

BABY TO GRANDPA.

All sizes, sexes and conditions of humanity shod well and comfortably in our establishment—Shoes for indoors, Shoes for the storm, Shoes, the crowning glory of an elegant costume Shoes for mountain climbing and out-door sports. No man or woman leaves our store poorly fitted and shod. Shoes fitted to the feet, and not feet to the Shoes. Our lines are now complete in all departments—the best and finest of the spring styles—high and low cut—await your inspection and purchase. Popular prices—guaranteed fit.

Mingle's Shoe Store. BELLEFONTE, PA.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

United Evangelical—Centre Hall, preaching service every Sunday evening at 7:30. Sunday school every Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. K. L. of C. E. 6:30. Service next Sunday at Linden Hall, 2:30 p. m.; Lemont, 10 a. m. Methodist—Centre Hall, 10:30 a. m. Lutheran—Centre Hall, morning; Union, afternoon; Georges Valley, evening. Reformed—Centre Hall, 7:30 p. m.; Tusseyville, 10:30 a. m. Presbyterian—Centre Hall, 10:30 a. m.; Spring Mills, 2:30 p. m.

Progress Grange Meeting. Progress Grange will meet in Grange Arcadia Saturday, August 10, at 2 p. m.

Hecla Park. Hecla Park is a delightful place, and is the resort of scores of picnics. The Friday afternoon and evening concerts are well attended by Bellefonte people—young and old.

Passengers to Atlantic City. This (Thursday) morning, the passenger train east carried five passengers from this place to Atlantic City, namely: Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Foreman, Miss Foreman, Arthur E. Kerlin and Walter M. Kerlin.

Fine Grove Peach Orchard. The thrifty young orchard of Levi Krebs, near Pine Grove Mills, will have one thousand bushels of marketable fruit. Shipping is already going on. C. D. Krebs has charge of the crop.

Grasshoppers Destroyed Oat Crops. In the lower end of Penns Valley, about Millheim and Woodward grasshoppers are so numerous that they are doing great damage to the oat crop. Some fields have been eaten up so badly that the crop will scarcely be worth harvesting.

Apple Crop a Failure. The apple crop about Woodward, which is counted a good section for that kind of fruit, will be almost an entire failure. Many large orchards will not have a bushel of marketable fruit. Along the "Summer" mountain some of the orchards are bearing heavily.

County Superintendent Candidates. It is unofficially announced that Messrs. John Harrison, of Bellefonte, and James Gregg, of Milesburg, are candidates for county superintendent of public schools. These announcements, with the present incumbent out for a fourth term, will make the contest a triangular one, with possibly others unheard from.

Samuel Stover Dead. Samuel Stover died at his home north of Hartleton at the advanced age of eight-two years, from the effects of paralysis. His remains were brought to Wolf's Chapel cemetery for interment Saturday. The deceased was well known in Brush and Penns Valleys. At the time of his death he was engaged in farming.

Boy's Hand Cut Off. From the Howard Hustler it is learned that a young son of John Miller, of Marsh Creek, met with an accident which might have resulted in the loss of his right hand. The blade of a sharp double bit ax practically severed his hand near the knuckle joint. Dr. McEntire was called and rendered the necessary surgical attention and the young man is getting along as well as can be expected.

Tax Collectors. The tax collectors of the county are pleased over the enactment of a law by the recent legislature which gives them a commission of five per cent. on all taxes returned to the county commissioners for collections on seated lands. This five per cent. to be paid the collector is to be added to the taxes returned. Heretofore collectors received no commission on taxes returned.

DWELLING HOUSE BURNED.

The Old Ross Mansion Owned by Samuel Ripka Totally Destroyed. Linden Hall had another disastrous fire Monday, which totally destroyed the old Daniel Ross mansion, owned by Samuel Ripka. The fire originated from a stove pipe while Mrs. Ripka was cooking the noon meal. The lady discovered the roof of her home on fire and at once rang the large farm dinner bell to summon her husband from the field where he was plowing. Mr. Ripka thought his wife was hurrying up the day by getting an early dinner, and so continued plowing, while his wealth was being consumed by fire. Neighbors and Mr. Ripka at last appeared upon the scene, and saved most of the furniture in the lower story, and the goods in the cellar. Among other articles destroyed by the fire were highly prized relics, and a small amount of gold.

The house, which was brick and built about fifty years ago, was insured for $1000.00 in the Hartford Insurance Co., J. Jamison, Spring Mills, agent, and the furniture for $300.00. The insurance will not cover the loss.

