Democratic Ticket. For Justice of Supreme Court: HARAM YERKES.

For State Treasurer: ANDREW J. PALM.

Prothonotary—M. J. GARDNER. District Attorney—N. B. SPANGLER.

GETTING DOWN TO BUSINESS. City Chairman Pattison, of Philadelphia, and the committee appointed by the recent Democratic State convention to assist him in reconstructing the Philadelphia Democracy is getting down to work in a way entirely satisfactory to the Democrats of the State.

The shouters in Philadelphia have been silenced by the business-like precision of Mr. Pattison and his colleagues. Captain William Hasson, of Oil City, and Congressman J. K. P. Hall, of Elk, have been going through the wards with Mr. Pattison, meeting the conditions as they exist.

One of our "Peaches" says she intended to keep up this work and have invited other members of the committee to participate in it until September 15, when the first executive session of the general committee will be held in Philadelphia.

There is a collection of dissatisfied Republicans in Philadelphia who left their party because they could not control it, and who now seek to build up this Democratic organization on theories, but it is more than likely that Chairman Pattison and his colleagues will bring about an organization in Philadelphia satisfactory to the Democrats and well-meaning voters, with the possible exception of these theorists.

All of the objectionable figures in Quaker City politics may not be removed within the next 60 or 90 days. A wholesome uprooting on the eve of an important election may not be considered the most advisable thing to do.

More than that there is a disposition to give the sinners a chance to return. However, with the plans of this chairman and his committee carried out as the integrity of the men injures they will be, there will be a rejuvenated Democracy after the first of the year, united and aggressive for the big battle of 1901.

The Republicans selected a good time to scrap, when such men like Messrs. Gardner and Spangler are in the field their scrap will cost them nothing, because they could defeat neither of them no matter how hard they tried.

According to the last census it was not one of the infectious or contagious diseases that proved fatal to the most people, but pneumonia. If one had been asked offhand to say what disease caused the most deaths, he would have probably answered consumption, but the statistics do not warrant this popular belief.

However, tuberculosis is second in the list. To pneumonia are attributed 191.9 per 100,000 of all deaths, while to consumption are due 193.5 in every 100,000 deaths. Heart disease comes third with 134. The next twelve diseases in order of their fatalities are: Diarrhoeal diseases, kidney affections, apoplexy, cancer, old age, bronchitis, cholera infantum, debility, inflammation of brain and meningitis, diphtheria, typhoid, premature birth. It is worthy to note that neither smallpox nor scarlet fever, two dread diseases, have any place in the above list.

German newspapers seem to see in United States activity regarding the South American republics, a desire on the part of this country to do a little more grabbing of territory. Tut, tut! We have our hands full now, one dipped in the Atlantic and the other in the Pacific, and the only thing we are doing is keeping in touch with the situation, patrolling the railroad and telling other nations that the spirit of Monroe is still marching on.

Uncle Sam is beginning to feel the effects of the war revenue tax reduction. So far this month the amount falls $3,000,000 short of the corresponding month of last year, and $2,000,000 short of the same period for 1899. If the reductions for last year were extended over the whole fiscal year at the rate of this month the effect would be a total reduction nearly equaling the estimates upon which the law was enacted.

While the Republicans of the county are squaring up matters among themselves, and devoting time and energy to justify their actions during the past two years, it is the duty of the Democrats to look after their own interests and organization. This family quarrel may not be forever. Get the county organization into order, and go to work.

The Pittsburg Dispatch, Republican, says, Pennsylvania appropriated $35,000 for a State building at Buffalo, and got one that would be fully valued at $7,000. It has also appropriated $35,000 for one at Charleston, and the question seems to be whether it will get $5,000 of value. From these sums of proportion the calculation as to what it will get for $4,000,000 put into its new State House becomes quite interesting.

There is encouragement in a comparison of our wheat sales abroad this year and last. For a given period this year they were 50,679,000 bushels as compared with 22,640,000 for the same period last year. The surplus above last year's sales amounts to $17,000,000, and anything like a continuance of the shipments will roll up an enormous trade balance before the close of the year.

Farmers Mills. The families of T. F. Meyer, and George Guiswite of Aaronsburg, Daniel Crader, of Coburn, and Mr. Musser of Centre Hall, were guests at J. H. Rishel's over Sunday.

W. E. Hagan and Bessie Brown are on the sick list at present. Miss May Schaefer, an accomplished young lady of Philadelphia, and George Cunningham, first bartender at the Brockenhoff house Bellefonte, made a very surprising call at W. F. Rishel's Sunday evening.

M. F. Homan is taking a short vacation to spend a few days with his parents, sickness being the cause. One of our "Peaches" says she should receive more peaches than the other girls because "He" superintends a peach orchard and drives a fine mule team.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Homan, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Reish, of Zion, and Miss Annie Kluge, of Oak Hall, enjoyed the home of Emanuel Fye Sunday.
