

Spring Mills.

There has been poor catches in trout fishing.

J. O. McCormick spent Sunday with his family, on Long street.

R. G. Kennelley bought a new kit of carpenter tools; now look for some fine work.

Dr. Braucht is kept very busy looking after the sick.

Mrs. Wm. Musser and daughter returned home after a visit of several weeks in Altoona.

Smith Bros. had three funerals in one day, and five in one week. They are up to date undertakers and understand it in all its branches.

C. P. Long spent several days in Pittsburg and Steubenville, Ohio, with his brothers, G. H. and Frank Long.

The site for the new Lutheran church has been staked off and work has begun, which will be rapidly pushed forward.

The funeral of Hiram Durst on Monday was largely attended.

Candidates are getting numerous; they all claim to be the right thing, and have a good story to tell.

Frail Snyder, employed by the Laurelton Lumber Company, at Laurelton, spent Saturday and Sunday with his family.

Landlord Edwin Ruhl does not improve very rapidly; he is still confined to his room.

Mrs. Catharine Alexander, of Millheim, is at this place visiting her son, W. P. Alexander.

Quite a number of the fishermen were fishing for trout during the week, but with indifferent success.

J. C. Rowe, of Phillipsburg, Democratic candidate for the nomination for Recorder, was here during the week.

House cleaning, repairing fences and white washing are now all in order; some little garden making was done lately, but not very satisfactorily—too wet.

C. A. Krape is building quite a large living room to his residence.

The sudden death of Hiram Durst, on Friday last, cast quite a gloom over the village.

James Leitzell, one of the old veterans, has greatly improved his property by erecting a spacious and very handsome portico on the front and at end of his residence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Strohm, of Centre Hill, visited in this village Sunday.

Mr. Strohm is a candidate for county superintendent, and his qualifications for the office are unquestionable; his election by the school directors would be an excellent one.

Merchant O. T. Cornman has just received his first invoice of spring dress goods; the styles are all entirely new and novel and some are strikingly handsome.

Harry Hagan, a young gentleman who ranks high in character here, accompanied by Miss Anna, the accomplished daughter of Andrew Cornman of this place, and Miss Anna Boyer, a very fascinating young lady, of Orrville, Ohio, made a visit to Miss Carrie Spieker, at Centre Hall, Sunday evening last and were delightfully entertained.

Pat. Colt and Pat. kid in our $3.00 Blit Well shoes, Yeager & Davis.

Colyer.

Mrs. Jerry Albright and sons, Roy and Clarence, of Penn Hall, visited at the home of Henry Moyer Tuesday.

Miss Mary Taylor, daughter of Wm. Taylor, spent the past week with her uncle, Samuel Colyer, at Sun Mill.

Foster Frazier on the Sparr farm, erected a new garden fence, A. B. Lee as contractor and his employees J. H. Ishler, William Bitner and George McMinn.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayes and Mr. and Mrs. Whital, of Lemont, visited their sick mother, Mrs. O. K. Love, Sunday.

Mrs. Love is not improving.

Mrs. W. F. Rokey, Mrs. William Bitner, and Mrs. George Spangler, of Tusseyville, spent Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Levi Stump.

Misses Nannie Meiss and Ada Smith, two of Colyer's highly accomplished young ladies, spent Sunday at the home of Miss Mary Moyer.

Oliver Braud, of Penn Hall, and Miss May Krutzer, of near Potters Mills, spent Sunday at the home of J. S. Houseman.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Stump spent Sunday at Potters Mills.

Miss Cora Houz spent a day with Miss Katie Bon.

Farmers are busy plowing for their spring seeding.

The auction on Saturday evening of last week held by G. R. Meiss, was well attended, people being there from quite a distance; every thing brought fair prices.

Charles Lucas, of Centre Hill, and Miss Jennie Sweetwood, of Potters Mills, spent Saturday evening at the home of J. H. Moyer.

Horse radish, dandelion and sassafras tea is the bill of fare at Colyer.

Go to Bushman's for your fishing tackle.

Joe Lutz Tuesday went to Jersey Shore where he will be employed in a restaurant for a week. After that he will be with the Harrisons, Bellefonte, for some time.

Farmers Mills.

Harry Hagan and Clayton Stover are attending school at Spring Mills.

The Hagen carpenter gang are busy this spring and are unable to accommodate all who want their services. They are good workmen and the gang is composed of John, Harvey and William Hagan, John Lucas and Frank Walte.

Farmers are busy plowing; the spring crop will be a little late.

Mrs. Kate Grossman is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clayton Wagner, at Tusseyville.

A. B. Lee and John Runkle, of Colyer, passed through this place one day last week.

William Brown brought one of his twin babies to this place for burial.

Ed. Auman, John Bubbs, Harry Decker and two small boys, of Egg Hill, were down at the creek fishing on Saturday.

John Rishel and Al Bradford attended the carriage sale at Milesburg last week.

M. F. Homan and Harry Weaver returned from Lewistown; they expect to go back in a short time.

Arthur Homan will leave for Lewistown on Monday.

Oak Hall.

Maurice W. left for Lock Haven Saturday, where he expects to secure employment.

Miss Myrtle Barnhart, of Centre Furnace, spent Sunday with her parents.

Miss Nellie Holter, of Howard, is learning dress making with her aunt, Miss Anna Kautp.

Mrs. Charles Mayes went to Tusseyville Monday to care for her sick mother, Mrs. Oliver Love.

Miss Rosella Dale, of the Branch, spent several days with her grandmother, Mrs. Henrietta Dale.

Miss Roxie Lucas, one of Lemont's charming young ladies, spent Saturday with her friend, Mattie Klinger.

Samuel Weber, of State College, spent Sunday with his parents.

