

Shoe News

of Interest to Everybody.

If our Shoe news fails to interest the whole family we must have a poor advertising writer...

Mingle's Shoe Store, BELLEFONTE, PA.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Lutheran—Union, morning; Georges Valley, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening.

Presbyterian—Centre Hall, 2:30 p. m.; Spring Mills, 10:30 a. m.

Returned from Hospital.

Miss Sadie Fry, of Bealsburg, who was taken to the Presbyterian hospital in Philadelphia...

Attending Business College.

Messrs Chas. Mitterling, of Tusseyville, Boyd Auman and Roy Reaick, of Spring Mills...

Unique Distinction.

Centre Hall has the unique distinction of having for public school teachers two candidates for the county superintendency...

Fox Could Not Deal.

Louis Fox, of Baltimore, advertised for horses and was stationed at Runkle's Centre Hall hotel...

Charged With Murder.

Andrew Flavi, a Hungarian, was arrested at Snow Shoe Friday of last week on the charge of murder...

Odd Fellows Banquet.

The I. O. O. F., of Centre Hall, will give their annual banquet in Grange Arcadia, Wednesday evening...

Killed by an Explosion.

An explosion of dynamite caused the death of George Weaver, aged about sixteen years...

Fell Dead in His Yard.

George C. Breen, of Loganton, while out in his yard feeding the chickens, Friday morning...

New Pension Bill.

Senator Quay has introduced a general pension bill on a new line. It gives widows of old soldiers...

BOROUGH CAUCUS.

When He'll—Office to be Filled—Who He'll.

The Democratic Borough caucus will be held Saturday evening, in the Council room, Bank Building.

The power of the Democratic party lies in its local organizations. If the duty of the Democratic citizen...

The retiring officers of the borough are as follows.

- Judge of Election—J. H. Krumbire. Inspectors—J. S. ph Lutz. Council—Clement Lase.

MARRIED DEC. 31.

A Centre County Young Man Weds a Western Lady and Locates in Far West.

Married, at the Presbyterian parsonage, White, South Dakota, December 31st, 1901, by Rev. Ulysses G. Schell, D. D., George Bruce Goodhart...

Progress Grange Installs Officers.

At a meeting of Progress Grange Saturday afternoon the officers, which are appended were installed.

Golden Eagle Officers.

Centre Castle, No. 100, of Spring Mills, recently elected the following officers which were installed by D. G. C. Samuel Wisner...

Caucus Meetings.

The Democrats of Centre county will hold their caucuses for the nomination of candidates for borough, ward, township and precinct officers...

Sherley Appoints to the President.

Rear Admiral Sherley had an audience with President Roosevelt Tuesday and has concluded, after mature and careful deliberation...

County S. S. Conventions.

The Centre County Sunday School convention will meet at Millheim, the latter part of March or beginning of April.

A guardian was appointed over Hon. James Milliken, of New York.

A guardian was appointed over Hon. James Milliken, of New York, formerly of this county, because of his inability to care for his wealth...

Girls Wanted.

The Bush House, Bellefonte, wants two or three girls for dining room work.

REV. D. M. WOLF, D. D. See sketch on first page.

DECEASED.

MRS. REBECCA ZETTEL. Mrs. Rebecca Zettel, wife of George Zettel, of College township, died at her home near Shiloh church...

Deceased, whose maiden name was Rebecca Fye, was born in Pennsylvania seventy-five years ago last August.

Surviving her are her aged husband now in his 88th year and the following children: George W., of Milesburg; D. H., of Nebraska; Mrs. Emanuel Peters, of Oak Hall; Mrs. Jennie Shuey, of Dalton, Ill.; Mrs. Clyde Thomas, of State College; Mrs. John W. Shadle and Mrs. William Musser, of Bellefonte; Mrs. William Grove and Samuel, of Shiloh.

MRS. A. B. MUSSER. Mrs. Anna Barton Musser, wife of A. B. Musser, of Unionville, died at her home in that place Wednesday evening, January 1, of cancer.