Rev. Harpster's Talks. Rev. John H. Harpster's talks at the Lutheran picnic in Taylor's grove, at the railroad station Saturday, will be well worth the hearing, not only by Lutherans but by others as well.

President Heisler Resigns. Rev. C. W. Heisler, president of Susquehanna university, Selinsgrove, has tendered his resignation. He has accepted a call to become pastor of a Lutheran congregation at Albany, N. Y.

Lawn Social. The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a lawn social on the parsonage lawn at this place, Saturday evening, August 17. Ice cream, cake, coffee, etc., will be served. All are invited.

A Terrible Explosion. A tank of gasoline exploded in the cellar of a grocery store, No. 1014, Locust Street, Philadelphia, and demolished five buildings and partially ruined a dozen more. Ten persons were killed and at least fifty others injured.

Church Reopened After Long Delay. Rev. Mr. Radcliffe, rector of the Episcopal Church, has arranged to preach in All Saints' Church in Selinsgrove. This church was built by Miss Mary L. Snyder, granddaughter of Governor Simon Snyder, and the only service ever held in the edifice was the donor's funeral service. Sunday, however, the second service was held, and worship will be continued hereafter at regular intervals.

Robbed of $100. Albert Jones, of Port Matilda was robbed of $100 while in Bellefonte Thursday last week, says the Daily News. He suspected Howard Reber, of Williamsport, who was hostler at the Garman House, with having taken the money and had a warrant issued for his arrest. Reber left town on the 2:40 train and has not since been seen.

No Second Week of Court. In answer to a petition signed by all the lawyers at the bar, Judge Love has ruled that the second week of the August term of court will be dispensed with.

Jurors and others summoned to appear at the second week will not need to do so. This means for the week beginning September 2, or more commonly known as the civil week.

202 1-4 the New Trotting Record. The world's trotting record was broken last Friday at Columbia, Ohio, by Crescents, the Champion of all trotters. In the face of a strong wind he made a mile in the remarkable time of 2:02. He was driven by Mr. Ke'cham, his owner who expects Crescents to make a still lower work in the future the trotting record last year was 2:03, held by the Abbott Star Pointer holds the worlds facing record which is 1:29.

Fifteenth Operation. Michael Kepler, of Renovo, who has suffered for five years from a spinal disease and who was recently admitted to the Lock Haven hospital, was operated upon last week. Mr. Kepler, previous to being admitted to the hospital at Lock Haven, had submitted to 14 different operations in this state. The last operation was the 15th, and a number of pieces of dead bones were removed. Mr. Kepler's affection resulted from a fall on an icy sidewalk at Cross Fork.

The Grange Picnic. The Grange Encampment and exhibition committee is completing plans to make the twenty-eighth annual gathering, September 14 to 20, more interesting than any held heretofore. A number of exhibition buildings will be moved so as to bring the exhibit closer together. A number of new features will be introduced in the way of entertainment. It is expected that more tents will be occupied than have been for the past few years, and the plan of the camp will be so arranged as to make camp life more pleasant and comfortable. The grange picnic affords an opportunity for an outing not to be found elsewhere, and this year will be largely patronized by campaign parties.

TEAM RAN AWAY.

The Driver Mr. Bradford Hurt—A Sheep and Two Chickens Killed. An exciting runaway occurred at Farmers Mills Friday of last week when Albert Bradford hitched his own and a horse belonging to J. H. Rishel to the thrashing machine belonging to Mr. Showers. When the team was started, the noise of the machine frightened the horses which at once began to run down a steep grade. Mr. Bradford held to the lines bravely until he tripped and fell, from the effects of which he sustained serious bruises. When the team got away from the driver they ran over an embankment and detached themselves from the machine, but not before being badly cut about the hind legs. On their flight the horses ran over two children and killed them. A dead sheep, the property of D. H. Rearick, was also found in the tracks of the machine.

Negro Burned at Stake. In the presence of five hundred whites and blacks, John Pennington was burned at the stake at Birmingham, Ala., Wednesday morning, for assaulting a prominent farmer's wife.

Festival at Sprucetown. The members of the Methodist church at Sprucetown will hold a festival Friday and Saturday evenings, August 30 and 31. Ice cream, cake, fruit, etc., will be served. The congregation is worthy of the support of the public in this enterprise, and they will endeavor to give full value for every purchase. Patronize them.

