work: Lula Shultz, Robt. Krumbine, Nina Snyder, Beale Calder, Florence Mader, Floyd Snyder, Anna Long, Calvin Smith, Roy Puff, Sylvia Krumbine, Nellie Smith, Harry Mader, Lyda Garis, Matty Long, Estey Krumbine, Ralph Dinges, Amanda Krumbine, Isabelle Krumbine, Alfred Crawford, Jean Shultz, John White-man, Ida Sweetwood, Mary Whiteman, Carrie Sweetwood, and Charlie Smith.

Several solos were well rendered by Mrs. Snyder, Frank Smith, and Lula Shultz. The speaking of the children was very good, and the older ones who had them in charge deserve much credit for their work. The church was crowded to overflowing, but though the heat was oppressive, the audience was attentive and appreciative. One of the most enjoyable features of the entertainment was the solo of Lula Shultz, accompanied by her brother, Sturges Shultz, on the guitar.

Woodward.

Rustle Sheasley is rejoicing over the arrival of a young son.

On the first of July A. M. Yearick took charge of the stage route from this place to Coburn; he is regularly on time.

Walter Williams, a student at Norristown College, is spending his vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Williams.

The farmers are through making hay with the exception of a few fields that are late. The cutting of wheat has begun; the wheat will be a heavy crop by all appearances; oats and barley will be a short crop.

The huckleberry crop on Roundtop Mountain is plentiful one; they are now ready to pick. Cherries are ripe and a fair crop; raspberries are ready to harvest and are plenty.

H. S. Runkle was home from Win-bur, Pa., to spend a week with his friends. There was some talk of a wedding when he arrived.

Mrs. William Wise was called to Union county last week to attend the funeral of her uncle, Mr. Duck.

On the 27th of July the Order of the P. O. S. of A. will hold an all day and evening festival and picnic; there will be some able orators present who will deliver addresses on patriotism.

"Dutch Jake" is in town and is fixing up the yard and trees for Mrs. J. C. Motz.

William Haines lost one of his horses last week by over heating it while driving to Union county.

Michael Gusewite, of Fiedler, was noticed in town last Saturday evening; he is as jolly as ever.

M. C. Gephart the music dealer, of Millheim is in town the other day and left a new organ.

Michael Eby's haymakers spent the Fourth at this place; they had a jolly time.

Spring Mills.

The hay crop is a good one.

Newton Weaver, the boss freight agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, at Altoona, accompanied by his family, spent a week with friends and relatives in this place.

Mrs. Ellen Hummel of Punxsutawney, and Mrs. Katie Smith, of Luthersburg, spent several days at the home of Smith Bros.

C. A. Krape held the winning card this time for the postoffice. That is the result of being a Quayite.

Harry Musser employed by the Howard Creamery Co., is rejoicing over the arrival of a young daughter.

Robert Gardner, of Rock Springs, spent Sunday with friends in this place.

Mrs. Frankenberg, wife of Harry Frankenberg, head clerk in C. P. Long's store, presented her husband with twins last week, a boy and a girl.

Miss Pearl Ritter and Mrs. Wilbur Heuney, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday with Miss May Smith.

Edward Jamison, of Martinsburg, is home on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Jamison.

Smith Bros. held their annual picnic on the Fourth of July. For the past twenty years this day has been set apart for their picnic and reunion, and they dine on the choice viands of the land. The brothers and sisters with their families, numbering twenty-two were present. The day was spent in eating, fishing and singing. May they live to enjoy many such gala days.

Calvin Zeigler, operator at the Milton railroad station, is visiting at the home of W. M. Musser.

Annie Royer and her niece, Miss Grace, of Orville, Ohio, spent last week at the home of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Corman, at this place. They enjoyed their visit and were much pleased with Centre county.

O. T. Corman's ice cream parlors, which are open every Saturday evening, are well patronized.

"Uncle John" Corman, of Canaan, Ohio, spent Sunday at the home of Andrew Corman.

Mrs. Louisa Horner, of Johnstown, spent Monday at the home of O. T. Corman.

Farmers Mills.

The young people of this community had a hop at Penn's Cave Tuesday evening last.

James Scholl and family spent Sunday with his brother, Samuel Scholl, near Centre Hall.

Rev. Rearick's sermon on gossiping and scandalous reports came at a very opportune time. There is entirely too much of that kind of work in this community.

Mervin Homan, who is working for J. E. Rishel, near Linden Hall, spent Sunday under the parental roof. It seems there are other attractions here besides home.

W. R. Homan returned from college a short time ago. Robert graduated from Central Pennsylvania College on the 20th of June, at which time he received the degree of A. B. He became the possessor of an "a. b." a few months previous, but that was no literary degree. At present he is taking a course in "farmacy" under the instruction of his father.

July Fourth passed off quietly until in the evening when the rising generation displayed fire works while the more elderly took inspiration from a keg on which John Barleycorn had put his stamp.

The Union Sunday school will hold a festival July 27th, to which all are invited.

Lodie Rishel visited friends and relatives in the eastern end of Penn's Valley.

J. H. Rishel and wife spent Sunday with friends in Millheim.

The Weaver Bro's peach orchard is bearing its first crop, and prospects are fair for a good yield.

Thomas Wolf, of Madisonburg, who is representing the Osborne Machine Co., had business at this place last week.

G. W. Long, who is painting in Altoona during the summer months, spent several days with his family over the Fourth.

Penn Hall.

Quite a number from this section spent the Fourth at Hecla Park.

Some of the farmers have finished making hay and have commenced harvesting. The hay crop was a fair yield through this section; the grain also makes a very good showing.

Eggs have advanced to sixteen cents on our market.

C. E. Zeigler, wife and son Paul, returned from an extended trip to Lock Haven.

John Swann and wife, of Williamsport, were guests at the home of D. J. Musser over Sunday.

ASK SETTLEMENT.

The undersigned kindly ask settlement from all persons indebted to them, as the funds are needed to complete the large ware rooms now in course of construction.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

"Something New Under the Sun."

All doctors have tried to cure Catarrh by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of Catarrh, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures catarrh, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the affected parts. This wonderful remedy is known as "Snuffles" the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure, and is sold at the extremely low price of one dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a full month's treatment and everything necessary to its perfect use.

"Snuffles" is the only perfect catarrh cure ever made, and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently and is also wonderfully quick to relieve hay fever or cold in the head.

Catarrh when neglected often leads to consumption—"Snuffles" will save you if you use it at once. It is no ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is positively guaranteed to cure catarrh in any form or stage if used according to the directions which accompany each package. Don't delay but send for it at once, and write full particulars as to your condition, and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you beyond the regular price of "Snuffles" the "Guaranteed Catarrh Cure."

Sent prepaid to any address in the United States or Canada on receipt of one dollar. Address, Dept. B734, Edwin B. Giles & Company, 2330 and 2332 Market Street, Philadelphia.
