For Justice of Supreme Court: HIRAM YERKES. For State Treasurer: ANDREW J. PALM.

Prothonotary—M. I. GARDNER. District Attorney—N.B. SPANGLER.

The Chinese continue to play their waiting game, which has characterized their acts throughout the long negotiations with the powers.

Senator Quay, it is reported, has cut short his vacation in the forests of Maine, and is hurrying back to Pennsylvania to see what the "boys" have been doing to him.

The negotiations which have proceeded intermittently for several years for the purchase by the United States from Denmark of the Danish West Indian islands seem now to be about concluded.

If appearances count for anything the Sampson clique in the navy department has become desperate in the face of the Schley court of inquiry, and is leaving no stone unturned to thwart its just claims.

At Uniontown the other day when the school directors were discussing different text books, with the end in view of improving on those already in use, the county superintendent made the assertion that it was not so much books that were needed as it was teachers—good teachers who could be gotten only by paying high salaries.

At Uniontown the other day when the school directors were discussing different text books, with the end in view of improving on those already in use, the county superintendent made the assertion that it was not so much books that were needed as it was teachers—good teachers who could be gotten only by paying high salaries.

The State Camp Patriotic Order Sons of America met in Harrisburg Wednesday.

Catharine Caldwell, aged eighty-four years, died in McVeytown.

Peaches are being offered in Middleburg daily at one dollar per bushel.

Snyder county deaths: David Shambaugh, of Paxtonville, aged 83 years.

Apples will be a scarce commodity in Union county this year, so scarce that the crop is not considered at all.

The brick work on the new Lutheran church in Lewistown is completed and the plasterers are at work on the interior.

George F. Hare, living a short distance north of Middleburg has a peach orchard that will yield 500 bushels this season. It is one of the most heavily laden orchards in that section.

Potatoes that are so small that if there were anything like a normal crop says the Lewistown Free Press, they would at once be put away for seed, command a fair price in the market.

Lewistown fair will be held this year September 24, 25, 26 and 27. Judging from the premium list the Union county fairs managers are hustling.

The Lutheran congregations of Middleburg and Hagersville Church will hold an election for minister on Sunday evening, September 1. Rev. Deihl of Nittany, Centre county, is the proposed candidate.

J. F. Stettler, architect and contractor of the Middleburg leather manufacturing company's building, while assisting workmen to straighten a parlor, was struck on the back of the head with a brace and seriously injured.

Harkless Bailey died at his home at Hummels Wharf on August 20, aged 54 years. Nine months to the day of his death he had been caught by a log, while working in the woods, since which time he had been a constant sufferer.

Frank Bigler, of New Berlin, attempted to have a forged note cashed at the Sunbury Trust and Safe Deposit Company. Two names, Isaac Bigler, the father of the prisoner, and N. Yoder were forged on the back of the note, which was made payable to Bigler at the Trust Bank.

Millin county Democratic ticket: Associate Judge, Joseph A. Wertz and W. V. B. Coplin, both of Lewistown; register and recorder, E. Bruce Alexander, Belleville; prothonotary, Frank B. Mc Cabe, Lewistown; district attorney, William W. Uttley, Lewistown; director of the poor, W. B. Kyle, Brown township; county surveyor, John Swigart, Granville twp.

The Monroe Milling Company, composed of Dr. Percival Herman, and his brothers, B. F. and H. A. Herman of Kratzville, are putting up a splendid brick roller-mill on the site of the flour mill formerly owned by Schoch and Wagenseller, which turned down about six years ago, in Middleburg. They are erecting a new residence and stable for the miller employed. The mill will be ready by December 1.

Laurelton had a wet experience Monday afternoon of last week. It was visited by a cloud-burst about 1.30 p. m. and for two hours the streets of the town were under three feet of water.

Adam Weaver has improved very much since last week and is able to be out again.

Prof. Keller, of Lewistown, and Hon. Wm. K. Alexander, of Millheim, were in town last Monday.

Clayton Boob and E. I. Ketter and family left last week for a lumber job west of Johnstown, run by Ed. Zimmerman. Mr. Boob, who is a fine sawer, will take charge of the saw and Ed. Ketter and family will run the boarding house.

Among those who left for the Sugar Valley campmeeting last week were, C. W. Hosterman and family, Mrs. B. F. Yearick, Mrs. James Ketter, Gerlie and Lydia Yearick, Mabel Wolfe, E. Haines, Jacob Harter and family, Mrs. Emma Eastenmire, H. R. Ketter, and many others whom we cannot recall.

