Look at the Correction.

Those who paid their subscription to the Reporter during the past four weeks will please examine the label on this issue and report if the correction is not right. "01" means July, 1901. Jan. 01, appears thus: jan. 1.

Stave Making.

The stave mill at the station is running in full force. Wm. Colyer, the owner, gives the mill his personal attention, and leaves little manufactured goods of any description pass from the mill without having come under his eye. The secret of Mr. Colyer's lumbering success is due largely to the fact that he permits no lumber to be wasted and his close personal supervision of all his operations.

An Excited Fireman.

Some time ago in a suburban town there was a succession of fires. It was before a paid fire department was organized, and the work of subduing the various outbreaks fell to a volunteer force of fire fighters, who took great pride in their work. One night there was a midnight alarm and a great crowd gathered. Upon the arrival of the volunteer force it was discovered that only one lantern was available. The smoke was dense, but very little flame appeared, and the night was very dark.

Finally one cornice of the burning structure broke off in a sheet of flame. As the crowd cheered a man at the nozzle directed the stream toward the lurid light.

"For heaven's sake, man, keep the water off that blaze!" shouted an excited volunteer fighter. "Blame it, don't you see it's the only light we got to put out the fire by?"—New York Commercial Advertiser.

A Card.

THE STAR STORE.

ESTABLISHED 1889.

G. O. BENNER, PROPRIETOR.

We have many corn cob crushers on a few of which we will give you quotations, and you will find them true to name, in the little hen coop on the popular Flat from corner at the station. May be you doubt this, if so come and see for yourself. We have explained it many times. It is the old story; laying and selling for cash only. We lay nothing from traveling salesmen or of houses that employ them. They can sell goods cheaper. We pay no rents or drayage, consequently are not compelled to keep horse and wagon and man to driving and tend same, all of which costs, and you pay the bill. Another thing; we give no prize tickets or premiums, nor do we give discounts. These tickets and premiums cost money; they don't come with the wind. Well you pay for them alone with your goods. Isn't it plain? We haven't room to quote you all we would like to but will give you a few to consider.
