

Centre Hill.

Hay is about all stored and grain nearly all harvested; some are cutting barley. Crops in general are pretty fair, better than most expected.

George Rishel, of Beaver Dam, was in this vicinity on business about a week ago.

William Kerr, of Centre Hall, is helping his uncle, J. B. Strohm, through haying and harvesting.

D. R. Foreman has returned from his wedding trip to the Pan-American.

A number of the young men from this place are thinking of going to business college and other institutions of learning within the next year.

Forest Bible, of Lewisburg, spent Sunday at the home of his parents.

Wilbur Burkholder, one of the rising young men of this place, will the coming winter teach the Cold Springs school, above Potters Mills. It is now the largest school in the township and will afford him plenty of work.

John Kline, of Earlytown, is cutting his crop on the Gilliland farm.

Farmers Mills.

Mrs. William Weaver has been on the sick list for the past week, but is at present improving.

Mrs. Noah Brungart, of Rebersburg, is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Grove.

An assistant fireman came to the home of James Kline. Of course the boys at the stove mill hoisted James.

Mrs. William Bradford is spending a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Rishel.

Rollin Gentzel is rejoicing over the arrival of a young daughter at his home last Sunday morning.

Where was the young pedagogue over Sunday?

Miss Gertrude Wise was seen in this community last Sunday. What was the attraction?

Mrs. J. H. Rishel, daughter Lodie, and Miss Blanche Hagan, of this place visited relatives and friends in Coburn last Thursday. The trip was very much enjoyed by Miss Hagan, who has been suffering from heart trouble and nervousness the past few months.

The farmers discussed the advantage of three or four horses in a binder. J. B. Rishel, of Coburn, an experienced teamster, then gave a talk, pointing out the advantages peculiar to each number. A farmer's institute is held at the store every Saturday evening during the summer, but daily sessions during the winter.

Rebersburg.

Miss Mame Meyer, of Booneville, spent Sunday at the home of her uncle, Dr. J. W. Bright.

Prof. T. C. Hantz, instructor in the department of mathematics at Susquehanna University, paid a short visit to friends in Rebersburg and very ably filled the pulpit for Rev. C. B. Harman Sunday evening.

John Meyer, a teacher from Mercer county, accompanied by Prof. John D. Meyer, of Centre Hall, spent several days with friends at Center Mills and Rebersburg.

J. Wallace Brungart has gone to Glen Rock, York county, where he secured a desirable position in a carriage factory.

The Misses Bray have been delightfully entertained at the home of J. K. Moyer, Center Mills.

Miss Grace Gulsewite, of Harrisburg, has been mingling with friends and relatives in this place, making her headquarters with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Gramley.

Refreshing showers have passed over this valley without changing the high temperature very materially but a blessing in other ways.

Miss Sallie Winkieblech, of Renovo, is visiting her grand parents, Mr and Mrs. James Miller.

Woodward.

Samuel Engle, of Loganton, was in town to settle up his lumber business.

Miss Susan Bruner, of Tarleton, is visiting Mrs. Wm. Guistville.

J. T. McCormick, accompanied by two other gentlemen, were here looking over the telephone lines. It is hoped they will extend the lines to Union county very soon.

Tuesday Wm. Hains was in the vicinity of Linden Hall in search of a horse.

Mrs. McKinney's, ice cream parlor at Potters Mills, is gaining quite a reputation for good cream.

THE HOME GOLD CURE.

An ingenious Treatment by which Drunkards are Being Cured Daily in Spite of Themselves.

No Noxious Doses. No weakening of the nerves; a pleasant and positive cure for the liquor habit. It is now generally known and understood that Drunkenness is a disease and not a weakness. A body filled with poison, and nerves completely shattered by peccadilloes or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison, and destroying the craving for its toxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by this wonderful "Home Gold Cure" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according to directions is positively guaranteed to effect the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men.

Wives cure your husbands!! Children cure your fathers!! This remedy is no vague nostrum but is a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of drunkards have cured themselves with this priceless remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temperate men by having the "cure" administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee or tea, and believe today that they discontinued drinking of their own free will. Do not wait. Do not be deluded by apparent and misleading "improvement." Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "Home Gold Cure" is sold at the extremely low price of one dollar, thus placing within reach of everybody a treatment more effectual than others costing $25 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepaid to any part of the world on receipt of one dollar. Address Dept. B754 Edwin B. Giles & Company, 2330 and 2332 Market Street, Philadelphia. All correspondence strictly confidential.

A Good Cough Medicine. Many thousands have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. If afflicted with any throat or lung trouble, give it a trial for it is certain to prove beneficial. Coughs that have resisted all other treatment for years, have yielded to this remedy. Special health been restored. Cases that seemed hopeless that the climate of famous health resorts failed to benefit, have been permanently cured by its use. For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

The Bohemian (Bohemian Pub. Co., Boston) for July is replete with clever things by clever people, and presents a table of contents that will delight the summer reader. During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Bookwalter, Ohio. For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall; J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.
