Music.

The Renovo town council received five petitions asking for the enforcement of a curfew law. What foolishness to ask borough authorities to take such matters in hand. The head of every family should legislate his own curfew and insist on its observance by those under his home government.

Sudden Death.

Mrs. Armstrong, mother of Abram Armstrong, of Pleasant Gap, was found dead in bed Friday morning of last week, at the home of her sou-inlaw, James Eckenroth, near Zion. She was seventy-eight years of age. The funeral took place Sunday morning at 10 o'clock from the Eckenroth home. Interment at Pleasant Gsp.

Nine Sheep Ate Laurel.

George Hettinger, on the Jacob Shearer farm, east of Centre Hall, is (or rather was) keeping a flock of nine sheep on the shares for James Goodhart. Thursday of last week they wandered to the mountains and ate laurel. Six of them are now where laurel does not grow. Dr. Riter managed to save the lives of the remaining three.

Wedding on 18th.

A quiet wedding, to which only the nearest friends and relatives will be invited will take place at Centre Hall, Wednesday, 18th inst., at the home of Mrs. Mary Odenkirk. The bride will be Miss Jennie Odenkirk and the groom Abner Alexander, son of Mr and Mrs. James Alexander, of this place. The ceremony will take place at 11 o'clock, and in the afternoon they will start on a wedding tour. Mr. Alexander is building a dwelling house near the old Fort, which in the Spring will become the home of the young couple.

Assisted Dying Man.

Edward Sellers, Thursday evening of last week, while crossing the bridge between Riverside and Danville met a man whom he supposed drunk, judging from his walk. When he came up to him, the man asked Mr. Sellers to assist him to a place of safety; that he was very ill. Mr. Sellers cheerfully performed the mission, and landed him in a small store, after which physicians were summoned. In a half hour Mr. Sellers learned that the man had died, and that he was a cashier in one of the Danville banks, and one of its most prominent citizens.

Masonic Grand Lodge Officers.

At the Masonic Temple, Philadelphia, the following officers were elected : R. W. Grand Master, Edgar A. Tennis; Deputy R. W. Grand Master, James W. Brown, of Pittsburg ; Senior Grand Warden, George W. Keudrick, Jr. The new Junior Grand Warden is Judge George B. Orlady, of the Superior Court. He had 1000 majority on the first ballot over his opponent, George Moore, of William Sinn, Grand Secretary. It was decided to expend $200,000 in they are advertised. the improvement of the temple.

Dr. Hayes to Build a Hospital.

Tired of waiting for the erection of a general public hospital in this place, Dr. R. G. H. Hayes has awarded the contract for one of his own and just as soon as contractor Henry Lowry can complete the work Bellefonte will have the advantage of a splend!dly equipped institution of that sort, says the Watchman. It is to be erected William Beckwith, of Port Matilda, immediately at the rear of Dr. Hayes' office on Spring street and the location will be most admirable. Norway Fairles.

"Like the Japanese," writes William E. Curtis in the Chicago Herald, "the Norwegians are very superstitious. and as in Japan the forests, the mountains and the gorges are peopled with fairies. Nissen is the good fairy of the farmers. He looks after the cattle particularly, and if he is well treated they are healthy and the cows give lots of milk. To propitiate him it is necessary to put a dish of porridge on the threshold of the cow stable on Christmas morning. Whenever the family moves this invisible being goes along with them and sits on the top of the loads."
