

TOUGH BOYS

Need Good Shoes.

GOOD BOYS

Need Tough Shoes.

Both need CALF SHOES for winter wear—we have all kinds—not all kinds of boys, not all kinds of calves, but all kinds of Calf Shoes.

Our Boy's Shoes are made with heavy soles—will never rip, serviceable calf leather and made in every way to stand hard usage and wear. To keep your boy healthy, see that he has good shoes. The Fall and Winter season is the time he needs the right kind of footwear. Boys like our Shoes and parents like our prices.

$1, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75 are some of them.

Union Young People's Meeting

The union meeting of young people's societies was held in the Reformed church Sunday night. Many of the members entered into the discussion of the subject with great earnestness.

Coit Sale

A car load of Illinois colts will be sold at public sale at the Centre Hall hotel Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. This is a rare opportunity to buy stock at a moderate figure, and develop the horse yourself instead of paying a high price for mature horses.

Business Opening.

There is a splendid business opening in Centre Hall for a hardware store, including wagon and carriage hardware. There is a large territory to draw from and no risk whatever to be able to do a paying business.

Bought and Sold.

John D. Moore bought the Fleming property in Centre Hall from the executor of the Fleischer estate and before recording the deed resold the same to Mrs. Kerlin, widow of A. S. Kerlin. The widow will occupy the place herself next spring.

Soldiers Attention.

You have a friend in M. I. Gardner. During his term of office he has not charged a soldier or a soldier's widow one cent for swearing or acknowledging a single paper. He is entitled to twenty-five cents for every oath issued. Vote for him.

Married.

At the Reformed parsonage, Bousburg, Oct. 29, by Rev. A. A. Black, Charles W. Colyer, Linden Hall, and Miss Amanda E. Floray, Tusseyville.

At the home of the bride, Houserville, Oct. 30, by Rev. A. A. Black, L. Frank M. Yes, Lemont, and Miss Lucy M. Keller, Houserville.

Good Record for Cows.

A. F. Heckman is one of the farmers in Potter township who keep a good stock of cows. He makes it a point to make the herd pay for their keeping and return a profit besides. In one year ending July 1, 1901, Mrs. Heckman churned 2797 pounds of butter from twelve cows, three of which were heifers, and sold veal amounting to $62. Very good, indeed.

Taking a Hunt.

The Bradford hunting party will go to Slate Ridge this (Thursday) morning for a two weeks hunt. The following are the persons composing the party: Frank, George, Clyde, Phillip and Al. Bradford, Isaac Shawyer, John Coble, C. W. Slack, Wm. and Charles Kerstetter, Dr. J. K. Hosterman, J. Frank Smith, James Moyer, John Kubn, Charles Neff, Miles Dippery and Henry Homan. It will be hard luck for a deer to cross their path.

Take All Precautions.

Philadelphia fifty years ago was a great way from Centre Hall, but today it is near by; so close, indeed, that every precaution should be taken against contracting that very loathsome disease of small-pox which is generally prevalent in that city. No one knows at what minute he may come in contact with persons who have been exposed to the disease and thus carry the germs. The one precaution necessary is vaccination, and it is the part of prudence to have it done at once.

COATS AND MONEY STOLEN.

Rev. Kershner and Dr. Hosterman Believed of Clothing and Money by Sneak Thief.

Rev. G. W. Kershner and Dr. G. W. Hosterman while attending the Synod of the Reformed church in Philadelphia, had an experience with a sneak thief, who was successful in relieving Rev. Kershner of a new dress coat and overcoat and thirty-six dollars in good money, and Dr. Hosterman of an overcoat. The gentlemen stopped at a private boarding house and on retiring at night hung their overcoats and dress coats in a wardrobe, flung their vests and pantaloons over a chair, rolled into bed and took it for granted that Philadelphians wanted their own only.

The night was spent in peaceful slumber, and upon arising in the morning the surroundings betrayed none of the Knight's night doings, until the wardrobe was opened and it was found the coats were missing. The thief was exceedingly timid, for at the bedside of each of the sleepers hung a vest in which was a gold watch and chain and in Dr. Hosterman's vest forty dollars in "promises to pay." None of these articles were disturbed.

Rev. Kershner had banked his cash in his inside coat pocket, and the thief no doubt was surprised to find cash there. It is evident the thief was after clothing, for had he been in search of money he no doubt would have gone to the pantaloons or vests, at least he would not have refused the gold watches and chains.

