

Spring Mills.

Mrs. Ada V. Miller, of Rock View, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Jamison.

The foot log across the creek is in a dangerous condition; Miss Auman broke through and severely hurt her limb. Why don't the good citizens look after it and see that new boards are put down.

John Krape and wife, of Madisonburg, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Mary Krape.

Mrs. John Wolf, milliner and dress-maker, has a fine display of hats which catches the eyes of the ladies.

Edward Riter and Miss Mary Giegerich, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday with Miss May Smith.

Miss Lucy Hettlinger, of Altoona, is visiting friends and relatives in this place.

Andrew Corman is spoken of for one of the supervisors for next year. Mr. Corman knows how to build roads and how to save money. The township was considerably in debt when Corman and Heckman were elected supervisors, and they reduced the debt to almost nothing.

Linden Hall.

Mrs. George Searson spent Sunday with friends at Fairbrook.

Mrs. George Huss, of Spring Mills, visited friends at this place recently.

The millwrights are placing the machinery for the new grist mill.

Misses Mattie and Carrie Long, of Centre Hall, called on friends here the beginning of the week.

Miss Lucila Kerstetter and Mrs. Krumrine, of State College, visited at the former's home Sunday.

Edward Page moved his family from Whitmer's station to this place, into the tenant house of Fergus Potter. He is welcomed back as one of the former citizens.

P. C. Bradford, the efficient telegraph operator, is in the mountains hunting deer, and his post of duty is filled by a young man from Milltown.

Arthur Kimport and family spent a short vacation in this community, and Art., who is an expert hunter, spent a few days in the woods. He succeeded in bagging one squirrel as his share of the game.

Protracted meeting is in progress in the U. Ev. church, and should be attended by all who are interested in the progress of God's Kingdom.

Mitchell Garbrick, a student at Franklin and Marshall College, was home over the election.

A birthday party was held in honor of Mrs. Hetty Long, Monday of this week.

Charles Dagle, formerly assistant superintendent of the work at the large saw mill here, moved his family to Sunbury last week, where he is employed in the car shops.

Chicken pox is not quite through tormenting the little boys and girls of this community, but is giving us a long siege of it.

Considerable concern is manifested by the farmers in reference to their hogs, and not without good cause. A disease is among the swine pronounced by Dr. Fry to be typhus fever; one farmer lost his entire stock, and several others suffered loss.

A few nights ago several nocturnal marauders, doubtless hungry for a mess of chicken, visited the home of the south side farmers and proceeded to help themselves to chickens. The man of the house aroused by the chickens' call for help, noticed three persons, one on the tree and two underneath. He went for his gun but on returning, fortunately for the thieves, stumbled over a chair and the noise frightened the visitors away before he could take deadly aim at them, and so they escaped.

The ball game on Saturday passed off to the tune of 11 to 7, in favor of Boalsburg.

Scott Wieland, who is clerking in a store at Nordmont, Sullivan county, was home over election and helped to roll up the majority for the Democratic candidates for county offices.

Oak Hall.

The farmers in this section are almost all through with their fall work.

The corn crop was a good one in this neighborhood.

A. J. Tate, of Lemont, passed through town on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Lee, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the home of E. K. Smith.

Master Charles Wilson is visiting at the home of Harry Burns.

The citizens of this vicinity met to organize a singing class.

The Sunday school Normal started on Monday evening with seven students.

We guarantee and stand by every pair of shoes that leaves our store—Yeager & Davis, Bellefonte.

There was considerable rain fall in the eastern part of the state beginning of this week.

Do not fail to see our line of ladies $2 shoe—Yeager & Davis, Bellefonte.

Colyer.

Mrs. John Bubby, of Aronshurg, and Mrs. Wm. Maize and daughter Mildred, of Millheim, spent several days of last week visiting friends in and about this vicinity.

Mrs. Dr. Alexander and son Elmer, and sister, Ella Smith, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday visiting at the home of J. H. Moyer.

Mrs. Rebecca Bedlyon visited Howard Lingle on Friday.

Miss Bessie Cooney spent Sunday with her friend Miss Sadie E. Bottorf.

Rock Grove and Fleisher Gap school rooms were improved very much by having new stores placed in them. They were purchased from Samuel Bell, of Boalsburg.

Miss Katie Boal and Miss Carrie Bottorf, two of Colyer's highly accomplished young ladies Sunday evening were to call on their friend, Miss Cora Houtz.

Miss Cora Houtz returned home one day last week from Pleasant Gap where she had spent some time with her parents.

Matthew Swabb, of Buffalo, New York, was visiting his sister Mrs. Arthur Lee, the past week, and while out hunting he had the good luck to kill a wild turkey.

Miss Mary Moyer spent Saturday very pleasantly at the home of her cousin, Miss Marion Moyer.

Jonas Boal and his mother Mrs. Boal and sister Miss Katie Boal, made a flying trip to Centre Hall on Saturday on business.

On Sunday morning the Kefr-Passamagoddies hunting club of Colyer left for a two weeks' outing. They pitched their tent near the upper end of the kettle. J. E. Kline's and P. B. Jordan's teams conveyed them, with all the necessaries, to the camping ground; of course their supply was not in any way limited for fear game would be wanting.

