

THE BIBLE WATER SUIT.

The Case Will Be Before the Superior Court Next Week

The case of Misses Lizzie and Annie Bible vs. the Borough of Centre Hall will come up before the Superior Court sitting in Philadelphia next week.

The case is carried to the Superior court in the belief that since the borough of Centre Hall is not profiting, and cannot profit from the contract, the same should be annulled.

Will James B. Strohm, of Centre Hill, be a candidate for superintendent of public schools? That question is frequently asked.

At a session of the Lutheran Synod of Central Pennsylvania, held at Millinburg last week, these officers were elected: President, Rev. C. T. Atkins.

Notice to Fourth-Class Postmasters. By Act of Congress, approved Aug. 23, 1891, Fourth-class Postmasters are authorized to administer oaths to pensioners and their witnesses.

Reduced Rates to Gettysburg. On account of the National Encampment Union Veteran Legion, at Gettysburg, Pa., October 9 to 11, the Pennsylvania Railroad company will sell excursion tickets at the rate of one fare for the round trip from all points on its line to Gettysburg.

Continuing Copper Line. The U. T. and T. Co., is stringing a copper wire from Millheim to Bellefonte, the men having begun work Monday morning putting on cross-arms etc., between Centre Hall and Millheim exchanges.

The fourth race between the Columbus and Shamrock, will take place today, Thursday. The race resulted in flukes, and once the Columbus won.

SIX CARS OF CATTLE

Go to Eastern Market from Centre Hall this Week—Four Shippers.

The cattle business is brisk at present. Six car loads will represent the shipments from this point before the week closes.

Table with 2 columns: Name, No. Cars. Lists C. C. Clark, Henry Schwank, Frank Buerman, Benjamin Geitzel.

Delegates to S. S. Convention. The State Sunday school convention will be held in Chester, Pa., Oct. 8, 9 and 10th.

Marriage Licenses. D. E. Rothrock, DuBois. Cora E. Ott, Bellefonte. Harry S. Gentzel, Altoona.

Unclaimed Letters. List of letters remaining in Centre Hall post office unclaimed for Oct. 1, 1901.

Transfer of Real Estate. L. D. Miller, et al., to John E. Strong, March 15, 40 acres, Potter Twp.—$130.

Seriously Hurt by a Fall. Wm. Grenoble, of Pleasant Gap, was seriously hurt by a fall from a ladder while picking apples on Tuesday.

It Will Be Better. All records, both as to quality of matter and number of sales, were broken by the Sunday North American last Sunday.

Coins for October. Coins, in "Storms and Signs" for October predicts as follows: So many planets will be bunched together this month, and all except Earth and Neptune on the same side of the heaven and almost in the same sign.

Col. in "Storms and Signs" for October predicts as follows: So many planets will be bunched together this month, and all except Earth and Neptune on the same side of the heaven and almost in the same sign.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Boal, of Boalsburg, gave a party to all the boys and girls in the primary school of Boalsburg on Monday afternoon in honor of their son Pierce, who has reached his sixth birthday.

W. W. SMITH, Centre Hall Gallery, Friday, Oct. 4.

Table with 4 columns: Day, High, Low, Rain. Shows weather forecast for the week.

DEATHS.

MRS. ELIZABETH LOVE. Mrs. Elizabeth Love, widow of John Love, died at her home in Centre Hall Saturday afternoon of last week.

The deceased was a daughter of Wm. Carson, deceased, of Potters Mills, and was the second wife of John Love, who died about twenty-eight years ago.

Andrew Moyer will move into the Potter house on east church street. Greatest cloth and leather cleaner on earth at Mrs. Kellers Linden Hall 61.

Rev. G. W. Leshar, of Boalsburg, who had been attending Synod of the Lutheran church in Millinburg, returned home on Monday afternoon.

Dr. Huff, of Milesburg, reported this (Thursday) morning that James Gregg was entirely helpless from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, and that his condition was rather unfavorable.

Lost.—On Sept. 28 between Linden Hall and Mrs. Rebecca Cummings on the Old Fort road a pocket-book containing $8.50 more or less.

Edward Robinson last week moved into the dwelling vacated by W. O. Reaick the week previous.