Farmers Mills.

The farmers are busy preparing their fields for seeding; the recent rains have thoroughly moistened the ground and there is no murmuring of it being too dry to plow.

H. E. Shreckengast who has been on the sick list the last few days is not yet able to fill his post of duty.

Frank Fisher is making vast improvements on his newly purchased property by having Hagau Bro's replace the old roofs by new ones, and erecting several new outbuildings.

Samuel Shreckengast was the representative from this place to the Sugar Valley campmeeting.

Quite a number of the young sports enlightened themselves by attending the woods meeting at Egg Hill Sunday evening.

The people of this community deserve much credit for the beautiful decorations in the church for Harvest Home services. Rev. Bearick delivered a very interesting sermon.

George Kline is on the sick list; the writer wishes him a speedy recovery.

Miss Maggie Smith and lady friend, of Bellefonte, are spending a few days at the home of Nathaniel Brown.

Some people were surprised by the visit of the constable last week, but soon learned his business.

Most of the business men are spending a few days in Bellefonte this week.

Wm. Luse and family, of Tyrone, were callers at this place Sunday.

There is some person, or persons, as the case may be, who are becoming so mean and low as to write some of the most hateful letters to persons and deliver them to their own doors in the peaceful night. These persons must be seeking trouble. The scriptures say, "seek and ye shall find." If a light is not sufficient, some one may bark up the wrong tree some time.

Lloyd Barges paid his usual visit to this place Sunday; come again Lloyd, welcome is above the door.

Linden Hall.

Miss Della Garbrick, who spent several weeks at Penns Cave, returned home Thursday.

J. C. Miller, of Bellefonte, made a business trip to this place last week.

Arrived at the home of George Pearson, August 19, a little son.

Mrs. Davidson and daughter, of Dubois, Clearfield county, and Mrs. Wm. Ri-hell and sister, Miss Myrtle Williams, of Oak Hall, spent last Thursday very pleasantly at the home of Robert Corl.

Among those at Bellefonte during the week were, Squire Potter, Henry Zeigler, Samuel Ripka, John Tressler, Mrs. Mary Ross, Mrs. Chestie Tressler, and Miss Freda Hess.

Mrs. Bettie Long is seriously ill at this writing.

Grange Resolution.

To the Masters and members of the subordinate Granges of Centre county:—At the recent meeting of the County Grange the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Resolved, that we cordially invite every grange in the county to appoint several persons to give recitations and five or six persons to assist with the music at the meetings of the Grange on September 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 1901. Also that the committee of arrangements provide separate tents as head quarters for all the Granges in the county, where the members can store their baskets, wraps, etc., so as to secure them against loss.

We would earnestly invite and urge you to inform every member of your grange of the above arrangements. Come and show to the world that we believe in farmers' organizations, and stand together for their mutual protection. Inform the committee as early as possible whom you have appointed to recite and assist in the singing. They need not necessarily all be members of the grange.

L. RHONE. JOHN DAUBERMAN. GEORGE DALE. GEORGE GINGERIC. G. L. GOODHART. Committee.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea," says J. H. Donker, Will-iams, Oregon. "We were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale by Mrs. J. W. Keller, Linden Hall, J. F. Smith, Centre Hall.

Swartz's Weekly Reminder.

Now is your opportunity to secure a lot of merchandise under price. The reason: we are rummaging. That means we are turning up all the corners of the store, emptying boxes, drawers, shelves, etc., of such goods that we do not wish to and have no room to carry to another season. In going into our shoe department you will find shoes that were $2.85 now $1.95 shoes that $1.48 and $1.35 now $1.00 etc. A nice lot of them but going fast; nothing wrong with them, only some are Tans, others a wee bit too narrow in the toe to be up to today's style.

Men's Overalls 10 to 45 cents. You will find you have never seen any overalls to beat these for the price.

Ladies' shirt waists 30c from 50c, 40c from 68c, etc.

Summer Dress Goods 9 and 10c to 5 and 6c. Lot of Misses' Black Hose sizes 5 to 8 1/2 from 10c reduced to 6c etc.

Remember we have only mentioned a few things to give you an idea how we have put the knife into prices. Come and see whether you buy or not.

S. M. Swartz, TUSSEYVILLE.

W. A. HENNEY, BLACKSMITH. Come around to see me.
