

Potters Mills.

Quite a number from this place took in the Odd Fellows' banquet, viz.: W. W. McCormick and wife, J. M. Carson and wife; C. M. Harshbarger, wife and daughter Miss Elsie, J. F. McCoy, M. A. Sankey and sister Miss Mabel, F. A. Carson and Miss Kathryn A. Wilkinson, John Armstrong and sister Miss Bertha, Miss Blanche Heckman. Geiss Wagner, of Manhattan, Illinois, is visiting friends in town. Miss Edith Decker, of Pine Grove Mills, is visiting her cousin, Alice Decker. Edward Lucas is again seen in town; he is home on his vacation. Merchant Carson transacted business at the county seat Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Armstrong are on the sick list. J. B. Harper spent a few days recently with his daughter, Mrs. James Rankie, at Centre Hall. Michael Smith spent Sunday with his brothers at Spring Mills.

Spring Mills.

Geiss Wagner, of Manhattan, Ill., and Emanuel Smith, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday with Smith Brothers. Daniel Slagle removed the splint from his hand, which he was unfortunate in breaking some time ago. George Dunkle, the popular wall paper dealer, has already prepared for the spring trade; all the late patterns can be seen at his place of business, and prices lower than ever. Democrats turn out to the caucus meeting next Saturday at one o'clock, at Penn Hall, to elect two supervisors, two school directors, two overseers of the poor, one auditor and one town clerk. The two candidates now talked of for supervisor are John Bron for the north side and Andrew Corman for the south; C. J. Finkle for overseer of the south side; constable, John Lloyd, Ham. Shreckengost, J. C. Bealy and Duncan Rankie. We never had better material in the field for constable. The building committee has started to quarry stones for the new Lutheran church. Wilbur Shires, of Philadelphia, is home for a couple weeks' vacation; he is employed as stenographer for some large firm. Roy Leitzel, son of James Leitzel, Jr., while cutting wood cut off his index finger at the first joint. T. B. Jamison, the hustling insurance agent, is kept quite busy filling out insurance policies; he represents some of the best companies.

The M. E. church building of this place, is filled nightly to its utmost capacity. Parties from the surrounding country flock to the church in large numbers, all anxious to hear Evangelist Laumaster, and to take part in these highly interesting and instructive meetings. Mr. Laumaster is a very fluent and attractive speaker, affable, polished and a gentleman of the highest intelligence. The Y. M. C. A. of this place are to be complimented; they made no blunder in securing the services of Evangelist Laumaster to conduct a series of meetings, meetings too that are accomplishing great good. Among the names announced in this hallweek for constabulary honors, is H. E. Shreckengast, a young man of considerable intelligence, and a gentleman of character and ability. As constable he would prove a very efficient and reliable officer. Within the past few days he has displayed remarkable political strength. His following includes many of the prominent Democrats; his nomination would be an excellent one. Mrs. W. R. Donachy, of Lewisburg, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Herring, for several weeks, returned home Saturday last. H. B. Miller, an employe of Allison's flouring mill, was placed on the sick calendar last week, suffering from a mild type of German measles; he is now convalescing. There are several other cases of measles, but none of a very serious character.

Farmers Mills.

Shreckengast Brothers killed three foxes within the past week. Jacob Reed, of Aaronburg, purchased a new harness from J. F. Emerick, the up-to-date saddler. Mrs. Lizzie Bradford, of Centre Hall is spending a few weeks with her parents at this place. Mrs. David Shaffer, after spending a few weeks at Madisonburg, returned to her home with her daughter. Frequent occurrences: Upon the arrival of the doctor he found his patient had gone to the dance. Mervin and Arthur Homan contemplate going to Lewistown in the spring to learn the molding trade. Albert Finkle, of Muncy, and Miss Laura Rankie, of Centre Hall, paid a short visit to this place recently. Quite a number from this place are attending evangelistic services at Spring Mills, which are conducted by Rev. Laumaster. J. H. Reifsnyder, Esq., and accomplished daughter, Miss Jennie, of Millheim, spent Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. George Armbruster. Last Friday night the enlthump-plans called on Harry Pye and wife; keep in practice boys, you will have another call in the near future, Elmer says he is going to farming in the spring. Jesse Reack passed through this place with a load of lumber last week; no doubt he intends to build a cage for the bird he captured recently. The writer wishes them a long and happy life.