Died at 84. Mrs. Catharine Sheesley died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Woerner, Boalsburg, early this, Thursday, morning, at the advanced age of eighty-four years. She had been confined to bed from ailments due to advanced age for about twenty months. Interment Saturday morning, Rev. A. A. Black officiating. Mrs. Sheesley is from Union county where she lived until a few years ago. The children who survive are, Mrs. Edward Woerner, Boalsburg; Mrs. Susan Robeson, White Deer; George, Penn Hall; Jackson, Woodward. The husband, Peter Sheesley, died seven years ago.

Lutheran Picnic. All is now ready for the picnic Saturday. Let not a Lutheran in Penns or Brush Valley stay at home. All take a day off and come to the picnic. Come to hear what the church is doing for the heathen. Come and get acquainted with one another; get closer together; talk about your great church, your common heritage, your plans for christian work and many other things. Remember that Dr. Harpster, of India; Dr. Scholl, of Baltimore; Dr. Holloway, of Bellefonte; Rev. Leisher, of Boalsburg, and others will speak at this picnic; do not fail to hear them. Come early in the morning and bring your dinner; only one-eighth of a mile from the R. R. station at Centre Hall to the grove. Plenty of room in the grove for horses but remember they are not to be tied to growing timber except in such a manner that they can do no damage to the trees. Should Saturday be inclement, the picnic will be held Tuesday following. The general public is cordially invited.

Marriage Licenses. H. L. Syers, Clarence. Katie Cook, Yarnes. J. D. Hunter, Bellefonte. Agnes B. Rearick, Bellefonte. David R. Richards, Julian. Hannah Mary Myers, Julian. Franklin Beck, Axemann. Hannah Lucas, Goshard. J. H. Moore, Worth Top. Coatie Reese, Worth Top. W. A. Withers, Runville. Cora Shawley, Goshard.

Phosphate at Retail. We will have a car of Phosphate, all grades and prices, on hand this week for retail. These are choice goods and prices to meet all competition. FOREMAN & FLOREY. The Earth for 50 Cents. No, but Smith's one dollar per dozen cabinets, (regular price $2.50) is a bonanza for any one who wants pictures. For a limited time only. W. W. SMITH, Centre Hall. Friday, July 12.

The Weather. Highest Temp. Lowest Temp. Rain Fall. Thu. day, Aug. 1, 78 deg., 59 deg., .02. Friday, " 2, 80 " 61 " " " Saturday, " 3, 85 " 64 " " " Sunday, " 4, 81 " 65 " .42. Monday, " 5, 80 " 59 " .50. Tuesday, " 6, 71 " 58 " 1.09. Wednesday, " 7, 76 " 70 " .15. Total rain fall, 1.79 inches.

GRAIN MARKET. Old Wheat, 65c; New " 60c. Rye " 40c. Corn " 30c. Oats " 20c. Barley " 15c. Fat " 10c.

PRODUCE AT STORES. Butter " 14. Eggs " 14. Lard " 10. Potatoes, BW " 10. Side Meat " 8. Shoulder " 8. Ham " 12. SPRING MILLS—O. T. CORMAN. (In exchange for goods, Cash also paid.) Eggs " 14. Side " 7. Butter " 14. Yellow " 35. Chickens, 9; old " 6. Apples " 7. Raspberries " 5. Potatoes " 4. Ham " 12. Onion sets " 7. Shoulder " 9. Large Onions " 7.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Prof. John D. Meyer is at the Pan. Corneline D. Houtz, Lemont, was granted an increase of pension, $8. James Fortney, of Freeport, Illinois, is visiting among the Fortneys in Boalsburg. Mrs. J. Emory Hoy, of Philadelphia, and little daughter Elizabeth, arrived Wednesday. W. T. McKean, of Denver, Col., formerly of this county, is the guest of J. T. Potter.

Miss Grace Smith Wednesday afternoon returned from an extended trip to Williamsport and Buffalo. Mrs. Maria Wagner, of Tusseyville, spent the past week at the home of Rev. J. M. Rearick, in this place. On Monday W. O. Knapp's saw mill at Salona was destroyed by fire, the loss is $4,000 with no insurance. The Linden Hall correspondent intimates of unbecoming conduct on the part of young people from this place. Lost—A visored cap; blue with red lining; the owner's name is inside. Finder will confer a favor by returning. Arney Lee, who holds a position in Pittsburg, is expected home to-day, and will be accompanied by a young lady. Prof. H. F. Bitner and son Harry Tuesday started for the Pan-American exposition and will be gone a week or ten days. Misses Mabel Young and Alice Rowe, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Sweeney, at Boalsburg. J. G. Ramey, of Pleasant Gap, had business at Luse's planing mill this week and called at the Reporter office on his way. William A. Catherman, the all round blacksmith of Linden Hall, recently purchased a dwelling house from the lumber company.