Entrance to the room was in no wise barred, except to turn the door knob, for on retiring it was discovered that the door was without key. The misplaced confidence in the house led the occupants to make no demand for this precaution.

Detectives were informed of the situation and suspicion placed on one of the inmates of the house, but the suspicion is purely suspicion without a scintilla of evidence.

Bad enough, but they might have fared worse.

New Postmaster at Bousburg.

Scott Bricker has been appointed postmaster at Bousburg. Mrs. Mary Woods, widow of Dr. John E. Woods, was the former postmistress.

Vaccination of School Children.

An act of the Legislature of June 18, 1895, provides that all children shall be refused admission to the public schools, except upon a certificate signed by a physician, setting forth that such child has been successfully vaccinated, or that it has previously had small-pox.

Keep in Mind, Boys.

There is something inspiring in the careers of a rollicking, noisy, even boisterous crowd of youngsters, and the person who cannot enter into the enjoyment of their sport loses a whole lot of this life's good things. But there is a difference between fun that carries with it the innocence of a harmless kid and that which destroys the property of others.

Boozer Buys Again.

D. A. Boozer bought the property of W. W. Boob, consisting of dwelling house, hardware store building and shops in the rear. The hardware store building will be used for some business, the nature of which has not been made public, except to say that it will not be used by Mr. Boozer to conduct his hardware business. The property is a most desirable one, and the business place one of the best locations in the town.

Missionary Convention.

The Ladies Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the West Branch Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church will meet in the Reformed church, this place, Thursday and Friday of next week. The opening sermon will be delivered by Rev. Seward, Thursday evening. Three sessions will be held Friday. Revs. Crose, Wetzel, Black and Fous will be in attendance, besides twenty-five or more delegates from missionary societies.

A Good Advertising Medium.

By examining the pages of the Reporter you will find that the business men of Penns Valley largely patronize it as an advertising medium. They do this because of its large circulation in this part of the county, and because the Reporter reaches a class of people who subscribe for the paper and pay the subscription price because of its merits, and it is natural for them, under such circumstances, to read it carefully.

FARM HOUSE BURNED.

The Dwelling House of James Runkle West of Tusseyville Destroyed by Fire.

Thursday of last week at 12.30 p. m., the dwelling house of James Runkle, one-half mile west of Tusseyville, was destroyed by fire. The fire originated from the stove pipe which passed through the roof of the summer house and lacked proper protection, although it had been in that condition for months prior. The family was seated at the dinner table when the fire was first discovered. A desperate effort was made to extinguish the flames, but the attempt proved futile, and before it was realized the flames had gained such headway that the removal of only a few of the household goods was possible.

The total loss is probably $1,500. The dwelling was a brick structure and was erected by Mr. Runkle. Among the effects destroyed was some cash and a gold watch belonging to Hugh Runkle, a son. There was no insurance whatever on the buildings, the policy having expired six months previous, and through neglect was not renewed.

David Stoner, who lives next to Mr. Runkle, proffered the unfortunate man and family quarters for the winter, and the same were accepted.

Doing Good Business.

The Centre Hall foundry is doing a big business in the manufacture of stove grates and feed cutters. Tons of metal have been cast into stove grates and feed cutters. Mr. Sellers, the proprietor, has made the stove grate business a study, and has patterns for hundreds of grates and ships to all parts of the United States. Part of the foundry force has been set to work on the famous Centre Hall corn planters for next spring's output.

Mrs. Alfarata Goss, widow of Cyrus Goss, formerly of this place, who is matron of the Chester Springs Soldiers' Orphan School, is enjoying her vacation, dividing her time between her mother, Mrs. Ard, and her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills.

Grant Hoover was appointed representative in Centre county of three of the largest fire insurance companies in the world, namely, Springfield and Marine, Springfield, Mass.; the Boston, of Boston, and the Queen, of New York, which gives him the largest and strongest line of companies of any agent in Centre county.

W. W. Boob, who for a number of years has been in the wheel and gear business in this place, and very successfully, too, will within a few weeks move to Cincinnati, where he will conduct a similar business. Mr. Boob has been a useful citizen, giving employment to several men and generous contributions for public purposes. The key note to his success was: advertising, which he did unsparringly.

L. Frank Moyer, of Lemont, and Miss Lucy M. Keller, of Houserville, were married at the home of the bride Wednesday evening. Harry Long was groomsmen and Miss Gray bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Black. The bridal couple will return Saturday evening, when a reception will be given to about one hundred and twenty-five friends at the home of the groom's father, J. B. Moyer, Lemont.

