At the expiration of five weeks he again notified the company that he was able to resume work, when they immediately Mrs. Thomas Thall. mailed him a check for fifty dollars to cover the entire time of his disability. There was no delay nor quibbling, but the amount promptly paid.

The remarkably high winds down this valley on Sunday and Monday last were about as near a genuine burricane as we have any desire for. The snow was hurled hither and thither in blinding clouds, and no doubt some of the roads are closed. No special damage however is reported in this immediate neighborhood, save the blowing down of fences and the destruction of several old sheds, used mainly as home for owls and bats.

S. A. Krape, of this village, will dispose of all his household effects on the 5th proximo, and will move to Altoona. All are sorry to lose Mr. Krape; he is a good citizen and a very skillful mechanic.

Misses Isora Rupp and Claudie Wieland, of Bralsburg, accompanied by Miss Maggie Swabb, of this place, visited in Centre Hall Saturday. Up to the present time there has not been much sickness throughout this community and it is hoped the prevailing good health will continue. The Cummings Bros. are still busy baling hay and straw; last week they were down at Centre Hill, and this week they are baling at home. They are industrious and enterprising young men and make things move along at good speed.

Mrs. Daniel Frazier, of Pleasant Gap, is spending a few weeks with her son John, at this place, and while here is making calls on old friends and acquaintances, who are glad to see her among them again.

Saturday while Thomas Gramley was on his way to town with his team one of the horses slipped and sprained himself internally. Under the care of Dr. Fry the horse is improving.

Fair attendance at church on Sunday, despite the blizzard, showing that there is a healthy religious spirit in this community.

Boalsburg.

Messrs. George Keller, of Houserville, and Frank Mayes, of Lemont, called at the Hillside farm Saturday. Mrs. Moore, who is in her eightyseventh year, is seriously ill with a disease peculiar to old age.

Rev. Hepler, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached a very fine sermon last Sunday, showing the necessity of bringing children into Christ's Barisr kingdom when young.

The social Friday evening at the home of Miss Janet McFarlane, and under the auspices of the ladies missionary society of the Presbyterian church, proved a success in every way. The missionary tree on which hung a number of articles wrapped so as to leave some hint as to what was in it, kept the contestants working hard. Dorsey Segner won the first prize; Dr. Kidder and Miss Ella Bottorf won the 'booby" prize, which was a stick of fine peppermint candy. Refreshments were served during the evening. Mrs. Lee Segner, nee Miss Lizzie Williams, is very sick with diabetis. Her speedy recovery is hoped for.