You can buy a first-class blanket at a low price from Boozers, Centre Hall. A Cure for Lumbago. W. C. Williamson, of Amherst, Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me entire relief, which all other remedies had failed to do." Sold by J. F. Smith, H. F. Rossman, J. B. Fisher's Sons.

Colyer.

Gardner Grove, of Centre Hall, visited at the home of Wm. Moyer on Friday. Miss Minnie Floray, of Farmers Mills, was the guest of Jonas and Katie Boal the past week. Miss Anna Mitterling, of Tusseyville, spent Thursday with her friends, Annie Fahringer and Nannie Miess. The funeral of Mrs. Jacob Wagner was largely attended. Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Lingle, of Spring Mills, attended the funeral on Thursday; they spent the remainder of the day with Mrs. Wingard and after the evening revival service returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Smith, of Potters Mills, spent a day at the home of P. B. Jordan. Mrs. Rebecca Boal and Mrs. Arthur Lee, who were on the sick list are improving. Stump and mother attended the I. O. O. F. banquet at Centre Hall last Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moyer and son Elmer visited over Sunday at the home of Gardner Grove, at Centre Hall. Mrs. A. Holderman held a reception on Thursday in honor of her daughter Anna, who was recently married to Thomas Thall, of Bellefonte. Only the relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom were present. The correspondent wishes the young couple a pleasant voyage over the sea of matrimony. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rowe and family, of Centre Hall, visited Mrs. Rowe's parents Sunday. Miss Cora Houtz, after spending several days with her parents at Pleasant Gap, returned home last week. Peter Phillips will move to Milroy in the spring, where he will be employed by the Richely Bros. in running a dinky. Wm. Jordan has again taken up his work at the home of Jacob Detwiler. John Frazier and family, of Linden Hall; Miss Carrie Bottorf, George Kline and Robert Glasgow spent Thursday evening at the home of Foster Frazier, at this place, and after spending the evening very pleasantly in games and plays and partaking of the good things, they returned home much pleased with the trip. Mrs. Charles Frazier and children, of this place, visited her parents at Linden Hall the past week. J. S. Housman is a candidate for justice of the peace; he has served his third term and the people are urging him for the fourth term. He deserves reelection as he has always tried to serve the commonwealth faithfully and has been loyal in trying to keep peace in this county. Remember the caucus on Saturday, 25th, and turn out and attend it. Mrs. Alvin Stump and son Elmer, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Mary Wingard.

At Kiehl's. Cinquevalli and the whirl attractions are stronger than they were on the first day of presentation. The dog cart with a pony will be driven upon the stage; and, after the pony is detached, Cinquevalli will balance the dog cart on the point of the shafts upon his chin, and while in that position will cause the entire cart to turn a complete revolution.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS. (The rate for announcement under this head is $2.00 when paid in advance, otherwise $2.25.—The advertiser is responsible for the accuracy of all communications appearing on this page, provided previous arrangements have been made.) James Horner announces that he is a candidate for the office of Constable of Potter township, subject to the decision of the Democratic caucus of said district. Philip Frank announces that he is a candidate for the office of Constable of Potter township, subject to the decision of the Democratic caucus of said district. David Smelser announces that he is a candidate for the office of Constable of Potter township, subject to the decision of the Democratic caucus of said district.

TO THE DEMOCRATS:—Let me say a good word to James Horner, a candidate for the office of constable. He is capable and thoroughly honest; all who know him will say that. If there is anything in location, he has a good, royal claim; first because the office has not been selected from this section for a number of years; second, because his district is the Democratic stronghold of the township. You will not go wrong, fellow Democrats, or supporting Mr. Horner for constable. J. A. C.

A Little Boy's Life Saved. I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today.—J. J. Demont, Inwood, Iowa. For sale by J. F. Smith, H. F. Rossman, J. B. Fisher's Sons.

A Good Recommendation. "I have noticed that the sale on Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. "What better recommendation could any medicine have than for people to call for it when again in need of such a remedy? Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite or when troubled with constipation, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford. For sale by J. F. Smith, H. F. Rossman, J. B. Fisher's Sons.
