

Spring Mills.

Papa Alters came pretty near bleeding to death last Friday; there is no known cause for it. Smith Bros. the up-to-date undertakers, had three funerals last week. They understand their business and get calls quite a distance from home. James McCool, of Rebersburg, was in town Saturday on business. Wm. Bitner shut down his stove mill in Poe Valley on account of cold weather. C. P. Long made a business trip to the county seat last Monday. Luther Emerick, of Centre Hall, was in town Monday evening. J. O. McCormick left last Tuesday for Altoona to canvass for enlarging pictures. The Lutheran congregation is making preparations to build a new church out of the Mill Hall pressed brick. The site will be across the street from the United Evangelical church; work will begin as soon as the weather will permit.

At the request of Rev. Haven, who was unavoidably absent, the Y. M. C. A., of Spring Mills, had a largely attended meeting in the Sprucetown church on Sunday evening last. The services were of a very interesting and impressive character. Appropriate remarks were made by C. E. Royer, C. A. Krape, Wm. Smith, Dr. Leitzell, C. Anman, Mrs. Royer and Mrs. Dr. Leitzell. The last named lady presided at the organ and by her skill added greatly to the singing. O. T. Corman, of this place, drove up with a sled containing fifteen persons. Other parties from here drove up with considerable numbers. Visitors were also present from Centre Hall, Pottery Mills, Centre Hill and Tusseyville. All expressed themselves as having been highly pleased and interested in the meeting, and only regretted when the services were at an end. Evangelist Laumaster, of Danville, will commence a series of meetings in the M. E. church at this place on the 16th inst. and continue for ten days, services afternoon and evening. Mr. Laumaster is a very able speaker and comes highly recommended by the Y. M. C. A. All are cordially invited to attend these meetings, as they will be of an unusually interesting character. The scamp who treated himself to a dozen or more stews and a peck of fried oysters a week or two since at O. T. Corman's expense, has not as yet returned the bucket. Stealing bivalves from the front of the store was the act of a sneak thief and the party who did it simply announced himself a candidate for the penitentiary. Stealing down this way is excellent, and the galleons of this place are taking advantage of it. The pike and back road presents quite a lively scene in the afternoon. Miss Ida Condo received as a Christmas gift from a special friend a very handsome bird dog. The animal is evidently quite a valuable one, and is highly appreciated by Miss Ida. Andrew Corman having been repeatedly urged by his many friends for supervisor, has finally announced himself a candidate. Mr. Corman was one of the supervisors a year or two since, and during his term the roads were never in a better condition, a break or washout was repaired at once; he was well aware of what the traveling public required, and so well did he discharge the duties of the office that many of the township roads were equal, and in some instances superior to the pike, and did it all at the usual expense. Mr. Corman as supervisor would evidently be the right man in the right place.—We must have good roads. Last week in speaking of the extensive lumber operations of C. P. Long, you stated that with twelve teams he was hauling to Spring Mills 7,500 feet of lumber per week. This is mere bagatelle, of course it was a typographical error, and should have stated 75,000 feet.

Oak Hall.

Clement Dale, Esq., and George Schell, of Houserville, passed through town Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Tate and son Rankin spent Saturday at the home of B. P. Hartman, at Bellefonte. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shuey, Oliver and Lester Shuey, Mrs. A. J. Tate, of Shiloh, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mayer, of Lemont, were Sunday visitors at the home of Wesley Tate. Mrs. A. W. Dale, and Mrs. Walker, of Boalsburg, were passengers on the east bound train last Thursday. The funeral of Mrs. Zettle, of Shiloh, was attended by a large number from this place. William Rishel, the jolly blacksmith, spent Sunday at the county seat. Mrs. Henrietta Da'e and daughter Annie are visiting friends in Altoona. Grace Barnhart fell on the ice on the playground last Thursday evening and broke her leg below the knee. The Reporter one dollar a year.

Boalsburg

From last week. Mr. Gammel, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., of Bellefonte, preached a very fine sermon in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon. Mrs. S. H. Bailey left last Wednesday for a few weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Robert McCren, of Pittsburg. Miss Margaret Mothersbaugh spent last Saturday with her friend, Miss Bessie Weber, of Oak Hill. Teacher's Institute for this district will be held at this place the 17th and 18th of this month. Many prominent speakers will be in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Segner spent Tuesday among friends at State College. John Stamm and family spent Tuesday at the home of John From, near State College. The play, "Down in Dixie" on New Year's eve, in the town hall, was very well rendered, each actor performing his or her part to perfection. Special mention must be made of the masterly way in which Prof. Bryson performed his part. James Glenn gave evidence that he will some day be one of the leading actors on the stage of life. Favorable mention must also be made of Misses Rose Woods, Alma Gingerich, Priscilla Wilson, and Messrs. Frank McFarlane and Harry Bailey, each performing their parts in a very able manner. Mrs. Stuart deserves credit for the way in which she trained the actors.

Rev. A. A. Black spent Monday at Pine Hall; while there he attended the meeting of the Cemetery Association, of which he is the secretary. Miss Sue Stover, of Unionville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. S. Bricker. Warren Bailey, of State College, was seen in town Sunday. Warren thinks there is no rose like the one near the P. O. Bought by Jimmy and Nell—each a cake of soap. Robbers have been frightening some of the citizens on Main Street. They had better not make another attempt or they may find "Little Willie" will let them know what his revolver is loaded with. William Fortney and family, of Pittsburg, spent Thursday at the home of Wm. Patterson. Ira Rishel accompanied by his family spent last Saturday among friends in Tusseyville. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keller, of Lemont, spent Thursday at the home of Mr. Keller's father, David Keller. Peter Ishler the ex-butcher, made a business trip to State College on Thursday. Mr. Ishler with his brother George expect soon to start for West Virginia, where they will engage in lumbering. The school board met on Saturday and paid off the teachers for the fourth month. Ed. Weber, of Huntingdon, son of P. M. Weber, who has charge of the laundry department at the Huntingdon Reformatory, spent several days last week among friends in this place. Miss Clara Keller is confined to the house with a threatened attack of pleurisy. A branch of the Book Lovers' Library, of Philadelphia, has been established in this town through the efforts of Rev. A. A. Black.