The Quincy News, of Quincy, Michigan, published the address of Rev. D. J. Mitterling delivered in the Presbyterian church of that place, on the occasion of the McKinley memorial services.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sweetwood, of Centre Hill, stopped at the Reporter office Tuesday on their way to Bellefonte on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Boal, of Boalsburg, gave a party to all the boys and girls in the primary school of Boalsburg on Monday afternoon in honor of their son Pierce, who has reached his sixth birthday.

John H. Love, of Wilton Centre, Illinois, arrived Monday to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Love.

John H. Love, of Wilton Centre, Illinois, arrived Monday to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Love.

W. W. SMITH, Centre Hall Gallery, Friday, Oct. 4.

BICYCLES.—I have just received a lot of new chain and chainless bicycles which I offer at greatly reduced prices.

GENERAL LOCALS.

H. E. Sheekengost of Farmers Mills, offers a mare and colt for sale.

Miss Katie Weaver was called to her home at Coburn on account of sickness.

A pretty song service was rendered in the Reformed church Sunday night.

A. H. Wagner, of Alfarrata, Millin county, was a guest of the McClenahan family over Sunday.

Howard Spangler of Bellefonte, paid his father, Ex-Sheriff Spangler, in this place, a visit this week.

The McNitt stove mill was moved from the Lonerberg tract west of Centre Hall to near Hecla, on the Bush & Thompson tract.

Lycoming county's commissioners have decided to erect, at a cost of $160,000, a bridge across the river between Newberry and Duboistown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Nevin Meyer, Prof. Morrison and brother Bruce, of Rebersburg, attended the foot ball game at Bellefonte Saturday, and on their way stopped at Centre Hall.

The Standard Steel Company has let a contract for the erection of a new open hearth steel furnace at their Burnham plant near Lewistown, with a capacity of 135 tons daily.

Daniel Thurston, a brakeman on the Beech Creek road, was killed by a pile striking him while climbing the outside of a refrigerator car.

Charles Richard was arrested in Lewisburg for having stolen $17.50 from the clothing store of Samuel Lewin, in Bellefonte, ten days ago.

It was the Evangelical Christian cemetery, and not the United Evangelical cemetery, that was improved at Colyer last week.

As previously announced the wedding of Miss Cora E. Ott, of Bellefonte, and D. E. Rothrock, of DuBois, took place Wednesday evening of last week.

Mrs. S. H. Heckman, and sister, Miss Tacy Kremer, Tuesday morning started for Johnstown where they will make their home.

While several boys were shooting pigeons at Sunbury, fifteen years old Ralph Ramsey ran to pick up a wounded bird.

Mrs. Calvin Gfrerer, of near Bellefonte, is seriously ill with typhoid fever. Mr. Gfrerer, who is a son of Xavier Gfrerer, of near this place, just recovered from a six weeks' attack of the same disease.

Frank Hyle, an eight year old boy, of Lycippus, Westmoreland county, while swinging in a hammock Monday, fell and impaled himself by the throat on the hook to which the hammock was attached.

Rev. W. H. Schuyler is attending a meeting of Presbytery at Altoona this week. He is accompanied by Elder William Goodhart, of the Spring Mills church.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Boal, of Boalsburg, gave a party to all the boys and girls in the primary school of Boalsburg on Monday afternoon in honor of their son Pierce, who has reached his sixth birthday.

John H. Love, of Wilton Centre, Illinois, arrived Monday to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Love.

BICYCLES.—I have just received a lot of new chain and chainless bicycles which I offer at greatly reduced prices.

LOCAL ITEMS.

James Gregg is suffering from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

Did you examine the sweaters at Kremer & Son's store? They are fine.

C. M. Sweetwood, of Manhattan, Ill, has located in Chicago, 702 Emerald Ave.

James Haverly, of Howard, was caught in a fly wheel in a paper mill at Johnsonburg, and was instantly killed.

Mrs. Lizzie Raudabaugh, wife of Henry Raudabaugh, died at her home in Loganston Sunday morning from St. Vitus dance. Her age was thirty years.

The marriage of Miss Sarah B. Good, of Lock Haven, and James Quigley, of Pittsburg, brother of H. C. Quigley, of Bellefonte, will take place on the 16th inst.

The remains of Samuel E. Harter, of Rye, Colorado, son of Andrew Harter, of near Bellefonte, was buried at Zion last week. The cause of his death was tuberculosis.

