CORAY FOR STATE TREASURER.

Fusion between the Democratic and Union parties on the state ticket was effected Friday at a meeting of the Democratic state committee, by the nomination of Representative Elisha A. Coray, Jr., of Pittston, for state treasurer. Representative Andrew J. Palm, of Meadville, the nominee for the trouble here?" treasurer of the recent Democratic state convention withdrew, and the name of Mr. Coray was substituted by the Hare. a vote of 59 to 2, the committeemen from York and Erie counties voting for Mr. Palm. Wanted, Sharp Knives.

"I have often wondered where one could find the sharp knives of the world," said an observant citizen, "and really the problem is one of some seriousness, and one, upon reflection, is almost driven to the conclusion that there are no sharp knives in the world.

"Have you ever noticed how hard it is to find a really sharp knife? Stop quent insertion. Other rates made known the first man you meet and ask him to let you have his knife for a minute and listen to what he says about it. Nine times out of ten he will say, 'I have one, but it isn't very sharp.' You may pick out your men indifferently, and they will always tell you the same thing. If a man should ask me for my knife to sharpen a lead pencil or to use for some other purpose, the chances are I would say about the same thing, 'I have one, but it isn't very sharp.'

"And really the answer thus made is generally true. Men do not keep sharp knives. It may be because they do not need sharp knives or it may be a matter of laziness, but in any event they do not carry them around with them, or if they do they always give their friend a dull one."-New Orleans Times-Democrat.

A Fable.

One day as the Elephant was passing through the forest he came upon a Hare who had fallen into a pool and was shivering with cold, and in his good heartedness he stopped and called

"How, now, Mrs. Hare, but what is "Alas, but I fell into the pond and am almost dying with a chill!" wailed "Say you so. Ah, but we can easily remedy that. I will lie down beside you, and the heat of my body will soon make you warm and blithe again." And the Elephant tumbled down with the fusion movement, and it is proba- a grunt and a groan and observed that ble that he will institute proceedings he was always cheerfully willing to put 'in the Dauphin county court to test himself out for the sake of others, especially for the weak and helpless. After a quarter of an hour, and not nearing from the Hare, he rose up to inquire if she felt better, and to his sorrow and consternation he discovered that he had crushed the life out of her