Colyer.

Paul Swab, of Aaronsburg, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Arthur Lee. Among the people of this vicinity who are on the sick list are Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mrs. Peter Boal and Mrs. Israel Weaver. Miss Susie Bogdan spent Sunday at the home of her friend, Miss Carrie Bortoff. William Farner transacted business with Squire J. S. Housman Monday. Prof. Gramley visited the schools in this vicinity last week. James Runkle and brother Calvin during the past week filled the ice house of G. R. Meiss with fine ice taken from the Red mill dam. Mrs. Henry Moyer visited with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Neff the past week and on her way home the horse fell on the ice and broke the shafts of the buggy and Mrs. Moyer was compelled to stay at the home of Wm. F. Rokey until Saturday. Mrs. J. H. Wolfe and daughter Carrie, of State College, were guests at the home of Calvin Cooney over Sunday. Miss Sallie Wright is again in our community and is staying at the home of Henry Moyer. Adam Felty, of Boalsburg, and Orvis Lee, formerly of this place, visited friends in this community Sunday. John Lee purchased a very fine team of horses one day last week. Mr. Lee intends to start farming in the spring at Boalsburg, on what is known as the Lot Kimpfort farm. Miss Cora Houtz left for Pleasant Gap Saturday where she will visit her parents. Charles Frazier lost a valuable horse one day last week. Miss Ella Phillips is making her home at George Lee's. Miss Mary Jordan, of Pottery Mills, spent Monday night with her friend, Miss Banche Moyer. Clothing for men and boys, bargains at—C. P. Long's.

Keith's Theatre.

Harrigan, the Tramp Juggler, who will appear at Keith's, Philadelphia, January, 27th.

Everyone will be delighted to hear that Manager Keith, of the Philadelphia theatre, announces for the present week a continuance of the engagement of Ciquella and the Cycle Whirl, two specialties, either of which is worthy of heading even the best of vaudeville programmes. Suffice it to say that no other acts have ever earned such frantic applause. Ciquella is to do some new feats this week, and the Cycle Whirl will be no less thrilling than hitherto. Heading the comedy department are Walter Le Roy and Florence Clayton in "Hogan of the Hansons," while other first-rate mirth makers embrace Linton and McIntyre, in "Dr. Quack, of Quackenbush," Talbot and Davison, as "Sir Henry Irving and John De Risky; Lester and Jermon, German comedy sketch; Howard and Burke, Irish comedians.

FLORIDA.

The first Pennsylvania Railroad tour of the season to Jacksonville, allowing two weeks in Florida, will leave New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington by special train February 4. Excursion tickets, including railway transportation, Pullman accommodations (one berth), and meals en route in both directions while traveling on the special train, will be sold at the following rates: New York, $50.00; Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Baltimore, and Washington, $48.00; Pittsburg, $53.00; and at proportionate rates from other points. For tickets, itineraries, and other information apply to ticket agents, or to Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia. o-29

Fashions Latest Sleeves.

The latest edict of fashion calls for a sleeve of much larger proportions in all outdoor garments. This is more especially noticeable in evening wraps although many of the newer coat and jacket sleeves are greatly enlarged in size, particularly from the elbow down. It stands to reason that the elaborate sleeve of the smart gown or separate waist cannot be crowded into a tight outer sleeve without detriment. In the February delineator there is an exhaustive article on the making of latest sleeve on outer garments. Numerous illustrations add to the value of the text.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

(The rate for announcement under this head is $1.50 when paid in advance, otherwise $2.25. The Reporter can not advocate the election of any Democrat prior to nomination by the regular caucus. All communications bearing on the subject will be charged for at the rate of ten cents per line, provided previous arrangements have been made.—Ed.) James Horner announces that he is a candidate for the office of Constable of Potter township, subject to the decision of the Democratic caucus of said district. Philip Frank announces that he is a candidate for the office of Constable of Potter township, subject to the decision of the Democratic caucus of said district. David Swastler announces that he is a candidate for the office of Constable of Potter township, subject to the decision of the Democratic caucus of said district.

TO THE DEMOCRATS.—The campaign in Potter township is warming to a high degree. A kind word for the present justice of the peace, J. S. Housman, of the West precinct, is, however, only due him. He has been a capable official, and has done much to avoid petty cases being sent to court and thereby saved the county many dollars in commonwealth costs. His schooling in office is of profit to all who chance to have business to transact with him, because he can be depended upon to perform his duties legally and with dispatch.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS.—Philip Frank, the present constable of Potter township, should have a second nomination. Under the party's unwritten rules he is entitled to it; he has been a faithful official which should strengthen his claims. He is not entitled to the office for life, but other aspirants should bide the time when Mr. Frank's two terms have expired. There is good sense in the view of the matter and why not accept it. The Democrats must stand together and act unitarily, or their prestige in old Potter will pass from them. FOR JUSTICE.

It is reported that I have withdrawn as a candidate for constable. I wish to say that there is no truth in the statement. A note from the post-office department informs me that there is no objection to my holding the office if I can be elected. Yours, JAMES HORNER.