Miss Mary R. Dale, Oak Hall's best musician, is busy every day giving music lessons.

Clayton Eilers, the miller, is running the mill day and night and his team is busy delivering every day.

Edwin K. Smith left for Pittsburg Tuesday morning on a business trip to be gone several days, and while there will visit his brother-in-law, G. A. Tate.

Lindon Hall.

John Ross, Sr., who had been seriously ill, is slowly improving.

Perry Cole and two sons, Harry and Lee, spent several days in Bellefonte last week.

Benjamin Bryan, who spent the winter with Henry Zeigler's family, left recently for Clintondale, where he will spend the summer.

Bertha Gill, of Pleasant Gap, is staying at the home of Henry Zeigler.

Joseph Brooks left recently for Brooklyn, N. Y., where he expects to secure a position.

Saturday evening the friends of Mrs. Wm. Raymond gathered at her home on Main street and treated her to an agreeable surprise, putting her in mind that she had passed another milestone and also that she had a host of friends. She received many pretty and valuable presents, and the evening was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Frank Fortman was looking after his interests through here on Monday.

Dollie Loubarger, one of Oak Hall's charming young ladies, spent several days in this place recently.

Elmer Houz moved his family to Millheim Thursday last.

Mrs. Maggie Gearhart, of Pine Grove Mills, spent some time visiting her many friends in this community, before leaving for her future home in Illinois.

Mrs. Harry Ebb, of Harrisburg, is spending some time visiting friends through here.

The ball at the home of Luther Ryer passed off very pleasantly.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

June 25 the Democratic State Nominations will be made.

Democratic State Chairman Cressy gave out that the Democratic State Convention will be held on June 25, and that he expected a large convention, with plenty of candidates from which to select a candidate.

"We are prepared to take advantage of the situation if the Republicans do not nominate a ticket to meet the wishes of their rank and file," said Mr. Cressy, "and in any event we shall make a great fight and expect to win on the frightfully bad record made by the last Legislature."

Cressy will be a candidate for re-election as chairman, and says that thus far he knows of no opponent.

The Blit Well shoe for men at $2.50 is a good one, Yeager & Davis.

The home grown potato would be a novel sight in the city markets. There are thousands of bushels of potatoes stacked up in Philadelphia in the wholesale produce ware rooms, but all are in original packages and bear foreign marks.

Our Blit Well shoes for $2.50 are hand-made, Yeager & Davis.

FREE FOR TOBACCO TAGS

FROM "Star," "Horse Shoe," "Standard Navy," "Spearhead," "Drummond," "Natural Leaf," "Good Luck," "Piper," "Heldsick," "Boot Jack," "Tobby Spun Roll," "J. T.," "Old Homestead," "Master Workman," "Jolly Tar," "Sickle," "Brandywine," "Cross Bow," "Old Teach and Honey," "Razor," "E. Rice, Greenville," "Tennessee Crosbie," "Planet," "Neptune," "Old Targum," "Granger Twist," (two Granger Twist tags being equal to one of others mentioned). Red tin tags from "Tinsley's 10 oz. Natural Leaf" and W. N. Tinsley's picture tin tags, and Trade Mark stickers from "Five Brothers Pipe Smoking" Tobacco are also good for Presents;

PAPER BANDS

FLORODORA

CLEAR HAVANA FILLER

SUMATRA WRAPPER

3 FOR 10 CENTS CIGARS

TAGS AND "FLORODORA" BANDS ARE OF EQUAL VALUE AND MAY BE ASSORTED.

Our New Illustrated CATALOGUE OF PRESENTS FOR 1902

Includes many articles not shown here. It contains the most attractive List of Presents ever offered for Tags, and will be sent by mail on receipt of postage—two cents.

Our offer of Presents for Tags will expire Nov. 30th, 1902.

Write your name and address plainly on outside of package containing Tags, and forward Tags by registered mail, or express prepaid. Be sure to have your package securely wrapped, so that Tags will not be lost in transit. Send Tags and requests for Presents (also requests for catalogue) to

C. H. BROWN,
4241 Folsom Ave.,
St. Louis, Mo.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.—THE ANNUAL meeting of the stockholders of the Lewisburg & Tyrone Railroad Company will be held at the office of the Company, Room No. 208, Broad street station, Philadelphia, Pa., on Monday, May 26, 1902 at 12 o'clock P. M., for the election of President and six Directors to serve until the next year, and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

JAMES R. McCLURE,
Secretary.

LEGAL NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that the account of A. L. Newton, of the estate of Henry Rishel, will be presented to the Court for confirmation on Wednesday, April 30, 1902, and unless exceptions be filed thereto on or before the second day of the term the same will be confirmed.

M. I. GARDNER,
Belleville, Pa.,
Attorney-at-Law.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours, says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This remedy is for sale by J. F. Smith, H. F. Rossman, J. B. Fisher & Sons.

Needle and Talk.

Mrs. D. L. Bartges, the mistress of Clover Dale, Saturday had a quilting party, at which sewing and talking and eating were the chief numbers on the program. Those present were: Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. Alfred Durst, Mrs. James Moyer, Mrs. Samuel Durst, Mrs. Wm. Stover, Mrs. Lyeurgus Lingle, Mrs. David Bradford, Mrs. Maggie Harper, Mrs. G. W. Fosterman, Miss Helen Hosterman.

To Our Friends and Customers:

We have just received a full line of Spring and Summer Goods.

Our line in Ladies' and Children's Dress Goods was never more complete than now. We have Silk Chambrays and Silk Gingham, Linens and many other fancy goods. We have Men's Fancy Dress Shirts and fine Neckwear. In fact we have everything kept in a first class country store.

Come and be convinced.

H. F. ROSSMAN
Spring Mills.