County Sunday School Convention,

A convention of the Centre county Sunday schools will he held in this place Tuesday, April 8th. A program appears elsewhere in this issue. The speakers are well versed on the topics which they discuss, and the most interesting sessions are anticipated.

The Wheat Outlook.

Where there were fair prospects for a crop of wheat last fall, the same conditions are present this spring. Much of the wheat in Penns Valley was sown late, and its growth last fall was entirely unsatisfactory. The past winter, of course, did not improve the prospects of the late sowing.

In Town April 1st.

The famous blind trio, who a year or more ago gave a most excellent entertainment in this place, will be here again Tuesday evening, April 1. The trio furnish first-class music, both vocal and instrumental, and will perform on the above date in Grange Arcadia. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

House and Lot for Sale

The Bitner homestead in Centre Hall is offered for sale by the owner, Rev. Robert O'boyle, in order to close out the estate. The property consists of dwelling house, outbuildings, stable and about five acres of land. The location is pleasant, and will make a splendid home. For further particulars inquire of W. B. Mingle, Centre Hall.

Spring Millinery.

Mrs. Lucy Henney will leave Saturday for eastern cities to select her mil- a lead of fine iron ore is seen. linery for the spring and summer trade. The opening days will be Thursday and Friday, April 10th and and 11th, when a general invitation is given to the ladies to come and inspect her goods, which will consist of all the latest styles in millinery, at prices to suit all. Give her a call.

No Truth in It.

It was reported that James Sandoe came from a boarding house in Pittsburg from which four or five patients had been taken to the pest house on account of having small-pox. This is incorrect. There had been smallpox patients there prior to Sandoe's going to that house, but not within several months. Sandoe would have more sense than to come from such an infected house to his parents in Centre Hall.

GOOD OUTLOOK FOR FARMERS.

Deputy State Secretary of Agriculture Discusses Crops.

Deputy Secretary of Agriculture Martin has just returned from a tour of the State during which he made inquiries as to crop conditions. He said:

"The outlook for wheat just after the fall sowing was not so good, but an abundance of snow during the winter made the conditions more favorable, and I think we will have the average crop. The ravages of the Hessian fly are not so perceptible this

I noticed that the tent caterpillar has been building its tents on tents containing the parasites are do - pied by Mrs. King. stroyed by fire at once there is going to be trouble.

"Seed oats are in great demand, owing to the failure of the crop last year, and high prices may prevent the average screage being sown this Spring. Seed potatoes of the early varieties are also sought after and command high prices. The outlook for agriculture the coming season is even brighter than that of last year."

Organize Board of Health.

Every township should have an active board of health. Where this organization is lacking the township school board is the legally constituted board of health, and has all the power vested in any similar board. Be alive; be awake; take precautions in

Pernicions Practice.

County Superintendent Henry Brooks, of McKeesport, was charged with granting certificates to further his reelection, in May, by James Foster, a member of the school board. This is a common although pernicious practice with some superintendents, but when the proper evidence is not at hand, it is nonsense to make the charge. Mr. Foster was unable to sustain the charge.

Planing Mill in Operation.

The entire plant of the Spring Mills planing mill has been purchased by C. P. Long, who secured this industry for the town four years ago and has been the manager of the business. The plant has had a general going over and extensive repairs made, and at this time is working every machine in the mill with additional mill men. H. F. Confer is foreman in the mill, and as he fully understands his business there is work in abundance for the plant for the summer. The last two months a number of cars of mill work The Reporter is indebted to a large have been shipped to Ohio.