The Susquehanna Lutheran reunion will be held at Island Park, Sunbury, Thursday, August 15, 1901. Prominent speakers will be present. Miss Jennie Foreman, daughter of John Foreman, of near Potters Mills, this (Thursday) morning went to Philadelphia and Atlantic City for a few days' stay. The cash drawer of Jvvin's book store, Bellefonte, was raided of $25.00 Monday night. Harry Miller, colored, was suspected, arrested and later confessed the crime. W. R. Homan, of Farmers Mills, a graduate of Central Pennsylvania College, New Berlin, is now at Lewistown where he has secured a position with the Standard Steel Works.

Capt. G. M. Boal, executor of the Sparr estate, advertises at public sale the old Sparr farm and a lot of woodland, both located near Boalsburg. Both are choice tracts. Sale August 30. Rev. J. L. Barnhart, pastor of the Reformed church of West Milton, has accepted a call to Saegerstown, Crawford county, and has offered his resignation which took effect Sunday, August 4th. Prof. W. H. Morris, who was offered a position in the Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, will not accept the same, but will continue as principal of the Rebersburg High School at a salary of $60.00. Prof. S. C. Miller, principal of the public schools in Tower City, Pa., accompanied by his wife and Miss Nannie Thomas, of Latrobe, recently were guests of the former's cousin, Mrs. T. E. Wieland, Linden Hall.

Messrs. W. O. Rearick, M. J. Decker and Hiram Durst who had been touring through Illinois, Indiana and Iowa will return home to-day, Thursday. John Speicher, who went west with the party, will remain in Indiana for some time. Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Dietzel, of Cavetown, Md., arrived in Centre Hall the latter part of last week and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durst. Rev. Dietzel is pastor of a Reformed church in Maryland, and his services are greatly appreciated by the flock he is shepherding. James H. Lohr, wife and family, and Mrs. Welsh, of Philadelphia, arrived Friday afternoon, and are the guests of Joseph Lutz and family in this place, and also visited in Bellefonte. Mr. Lohr will return to Philadelphia today, Thursday, where he is engaged in the auditing department of the Pennsylvania railroad company, Broad Street Station.

Knocked From a Load of Hay. Grant Mengel, aged about 17 years, the son of Ph. Mengel, near Fremont, Snyder county, met with a serious accident the other Monday afternoon. While hauling oats, young Mengel was on the load and while driving past a cherry tree, lightning struck the tree, and stunned the boy so that he fell off the load. He was severely stunned and was unconscious the greater part of Monday night and small hopes were entertained for his recovery. The horses were also severely stunned.

BICYCLES. I have just received a lot of new chain and chainless bicycles which I offer at greatly reduced prices. Also a number of second-hand wheels on hand from $5.00 up. Also a complete line of bicycle sundries. Coaster brakes a specialty. Thanking you for past patronage and respectfully soliciting a continuance of the same I remain, Respectfully, W. W. BOON, Centre Hall, Pa.

SHORT LOCALS.

Miss Geary, of Millheim, sister of Barber F. P. Geary, at this place, was in town over Sunday. Misses Grace Lee and Katie Weaver, of this place, spent Sunday with friends at Coburn and Millheim. Mrs. William Carson, of Hecla Park, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wion, on Church street. Perry Krise, of near Potters Mills, was a caller during the writer's absence, but left substantial marks of his presence. Rev. William McClellan, of Johnstown, is enjoying the society and hospitality of his many friends and relatives in Linden Hall and vicinity. Rev. C. W. Rishell, of Woodland, Pa., was in Centre Hall this week. Rev. Rishell has been serving a Methodist congregation at Woodland for some years. Walter Orwig, of our quiet little town, says the Hartleton correspondent to the Millburg Times, and Miss Bright, of Aaronsburg, Centre county, were united in marriage Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. David R. Foreman, of Potters Mills, preparatory to going to housekeeping at Tusseyville, Wednesday went to Philadelphia for a few days' stay. Mr. Foreman will teach the Tusseyville school next winter.

Miss Helen Bolander, of Freeport, Illinois, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Annie Evans, at Centre Hill. Miss Bolander visited the Pan-American Exposition, then came to see her friend Mrs. Evans, whom she met in the west. W. O. Cole, of Tablequah, Indian Territory, visited his sister, Mrs. John Wiebley, at Linden Hall last week. Mr. Cole has been a resident of Indian Territory about eleven years, but has decided to make his future home at Watsonstown. Rev. George W. Currin, of Williamsport, occupied the pulpit and conducted the services at the U. Ev. Bush Meeting Sunday morning of last week, says the Sugar Valley Journal. He is a "spirited" minister. A pentecostal sermon was delivered. The Soldier's Orphan school commission Wednesday decided to abandon the school at Hartford and transfer the pupils to the schools at Chester Springs, Scotland and Uniontown. All the pupils will be eventually concentrated at the Industrial school at Scotland.