Particular Notice.

In order to catch the three o'clock train for Millheim, we would esteem it a great favor if part of the evening work done at Smith's Centre Hall gallery would come prior to that time. Parties wishing work after that time please leave word at Krenner's store in advance.

W. W. SMITH, Photographer. Centre Hall Friday of each week.

Wilbur A. Henney, a mechanic of more than ordinary skill, Tuesday went to Pittsburg on a business errand and is expected to return the latter part of this week.

It is reported that hunters are violating the game laws by establishing feeding places and erecting blinds. This is not sportsmanlike. Give game a fair show, at least give it the benefit of the protection of the law.

Baby Huyett arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett in Centre Hall Tuesday night. Mr. Huyett thought his order called for a boy, but after he saw the youngster he wouldn't have had a boy for anything.

Mrs. J. Emory Hoy returned to Philadelphia Wednesday, leaving her little daughter Elizabeth with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mingle, where she will remain until the Hoy family are through with moving.

Rev. J. M. Reaick will answer to 172 on the U. T. & T. company's lines. A telephone is a great convenience and benefit to pastors having country charges, and no one will appreciate the telephone service more than Rev. Reaick.

Ernest Seton-Thompson, the famous author of "Wild Animals I Have Known," has become one of the editors of the Ladies Home Journal. He is to conduct a department in the Journal every month, and in addition to writing it he will also furnish all of the illustrations.

The borough of Centre Hall has not had a representative in the court house at Bellefonte or in the capitol at Harrisburg for many years, and there has been comparatively few seekers. If location counts for aught, the metropolis of Penns Valley may lay claim to recognition next year.

Post-office Inspector Duryea gives Capt. G. M. Bond the credit of having one of the best kept offices on his route of inspection. Centre Hall has always had good postmasters, there never having been a complaint made to the department of inefficiency.

THE STAR STORE.

ESTABLISHED 1889.

G. O. BENNER

PROPRIETOR.

Every day a new revelation.

Every week a greater satisfaction.

And now let us say to one and all that while the 'last thought of each day is, 'have we done all in our power to place goods today in the hands of our customers at the lowest possible prices,' we always aim to start the next day with greater determination, if possible, to outdo the day before, and try in some way to merit a deeper confidence than before, by giving new goods at best cash values.

Our position is such that we can give you good values for your money. In fact more than you can get elsewhere in the valley. You know we pay no rents, no drayage, buy no goods from traveling salesmen, sell for cash, never give exchange tickets or premiums, (work out for the store that gives premiums, you pay well for these,) but we sell you goods outright at a low cash bargain. We invite your closest attention and ask you to see how much we can solicit your confidence with the best of everything in season.

Table listing various goods and their prices, including window blinds, linen, table oil cloth, wire bound, one-half raw hide, all, double-bitted axe, rifle powder, 8-inch mill, 14-inch horse rasp, wire & butcher razor, Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, and various other household items.

WANTED: Apples, quinces, onions, chestnuts, shellbark, potatoes.

Something that will interest you!

We have never made a special of advertising our cheap goods, because we do not want you to get the impression that we

for that is not our object. We are here to sell you good goods at as low or lower prices than you can buy them any where else, goods that will give you satisfaction and make you feel like coming again. We endeavor to make every article we sell a trade winner. But if you insist, and must have cheap goods, we can supply you with them as cheap or cheaper than you can buy them from wagons that drive the street, or from those who make a specialty of that class of goods. Below we give you a few prices to compare with others.

Table listing prices for various goods: Baking powder per lb., Baking Soda, Boston Baked Beans, Coffee Essence, Ladies' Shoes, Children's Shoes, and Gloves in sizes for Babies to Ladies.

We could give you many more such prices but space will not permit, and, besides this, we give you 5 per cent. off for cash. Secure a cash card and always present it when you make a purchase. We appreciate a cash trade and consider it worth that much more on any trade.

Remember we give you 5 per cent. off on anything you buy in our store and sell you goods as cheap or cheaper than you can buy elsewhere. We only ask you to give us a trial, and be convinced that we give you full value for your money. Do not hesitate to send the children, for if they have a list of what you want they can get it as well as you can yourself. We aim to use every one alike. We give good weight, good measure, and guarantee that you will find no "ice cake" in your cans this winter if you buy oil from us. Remember we always pay the highest price for produce.