James M. Seymour, of Newark, was made the Democratic nominee for governor of New Jersey. The opposing candidate was ex-Congressman Farrell, of Camden.

John Snyder will move from the Gregg farm to the Bitner farm recently purchased by Prof. Rothrock.

James W. Shull, Esq., of Perry county, was nominated for Judge by the Republican conferees of the Perry-Juniata judicial district.

The State College and Western Pennsylvania University foot ball eleven played a fine game at Bellefonte Saturday. The score stood 27 to 0 in favor of State College.

Mrs. Uriah Spangler, of Heston, Kansas, who has been east with relatives and friends for some time, started for Chicago Monday where she will stop several weeks before returning home.

October 25 has been designed by State Superintendent of Public School Nathan C. Shaffer as autumn arbor day. It is hoped the day will be observed by a generous planting of trees.

John Wolf, of Potters Mills, spent a short time in the Reporter office. Mr. Wolf is an ardent supporter of the prohibition cause, and always has documents with him to show where he stands.

Rev. R. W. Illingsworth, a member of the Erie Presbytery, was sent by that body to Arizona to take charge of the mission work in that far away field. His family will remain at his father-in-law's home for the time being.

The children and grand-children of Mrs. Hannah Lutz, of Zion, congregated at her home Friday of last week to celebrate her seventy-seventh birthday. Three of her children and thirty-eight grand-children were present.

What is supposed to be the smallest cow on earth was exhibited at the recent Cortland county, N. Y., fair. The animal, which is owned by William Freeburn, of New Woodstock, weighs but 117 pounds, and is 28 inches high and 36 inches long.

Movings: S. H. Kremer will move from quarters above Kremer & Son's store to the Reformed parsonage. Mrs. Emerick will make her home with her son Dr. C. E. Emerick.

THE STAR STORE. ESTABLISHED 1889. G. O. BENNER PROPRIETOR. SOME SPECIALS. Rubbers for everybody. Wagons for the boys. Glass jars for fruit. Gloves and underwear for men. Snow Flake Flour for good bread. The above is only a drop in the bucket. We have 'em. THE STAR.

TOUGH BOYS

Need Good Shoes.

GOOD BOYS

Need Tough Shoes.

Both need CALF SHOES for Winter wear—we have all kinds—not all kinds of boys, but all kinds of Calf Shoes.

Our Boy's Shoes are made with heavy soles—will never rip, serviceable Calf leather and made in every way to stand hard usage and wear.

$1, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75 are some of them.

Mingle's Shoe Store, BELLEFONTE, PA.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Presbyterian—Communion at Centre Hall at 10:30 a. m. Preparatory services at 2:30 p. m. Saturday. Spring Mills, 2:30 p. m., Sunday.

Lutheran—Centre Hall, morning, Union, Altoona, Georges Valley, evening. Reformed—Centre Hall, 2:30 p. m.; Tusseyville, 10:30 a. m.

Potato Buyers. Potato buyers will find Centre Hall a rich field to ship tubers from.

Borough Taxes. Collector of taxes W. O. Sandoe states that a larger per cent. of the borough taxes were paid before October 1, than during any previous year in which he held office.

Dates for Hangings Fixed. Governor Stone fixed November 12 for the execution of John Lutz, of Wilkesbarre, and William Allen, alias Pleas Turbin, of Uniontown, and December 12 for the execution of Edward Biddle, alias Wright, and John Biddle, alias Wright, of Pittsburg.

The Story of Sankey's Voice. In a forthcoming number of The Ladies' Home Journal Cleveland Moffett is going to tell for the first time the real story of Ira D. Sankey's great voice.

Miles Arney Improving. Miles Arney, who two weeks ago injured the third finger of his right hand, has since suffered much pain from the wound.

Companies to Consolidate. The shareholders of the Pennsylvania Telephone Company at a meeting in Harrisburg, arranged to issue $1,114,400 worth of stock to take over the Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply Company, which is the Bell Company doing business in this section, and has offices at Williamsport.

Millinery Opening. Mrs. Lucy Henney is in Philadelphia, purchasing her stock of millinery goods and announces that the opening days at her millinery store in Centre Hall will be Thursday and Friday, October 10th and 11th.

Negro Fatally Slabbed. William Denton, a negro, was fatally stabbed Wednesday night of last week at Lewisburg by Edward Arnold, aged 24 years, during a fight over a pint of whiskey.