Mrs. Leah Wolf, of Altoona, mother of Augustus Wolf, of Kaiser, West Virginia, and Edward Wolf, of Altoona, both well known in Centre Hall, was a guest of Mrs. Edward Sellers this week. Mrs. Wolf formerly lived in Boalsburg, but at present is making her home with her daughter Mrs. Mader in Altoona. John Snavely, tinner and dealer in stoves, Spring Mills, had a Commercial phone placed in his place of business recently. When you are in want of a tinner, call him up by phone, and he will be along with his outfit to do any kind of spouting or roofing. He is in the stove business up to the neck, and can sell you anything you want in the stove line. A wedding is announced to take place at the station end of town middle of September. Of course, the affair—contracting parties and exact date is a profound secret, but the Reporter will say on its own responsibility that the bride only is a resident of Centre Hall and that the groom is connected with a railroad office in Gettysburg and comes from a well known family formerly of Spring Mills. Hush!

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea," says J. H. Doak, of Williams, Oregon. "We were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall, J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

William Schuyler, son of Dr. W. H. Schuyler, pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place, came to his home last Friday. Mr. Schuyler is a student at Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., and after the term closed he went to Vernon, N. Y., to work in a canning factory. He kept at the work for over two weeks when he was taken ill with an attack of pleurisy, which confined him to his bed for a week or more, and as soon as able to travel he came home where he will recuperate, preparatory to his college work next fall.

Howard M. Emerick came home from Trenton, N. J., last Monday for a short stay with his parents. Mr. Emerick is on a vacation from the State Hospital for the Insane at Trenton, where he is an attendant. Newton and Charles Emerick, two Centre Hall boys, are also attendants in the same institution and will likely return home soon on their vacation. Rev. James Boal, of Port Carbon, accompanied by his wife, arrived Friday of last week and remained until Tuesday, when they left for Bellefonte where they will remain a week or ten days. Sunday morning Rev. Boal filled the pulpit in the Presbyterian church in this place, and delivered an inspiring sermon, having lost none of his force as a pulpit orator.

Mrs. Emerick, wife of Dr. C. E. Emerick, of this place, last week returned from a month's visit to her sisters in various parts of Ohio. Mrs. Frank Sinkey, of Croton, Licking county, her eldest sister, came east with her, and will remain for some time with the hope that she will regain her health, which is badly broken down. Mr. Sinkey is engaged in farming. William Schuyler, son of Dr. W. H. Schuyler, pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place, came to his home last Friday. Mr. Schuyler is a student at Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., and after the term closed he went to Vernon, N. Y., to work in a canning factory. He kept at the work for over two weeks when he was taken ill with an attack of pleurisy, which confined him to his bed for a week or more, and as soon as able to travel he came home where he will recuperate, preparatory to his college work next fall.

William Schuyler, son of Dr. W. H. Schuyler, pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place, came to his home last Friday. Mr. Schuyler is a student at Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., and after the term closed he went to Vernon, N. Y., to work in a canning factory. He kept at the work for over two weeks when he was taken ill with an attack of pleurisy, which confined him to his bed for a week or more, and as soon as able to travel he came home where he will recuperate, preparatory to his college work next fall.

THE STAR STORE.

ESTABLISHED 1889. G. O. BENNER PROPRIETOR.

It is All Here and It's All True.

July the Banner Month.

While we have felt several times that possibly it would be hard for the coming month to exceed the one just finished, we feel that is nearer the case now, at the end of July, than ever before. For truly July has been even a surprise to ourselves. We are sparing no efforts to crowd August to the front and are offering special inducements to accomplish that end. Will you listen? Double oil stove, 3 1/2 in. wicks, $1.50. 10 qt. Tin buckets, special price, two for 35c. Large dinner bucket, a bumper at 25c. Fancy bleached towels, per pair 10c. Good unbleached muslin, yard wide, 5c. Carpet tacks per box, 1c. Fancy colored hammock 75c. Moxen red handkerchiefs 3 for 10c. 25 good envelopes for 3c. 21 sheets good note paper 5c. 14-lb. Horse rasp, this price is low, 25c. The above are only a few, we have many more and will be pleased to show you and name price. Come and see for yourself.