Irvin Burris, stable man at the Centre Hall hotel, will move to the farm of Henry Potter in the spring, having purchased a half interest in Mr. Potter's stock.

At a regular meeting of the borough school board Tuesday evening, Messrs. John G. Dauberman and B. D. Brin-ban were elected directors to fill the unexpired terms of Messrs. L. C. Irvin and W. O. Rearick.

B. H. Arney, who lives just outside the borough limits, from January 1, 1901, to January 1, 1902, kept a close record of the product of his four cows Mr. Arney patronizes the Howard Creamery Company...

The annual meeting of the Centre County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, P. O. H., met at Garman's hotel Bellefonte, Tuesday of this week.

W. A. Sandoe this (Thursday) morning fell and broke one of the bones in his wrist.

Now that Xmas is over the busy housewife looks forward to material for Spring Sewing.

Headquarters for muslins, sheetings, bed-ticking, toweling, calicoes, gingham etc. Produce of all kinds wanted.

Girls Wanted.—The Bush House, Bellefonte, wants two or three girls for dining room work.

For Sale or Rent.—Store and dwelling opposite hotel, Spring Mills.

Transfer of Real Estate. Wm. R. From et ux to William Whitmer & Sons Co. Dec. 13, 1901, 99 acres 27 perches in Gregg twp.

MARRIAGE LICENSES. Harry C. Roub, Homestead, Bertha E. Wilson, Farnessville.

Democratic County Com., 1902. JOHN J. BOWER, Chairman.

THE STAR STORE. ESTABLISHED 1889. PROPRIETOR, G. O. BENNER.

In this issue of the Reporter we want to express our feelings to all our many customers, coming from those who have been such factors in our career...

Local and Personal.

Read the letter from Illinois. Gum boots, just right for this kind of weather, at—C. P. Long's.

The union prayer services were well attended this week, which is indicative of a good spirit.

The thermometer last week hovered about zero, which put the ice men to work filling ice houses.

Ward Shultz, who for the past few months had been employed in a table factory in Hughesville, returned home recently.

Twenty-eight persons were given the second and third degree work of the Grange at Saturday's meeting of Progress Grange.

Mrs. Breen, mother of Mrs. H. G. Strohmeyer, has been lying ill at the latter's home for some time, but has improved of late.

The annual election of officers of the Farmer's Mutual Fire Insurance Company will take place at Runkle's hotel, Monday of next week.

The Grammar school was closed Tuesday on account of the funeral of Mrs. Charles Miller, of Spring Mills, who is an aunt of Mrs. James B. Strohm.

Dr. and Mrs. Perry Breen, Mrs. R. D. Foreman and H. G. Strohmeyer, of this place, attended the funeral of their uncle George C. Breen, at Logan-ton, Monday morning.

George W. Koch, east of Centre Hall, drove through town looking as spry as when he returned from assisting Uncle Sam in settling that little unpleasantness down south.

Uncle Tom's Cabin was played in Grange Arcadia Wednesday night. The attendance was very fair.

Miss Gracie C. Sanderson, of Eagle Mills, Clinton county, died at her home last week. She was a sister of Mrs. George L. Potter and Mrs. A. O. Furst, of Bellefonte.

Jonas W. Bible, of near Centre Hill, was a business caller Monday, and announced sale of farm stock, etc.

J. W. Ruhl, son of Henry Ruhl, of Millburg, had his leg broken below the knee by a piece of saw striking it while working on a mill near Pardee.

Mrs. Charles Decker, of Oak Park, Illinois, arrived at the home of her brother, John H. Puff, in this place, the other Tuesday.

C. D. Boon, of Steuben, Huron county, Ohio, who with his wife came east several weeks ago, stopped over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Bradford, at the Old Fort.

Misses Rebecca Yeager and Beatrice Ray, of near Centre Hall, were called Wednesday, and watched the process of type setting and printing.