The President's Condition.

The latest news from Buffalo asserts that President McKinley's condition is much improved, and that the crisis has been passed.

For a detailed account of the attempted assassination see page two of this issue.

Needs Attention.

Main street at the foot of the mountain needs repairing badly. The removal of the loose stones would do much to make travel more comfortable over the portions of the road within the borough limits. The street should have immediate attention.

Williams Reunion.

The Williams reunion held recently at Martha was a notable affair. Addresses were made by Rev. T. L. Bardens, of Clearfield and Revs. Dowling and Latschaw, of Port Matilda. The State College band furnished music for the occasion.

Business Stand to be Sold.

W. W. Boob will offer his business stand at public sale Wednesday of next week at 1.30 o'clock. The property consists of a large two-story store room, paint and blacksmith shops, dwelling house and stable, and is centrally located.

Hess-Mersinger.

Wm. J. Hess, of Boalsburg, and Miss Ella Mersinger, of Tusseyville, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mersinger, near Tusseyville, Tuesday evening, Sept. 10, at 6 o'clock. The bride's pastor, Rev. J. M. Rearick, performed the ceremony.

Post-Office Age Limit.

On July 31st the President directed that after that date the age limitations for all positions in the post-office service be eighteen to forty-five years, except in the case of persons honorably discharged from the military or naval service of the United States on account of disability resulting from wounds received or sickness incurred in the service and in the line of duty, in which case the age limitations are waived.

SWALLOWED BY THE EARTH.

Mrs. David Harshbarger Suddenly Drops Almost Her Full Length Into the Earth.

Last week, after one of the heavy rains, Mrs. David Harshbarger, living in the old Bitner home, at the foot of the mountain, had an experience that thoroughly frightened her, yet did no harm.

Alone, and seeing her footing five or six feet beneath her, she at once exerted every muscle, and by so doing climbed to terra firma once more.

The office is about three feet in diameter, widening to fully ten feet, with great crevices along the sides.

Secretary of Y. M. C. A. Will Speak.

SERMON TO ODD FELLOWS.

Rev. J. F. Shultz Addresses the Odd Fellows of Centre Hall Sunday Evening.

The Evangelical church Sunday evening was crowded to hear a special sermon for the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of Centre Hall.

Reverend Shultz in a preliminary way spoke of the unjust prejudices against secret societies by some people, and said that God himself was a profound mystery.

The text taken for his sermon was, I Cor. 13-15. "Now abideth faith, hope and charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity."

You are members of an organization that dates back farther than any other. It had its origin in the covenant made by David and Jonathan.

Today you have schools and homes for your orphans, where they are instructed to become useful men and women.

What has befallen your dead brother will befall you. Hezekiah—"Set thy house in order, for thou shalt die and not live."

Friendship—Neglect the link of friendship and your order will degenerate. Let me urge you to friendship. If it were not for this link your order would not have the strength numerically in America it has today.

Truth.—Truth is the great principle upon which all societies are built. Truth is the sap of the tree; branches, leaves, fruit, the manifestations.

Friendship.—Neglect the link of friendship and your order will degenerate. Let me urge you to friendship. If it were not for this link your order would not have the strength numerically in America it has today.

Love.—I cannot define love. A young physician defined it by saying, "it was a pleasant feeling." Religion is built on love; love is divine. God is love. "He that dwelleth in God, dwelleth in love."

District Sunday School Convention.

A District Sunday School Convention was held in the Lutheran church at Gatesburg Monday of this week. The convention opened with devotional services conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. T. Aikens.

At eleven o'clock Rev's G. W. Leisher and A. A. Black discussed the benefit of a proper study of the Sunday School lesson.

In the evening a large and attentive audience assembled to hear various subjects of interest discussed by different speakers. This proved probably the most interesting session of the convention.

GENERAL LOCALS.

The postoffice address of H. E. Shadle is Porterwood, West Va., instead of Parsons.

The condition of Adjutant General Stewart, who is suffering from a broken leg, is unsatisfactory.

Also a complete line of bicycle sundries. Coster makes a specialty. Thanking you for past patronage and respectfully soliciting a continuance of the same I remain, Respectfully, W. W. Boob, Centre Hall, Pa.

BRIEF LOCALS.

The fastest time made at the Millin county fair was 2.22. Dr. J. F. Alexander is having a new heater put into his dwelling.

Mrs. Maria Wagner, of Tusseyville, is on the sick list. Andrew Corman & Son's hydraulic press at Spring Mills will be in operation Tuesday of next week.

Miss Wilma Love, of Tusseyville, is spending this week with friends in Bellefonte, and attending the fair.

M. Bing Stover, brother of J. O. Stover, of Potters Mills, was killed in a train wreck near Wheeling, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stanton, of Ocean City, N. J., are the guests of Lewis Sunday. They will remain for a month or more.

A. C. Ripka, of Centre Hill, sold five shoats 155 days old that averaged 163 pounds. A very good weight, and made without an extra effort.

J. S. Meyer, Esq., of Penn Hall, has a fine exhibit of poultry at the fair this week. He is giving the poultry business considerable attention and making a success of it.

W. A. Sandoe and Joseph Lutz this week are assisting in Blackford's Bellefonte restaurant. James Stahl, Jacob From and Mrs. Samuel Gross are aiding D. C. Keller to conduct the boarding house on the fair grounds.

Mrs. S. H. Heckman and children, and her sister, Miss Tace Kreamer, Tuesday arrived in Centre Hall from DuBois. They are stopping with W. H. Kreamer, their father, and in a short time will go to Johnstown to which place their household goods have already been shipped. Mr. Heckman is employed in a large hardware establishment at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Holloway, of near Monroe, Wisconsin, are east, having been at the Pan-American Exposition. It is twenty-five years since they went west, and on arriving at Centre Hall, they were lost as to location. Mrs. Holloway is a sister of W. A. Curry, of Potters Mills, to which place they went Tuesday. Mr. Holloway is a native of Aaronsburg, and Mrs. Holloway was raised at Linden Hall.

Mail carriers who have been in the habit of accepting unstamped letters along their routes have, in a number of instances, been removed. In order to protect himself, and not violate the postal laws, mail carrier James Horner gives notice that he will not under any circumstances accept unstamped mail. No fault can be found with him for taking such action, because no one of those who ask him to do such an act could restate him should he lose his position.

THE STAR STORE.

ESTABLISHED 1889. G. O. BENNER PROPRIETOR. Enthusiasm:

A business without enthusiasm will die. Indeed, anything that is worth doing, is worth all the might you can put in it. This is especially true when you have something over which to be enthusiastic. We are enthusiastic in our business, because we are conscientious in the thought that we are doing the right thing when we offer you more value for the money than you can get elsewhere.

We are bound to make our business mutual. We are bound to furnish you with the best goods the market affords, and we are bound to serve you on a lower basis for the same goods than any other store in the valley. We are the little hen coop on the first iron corner at the station, but rumor has it that the little hen will be set aside in the very near future.
