Senate, in which body he was the leading spirit in bringing about the passage of the bill which provided for the erection of the State Hospital for the insane at Norristown. In 1885 he was elected Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, and he was re-elected in 1893. None of his decisions has ever been directly reversed by the Supreme Court. He has attended several Democratic national and State conventions as a delegate.

In the Democratic State convention of 1899 Judge Yerkes was one of the leading candidates for the nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court and he came within a few votes of securing that distinction, which after a memorable struggle, involving twenty-eight ballots in a convention lasting two days, was awarded to Stephen Leslie Mestrezet, of Fayette county.

Andrew J. Palm, the nominee for State Treasurer, is a member of the State House of Representatives from Crawford county. During the last session of the Legislature he was a prominent figure on the Democratic side of the House, and made an enviable record for standing up for the principles of his party and against the dominant element in the General Assembly. He was born at Sheakleyville in 1848, and raised on a farm. After receiving an academic education, for which he paid out of the proceeds of his labor, he became a school teacher. Subsequently he was principal of the New Lebanon Academy, and Superintendent of Public Schools of Mercer county.

Mr. Palm was editor of the Mercer Press for several years and also of the Educational Review, of Pittsburg. He founded the American Journal of Politics in 1892, and from 1894 to 1897 he was editor of the Meadville Messenger. Mr. Palm is the author of a book entitled "The Death Penalty," of which several editions have been published. He was elected to the House of Representatives in 1898, and re-elected on a fusion ticket in 1900.

NEWSPAPER OPINIONS.

The North American, Ind. Republican.
The Democratic State Convention adopted a platform that, as a whole, will meet with the approval of every intelligent and honest man in Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia Ledger.
The resolutions adopted at Harrisburg for the reorganization of the Democratic party in this city gives promise of accomplishing a good purpose.

Pittsburg Dispatch, Republican.
The nominees are Judge Harmon D. Yerkes of Bucks for Supreme Court and A. J. Palm of Crawford for State Treasurer. Judge Yerkes has an enviable record on the bench, and Mr. Palm is a well known and active member of the Legislature.

Meadville Morning Star, Ind. Rep.
In nominating Hon. Andrew J. Palm for State Treasurer, the Democratic State Convention made no mistake. There is not in politics in either party to-day in the State of Pennsylvania a cleaner man, nor one more deserving of the honors of public office. He has been tried and found wanting. His career in the State Legislature is an open book, and no breath of suspicion rests against his character.

Pittsburg Post, Democratic.
The Democratic platform adopted by the State convention at Harrisburg eliminates all questions of National politics and proposes to all citizens—to all parties—a detailed and united battle for the restoration of common decency and honesty in the affairs of this great State. It asks all friends of good government to join in making this fight—not as a political organization seeking a partisan advantage, but in the interests of all Pennsylvania. This is the right way the battle is opened. It is to restore government of, by and for the people. It is to rebuke organized big game, corruption, bribery and the meanest and most depraved and servile of machine rule.

Philadelphia Press, Republican.
The Democrats of Pennsylvania have nominated a strong ticket on an impracticable platform. The Democratic ticket is a challenge to the regular Republican organization. In character, capacity and experience the candidates meet all requirements. The State would be well served by the election of Judge Yerkes. The Supreme bench needs just the kind of strength that he would bring to it. Mr. Palm would make an admirable State Treasurer. Such nominations put the Republicans on their merits. They call for the nomination of a candidate for Supreme judge less respected and trusted in his profession than Judge Yerkes and a candidate for State Treasurer as free from suspicion of collusion with speculative ringsters as Mr. Palm.

Milheim.

Mrs. Kahl Deihl, of Denver, Col., a daughter of Joseph Contner, of this place, is east on a visit to parents and friends and is at present under the parental roof.

The Millheim band was to Wolf's Store Saturday afternoon and evening furnishing music for a Sunday school picnic and festival. They were rained in and did not arrive home until four o'clock Sunday morning.

Swartz's Weekly Reminder.

Now is your opportunity to secure a lot of merchandise under price. The reason: we are rummaging. That means we are turning up all the corners of the store, emptying boxes, drawers, shelves, etc., of such goods that we do not wish to and have no room to carry to another season. In going into our shoe department you will find shoes that were $2.85 now $1.95 shoes that $1.48 and $1.35 now $1.00 etc. A nice lot of them but going fast: nothing wrong with them, only some are Tans, others a wee bit too narrow in the toe to be up to today's style.

Men's Overalls 10 to 45 cents. You will find you have never seen any overalls to beat these for the price.

Ladies' shirt waists 30c from 50c, 40c from 68c, etc.

Summer Dress Goods 9 and 10c to 5c. Lot of Misses' Black Hose sizes 5 to 8 1/2 from 10c reduced to 6c etc.

Remember we have only mentioned a few things to give you an idea how we have put the knife into prices. Come and see whether you buy or not.

A HOPEFUL DEMOCRACY.

The Democratic State Convention, in spite of all its factional disputes, has bravely met the public expectation in its action upon the issues of the hour, and has made possible an earnest and hopeful campaign for the restoration of honest government.

Waiving all questions of national politics, the convention makes its appeal directly to all honest citizens to unite "for the redemption of our Commonwealth from the political freebooters who now control it." No language can be too strong to describe the depth of prostitution into which the political control of Pennsylvania has sunk, or the wide extent of its infamy, and this denunciatory platform is a summons to all patriotic people to join their efforts for its overthrow.

The distracting question of the organization in Philadelphia was wisely dealt with, in a way that ought to secure a united party. In any case, the one issue before the people is of so compelling importance and is so broadly declared, that no professing Democrat can have excuse for holding aloof, and the convention did not hesitate to denounce, with unmistakable emphasis, the false Democrats who have betrayed their party to serve the Republican machine.

The nomination of Judge Yerkes for the Supreme Court and of Mr. Palm for State Treasurer is entirely in accord with the declarations of the platform, and the call for union and co-operation. They are men above faction or personal control.

The outcome of Harrisburg convention is full of hope for the people of Pennsylvania and for the Democratic party in the State and in the nation.

Senator W. C. Heinle is one of the committee who will investigate Philadelphia Democratic politics. Senator Heinle has been repeatedly recognized by the Democrats of the state, which shows that this district has a representative in the upper state house that is making himself felt.

Congressman J. K. P. Hall was an important figure at the recent Democratic State convention. Congressman Hall will always be found on duty whenever anything can be done to further the interests of the state or national Democratic organization.

It is said that Shamrock II. follows the lines of the American built yachts closely. If it only follows them in the races no objection will be made.

Should Admiral Sampson be a witness in the Schley case let's hope he'll get at least within ten miles of the facts.
