

Spring Mills.

George Deihl and wife, of Montgomery, spent Sunday at the home of John Zerby.

Those who attended the lecture at Centre Hall Friday evening were Dr. and Mrs. Braught, J. Frank Rierick and wife.

A comedy company will play in the town all week; it is the best show that has ever been in Spring Mills.

Ida M. Condo, daughter of J. I. Condo, left Saturday for Montgomery, to spend a month with Mr. and Mrs. Willis Rishel.

C. P. Long, the popular merchant and lumberman took a week off to see some other business country. Mr. Long thinks we are a back number, nothing but an agricultural country. He stopped in Pittsburg and from there went to Steubenville, Ohio, where his two brothers, Harry and Frank are in business. The next towns he visited were Butler and Painesville, where his brother Philip is conducting a large department store. Mr. Long was very much pleased with his trip.

The members of the Evangelical Association had a donation party last Saturday evening for Rev. Koontz.

The fishing party that was out last Saturday, composed of Thomas Decker, John Wolf, Daniel Kennelley, James Leitzel, B. F. Kennelley, Floyd Bowersox, Jacob McCool, R. G. Kennelley, Samuel Condo, and Stuff Kennelley succeeded in catching four hundred and sixty suckers, ranging from ten to fifteen inches in length.

O. T. Corman wants a good clerk. Daniel Gentzel, the veterinary surgeon is kept very busy.

Ward Gramley, who teaches school at McElhattan, spent Sunday with his father, T. M. Gramley.

The snow fall here on Friday night last, was the heaviest we have had for some years. Travel was very much impeded, in fact no one ventured out on Saturday, every body was waiting for some one to start first to open the road; on that day the toll gate receipts on the pike were almost a blank. The rubber stock in the stores toward evening was almost exhausted, but C. A. Krape of the shoe emporium replenished his stock about ten days ago, and, notwithstanding his large sales, says, like the razor strop man, he has a few more left of the same kind.

H. C. Robison, formerly one of the prominent merchants, has purchased a large stone mill, and will now give that business his close attention.

The entire Democratic ticket here was elected, with the exception of constable; the vote was very light.

The egg market in this neighborhood all last week was completely demoralized. They were bought and sold at most any price. The recent snow blockades caused a famine in "hen fruit," hence the fluctuations. But they are now rapidly declining to a normal figure.

We are short of rain water for house purposes. Some of the folks are "cooking snow" to obtain a supply.

Quite a number of removals and changes will be made here in the spring; dwellings are in demand.

The measles epidemic in the village seems to be on the wane.

Col. T. B. Jamison, the popular insurance agent, has been absent several days, attending to his large and increasing business.

The Standard Concert Company commenced a series of concerts in the town hall Monday evening last to a very satisfactory audience. The entertainment is highly interesting consisting of singing and instrumental music.

Baby Madeline is the star of the company; she is a little tot of less than five years of age, and is quite a marvel executing some of her pieces in a wonderful manner. The company consists of Mr. and Miss Henry, Miss Lewis, Mr. Elliott and Prof. Reinboth and all are fine singers. They have given a week's entertainment of a very refined character and unusual excellence.

Stories in the March "Nationals"

Albert Lawrence of Michigan contributes "Through Toils Political," a strong and typically American story of love and politics, in which the Boss is given rather a better character, at least for shrewdness, than we are accustomed to allow him. Bradford Stephens of Rhode Island—a student at Brown University by the way—writes an exceedingly funny story of "An Old-Fashioned Elopement," in which the lovers have their way after some surprising scenes. Willard Dillman of South Dakota contributes a Norwegian character sketch which is also a very effective love story, entitled "Two-Dog John." Charles Townsend and Josephine Broadman of New York and New Jersey respectively, write the Little Novels of the number, in which the motif is—love, of course.

You can buy a first-class blanket at a low price from Boxer, Centre Hall.

Novelties at Keith's.

"The Little Boy in Blue" and "Dolly Gray" will be sung every night this week at Keith's, by sixty choirs. A novelty will be the appearance of Lillian Burkhardt in a "Leap for Love" a little comedy. Other laughable acts will embrace John Donahue and Mattie Nichols, acrobatic dancers; A. O. Dacan, a ventriloquist comedian. The instrumental music will be furnished by the five Fosses. The biograph pictures will show the King of Denmark being greeted by assembled sovereigns.

Rebersburg.

Ward Gramley and his cousin, Ray Chapam, of McElhattan, were guests at the hospital home of Prof. C. L. Gramley over Sunday.

Sidney Krumrine, who has been employed in Painesville for the past few weeks, arrived home Monday.

Mrs. Marie Gast-Roush, of Mifflinburg, after a few days visit with her cousin, Mrs. E. M. Brungart, returned to her home last Friday.

C. J. Crouse was confined to the house over Sunday by a severe bilious attack.

The members of St. Peter's Lutheran church held a pound social at the parsonage last Friday evening. The number who ventured out into the inclement weather goes to show how their pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Harman, are appreciated. It will be an occasion long to be remembered by pastor and people, as a delightful evening was spent together.

Samuel Spangler, of Newton, Kansas, formerly from this valley, is a welcome guest in this community. Mr. Spangler belongs to the G. A. R. men, 148th Regiment and came east to attend the reunion at Bellefonte last week.

Nathan Boob, of Union county, is visiting old friends and acquaintances in Rebersburg, having come here from Bellefonte, where he attended the reunion of the 148th Regiment, of which he is a member.

Mrs. C. M. Gramley was ill for a few days, but has almost recovered.

Tusseyville.

Messrs. Thomas Swartz and Mifflin Moyer had quite a pleasant drive on Sunday.

Miss Mary Klinefelter returned to John Runkle's Sunday, after spending a few weeks at her home.

John Mersinger, who has been confined to the house during the past two weeks with a sore throat, is improving rapidly.

Miss Bertha Rossman spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Rebecca Spangler.

Quite a number of the children in the neighborhood are sick with the measles.

Maurice Runkle made a pleasant call at the home of Jonas Bible Sunday.

Charles Mitterling was expected home last Saturday but failed to arrive; the deep snow must have frightened him.

Luther Wert and wife, of Aaronburg, spent a few days of last week with his brother, James Wert.

Quite a number of persons from this place attended meeting at Egg Hill several evenings last week.

A very deep snow fell in Penns Valley Friday night; it was fourteen inches deep Saturday morning.

Woodward.

Mrs. Fannie Meyer visited her parents Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. H. Harter, of Coburn, spent a few hours with her friends in town on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stover returned home from Bellefonte Monday evening, where Mrs. Stover had been staying during the illness and death of her mother, Mrs. David Glenn.

Mrs. Henry Meyer, of Rebersburg, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isalah Boob.

Mrs. Edith Long moved to Brush Valley Tuesday.

The celebration of Washington's birthday by the P. O. S. of A., was very well attended Saturday evening, considering the weather. Wm. Weand, State secretary, of Philadelphia, delivered an excellent address.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonials letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.