Warren Slack was the first in this community to get any game worth mentioning. While out hunting Saturday with the R. A. M.'s of Potters Mills, he shot a bear.

Coburn.

Mrs. E. J. Bard is on the sick list.

R. F. Vonada and family visited friends and relatives in Rebersburg on Sunday.

Oliver Hosterman, of Buffalo, visited his brother Theodore, at this place, on Tuesday.

Henry Kaler, of near Herndon, was home over Sunday.

Chicken thieves are again busily engaged in visiting the pens on Railroad street. A large number of chickens have been stolen quite recently.

W. L. Hosterman shipped a car load of hogs Tuesday.

Miss Annie Stover left for Bellefonte one day last week, where she has received employment.

Randall Harter, a student at Keller's Business College, was home over Sunday.

S. R. Kling, proprietor of the Coburn House, transacted business in Shickshinny the beginning of the week.

Miss Minnie Geary, of Millheim, was a welcome caller in town on Sunday.

Penns Cave.

Corn husking is almost over in this section and the next thing on the program will be the killing of the monstrous porkers.

The singing school that is to be held at Murray's school house will be opened in the near future. Prof. George Wise is to conduct the class, which is composed of the choicest material, from which a grand concert may be expected.

Emil Gentzell moved into John Ream's tenement house last Monday.

Crider, Orwig and Co. left for Virginia, where they have purchased a tract of timber; they shipped the mill several weeks ago.

Wallace White expects to go to Axemann, where he will attend school.

Harvey Hough and family were to visit his parents, who reside in the eastern part of Brush Valley, last Sunday.

Quite a number attended the communion services held at the Union church last Sunday.

Harry Ream and Wallace White were the guests of Benjamin Lambert Sunday.

An accompaniment for the Brush Valley sports:

When first they went to see her,
They had a timid heart;
And when the lights were low,
They sat this far apart.

But as their love grew warmer,
And they learned the joy of kiss;
When the lights were low,
They knocked out all these spaces,
And sat pell-mell together.

A Great Opportunity.

The burned district of Jacksonville, Fla., is to be rebuilt at once, offering an opportunity for employment to workmen, and excellent prospects to contractors and capitalists. Jacksonville is reached from all directions by the Seaboard Air Line Railway System, which offers unexcelled facilities in the way of schedules and through car service to that nov. 30

Good Year Glove Rubbers at Yeager & Davis Bellefonte.

Woodward.

Hogs are being butchered by a great many who fear that cholera will break out. Some few hogs have died in the neighborhood, but it is not certain that the disease was cholera.

John Sheesley and George Vonada were to Yeagertown last week. The latter rented a house and will move there shortly. Those from this section who are employed there are very well satisfied with the work and wages.

A. Treaster and Aaron Stover are engaged on the farm of J. Frank Torbert, north of town, and are trimming fruit trees, etc.

Aumillers are running their saw mill located on Pine Creek in full blast.

Fred Miller and wife and Mr. Burgerman and wife, of White Springs, Pa., were the guests of John J. Orndorff over Sunday.

Mrs. Wm. Wise and Mrs. Emma Estenwine spent a few days in Sugar Valley.

Harter Bros. have the saw mill they bought in Brush Valley in running order. Frank Kreamer, from west of Millheim, stocks the mill. The logs are hauled to the top of the mountain and then run down on the slide.

Mr. Kreamer has moved into the old Moiz house near Harter's so that he is quite near his work.

J. C. F. Motz is fixing up his old saw mill and will run the same with his traction engine, owing to the scarcity of water and dilapidated condition of the water wheel. John and Edson Fultz are doing the work.

Evangelist Tower and wife, of Williamsport, held services in the Evangelical church Sunday. Mrs. Tower is a fine talker. Owing to the sickness of a child in his family, Luther H. Detwiler was unable to teach school Monday.

Farmers that have low land are plowing for next spring. It is so dry that it is impossible to plow up land soil. Water is also scarce with some farmers.

The Vocalist at Kietli's.

Hamilton Hill, the vocalist at Kietli's theatre, will sing "Good by to all, Good-bye," a song dedicated to Mrs. McKinley, and is descriptive of the dying moments of the martyred President. The song is a pathetic one. Biograph pictures include Li Hung Chang and the Penn-Leander boat race.

Are you vaccinated? That is the most of importance to yourself, but of concern to all others.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Winter Excursion Route Book.

In pursuance of its annual custom, the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has just issued an attractive and comprehensive book descriptive of the leading winter resorts of the East and South, and giving the rates and various routes and combinations of routes of travel. Like all the publications of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, this "Winter Excursion Book" is a model of typographical and clerical work. It is bound in a handsome and artistic cover in colors, and contains much valuable information for winter tourists and travelers in general. It can be had free of charge at the principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, or will be sent postpaid upon application to Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

We are Centre county agents for the Walk-Over shoes for men—Yeager & Davis, Bellefonte.

Proceed Cautionly.

Tobacco dealers are in constant danger of prosecution for violating the recently enacted law prohibiting the sale of tobacco to persons under the age of sixteen years. It is understood that several persons are threatening to prosecute tobacco dealers doing business within ten miles of this office, and to such the Reporter says "proceed cautiously." It is better to first treat with the dealer; and then, if necessary, prosecute.
