

Lemont.

John Glenn and wife spent several days last week with Mrs. Glenn's sister, Mrs. Samuel Weaver, at Dix station, on the B. E. V. R. R., and also visited Mrs. Glenn's brother at Tyrone. Samuel spent several days with his family at Dix station last week. Mrs. Weaver oversees the farming operations on their farm at Dix while Mr. Weaver keeps the Lemont division of the L. & T. R. R. in order.

Mrs. Guyer Hoy, living near Shiloh church, is very ill and her recovery is considered very doubtful.

Oscar and Wm. Williams went to Jersey Shore the beginning of last week in search of work. They returned Monday and report work scarce.

James Shreck is spending a few days with his brother in Brisbit, Clearfield county.

Millheim.

The Millheim and Centre Hall barbers, famous crack shots, spent a part of last week in the vicinity of Zion, Nittany Valley. They were after quail, or any blind thing that might wander forth in its sleep. After a few days' fruitless search, and some disappointment they came back to their accustomed haunts, thankful for a safe return and a warm reception. No doubt as they entered the valley the game left for a more congenial clime. At all events they did not bring any home.

George Secrist takes the lead in large porkers this year. He has two Polanders the weight of which has been estimated any where from twelve to fourteen hundred pounds.

A. P. Malze opened a confectionery and grocery in the room formerly occupied by M. C. Geppart. He has a clean, fresh, new stock, and no doubt will receive his share of patronage.

Messrs. Housman and Miller have purchased a boiler and engine from Mr. Gramley at Rebersburg. Hereafter they need not depend upon the water supply to run their planing mill.

Merchant J. P. Condo spent several days at his branch store, at Wolfes Store, Mr. Frechy, the manager, being absent on account of business relations at Wilkes Barre, his former home.

Ezra Auman, the popular miller, sold his Coburn property to W. H. Grove, of Penn township. Mr. Grove will quit farming and embark in the mercantile business.

Among those who attended the funeral of Mrs. Polly Keen on Monday from a distance were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Russell, of Ronova; Mrs. Joe Gutelius and Misses Sade and Lillian Gutelius, of Millinburg; Mrs. Reese Van Norner, and Mrs. Annie Cassell, of Coatsville; Ezra and Morris Swartz, of Punxsutawney.

Rev. E. D. Keen, of Nesqueh, circulated among his friends in town several days this week.

Miss Mary Hartman returned to her home on Penn Street, on Monday morning, after a visit of several weeks with friends in Baltimore, Shamokin, and Millinburg.

Mrs. Wm. Angstadt, of Lewisburg, is visiting at the home of J. N. Stover, on Penn Street.

Boalsburg.

W. A. Wagner, of Kipple, accompanied by his family, arrived in town on Saturday, and are at present visiting at the home of Lot Kimpfort.

The enterprising merchant L. S. Bricker is at present confined to the house with an attack of quinsy.

Rev. A. A. Black spent Monday among his members of the Pine Hill charge.

Samuel Wagner and family, of Kipple, are at present visiting at the home of Cyrus Durst, Mrs. Wagner's father.

Mrs. Samuel Glenn, of Lemont called at the Hillside farm on Monday.

Mrs. Sarah Hartwick, of Altoona, spent a few days at the home of her brother, L. Mothersbaugh, the beginning of the week.

Wm. Coxey, and family of Altoona, are visiting at the home of his mother. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leisher, of Renovo, are at present visiting at the home of their son-in-law, Samuel Kaup.

A Great Opportunity.

The burned district of Jacksonville, Fla., is to be rebuilt at once, offering an opportunity for employment to workmen, and excellent prospects to contractors and capitalists. Jacksonville is reached from all directions by the Seaboard Air Line Railway System, which offers unexcelled facilities in the way of schedules and through car services to that nov.30

Who will have the champion porkers this fall?

C. J. Finkle moved last Thursday into his store room. Robert Finkle moved to the old homestead recently bought by Adam Finkle.

Harry Steel is visiting his sister, Mrs. Harry Allison.

The Georges Valley hunting club returned after a two weeks' hunt with two bears and two fine deer. The first deer killed, had all the shots fired lodged in the animal, would have weighed four hundred pounds.

J. B. Mayes & Son, the marble kings, of Lemont, erected a fine monument over the grave of Rev. Martin, near Penn Hall, the first Presbyterian minister in the valley.

Samuel Curray, of Potters Mills, was in town on Saturday transacting business.

Grant Hoover, insurance agent of Bellefonte, was in town looking up the interests of his business.

Hiram Durst, of this place, has introduced hot water heating into his residence, and it proves highly satisfactory.

On Monday last C. J. Finkle took formal possession of the stock and store formerly owned and occupied by H. C. Robison. Mr. Finkle intends enlarging the store room and will make several improvements. He has just placed in the store two very handsome counters which add greatly to the appearance of the room. Mr. Finkle is well known and no doubt will do a large business.

A. B. Miller, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Wm. Stealy, of Sunbury, were here during the week, visiting their mother, Mrs. Charles Miller, who still continues in a critical condition. Mrs. W. R. Donahy, of Lewisburg, is also here, she is a niece of Mrs. Miller, and daughter of Magistrate M. B. Herring, of this village.

Mrs. Mary Grenoble, who has been very seriously ill for the last month or two, does not improve very rapidly. John Smith & Bro. furniture dealers, have commenced moving into their new and commodious store building.

T. M. Gramley, of the Creamery Co., is still confined to his room, suffering from an attack of rheumatism of a very severe character.

The M. E. parsonage has a decidedly better appearance since the removal of the old rickety fence. Why not remove the fencing from before all the residences—fear of cows! An example or two on that question would soon end the cow trouble.

Butchering has commenced but it is most too early to hear of startling avoirdupois; that will be heralded later in the month.

Some of the hunters complain of having met with indifferent success. The parties are generally too large, when a division is made they all receive their share from the small end of the cornucopia, and some will complain.

I have just been informed by a returned nimrod, that a number of gentlemen in Georges Valley known as the "Killdeer party," consisting of E. D. W. and M. Sweetwood, George Breen, Charles Burnes, Harry Doiby, Thomas Decker, and B. F. Kennelley and Harry Confer, of Spring Mills, the latter chief cook, left on the 4th inst. on a hunting expedition and returned on the 17th, head quarters at Pat Garrity's. The trophies for the first week were two bears, weighing 103 and 109 pounds respectively, and one nine-horn buck weighing 207 pounds. The second week the party was reinforced by the arrival of James Kennelley, G. R. Kennelley, John Sweetwood and Thomas Decker No. 2. The result of the second week's operations was one two-horn buck weighing 108 pounds. It will be observed that the hunters during the first week, though small in numbers, secured about all the prizes. The party also captured twenty-five rabbits. These gentlemen can certainly be proud of their game, and they are the only party so far that has reported any success. Reports from other parties are rather of a negative character.

Potters Mills.

Rev. Rhoades delivered a very able sermon in the M. E. church at Spruce-town Sunday morning.

Clayton McKinney, wife and children returned to Altoona Monday.

Miss Moyer and friend, of Penn Hall, spent Friday and Saturday at the home of Perry McKinney.
