House and os for Sale,

The Bitner homestead in Centre Hall is offered for sale by the owner, Rev. Robert O'boyle, in order to close out the estate. The property consists of dwelling house, outbuildings, stable and about five acres of land. The location is pleasant, and will make a splendid home. Senator Quay's friends and organs are now taking care to declare, at his instance, that no one who was responsible for the Legislature of 1901 should day. be considered in connection with a place on the Republican State ticket, and that Attorney General Elkin's connection with the Legislature as a sponsor and adviser is a fatal weakness. The correctness of this is not disputed. The Legislature of 1901 has gone into history as the worst in the annals in Pennsylvania, or of any other State, for what matter. But what degraded it? Was it the power was it not Quayism? Elkin, of course, failed in his duty, but he did so in his beginning May 12th and continuing devotion to Quay. It is significant that the counties in which conventions have not yet been held to elect delegates to the Republican State Convention are fixing the date as late as possible. Though the State convention will meet on June 11 many delegates will not be chosen until after June 1. The Philippine business is being directed as to its final outcome by the Senate committee of which Mr. Lodge is chairman and boss, acting for the administration. This committee has resolved to suppress all information that will clear the way to a better understanding of what should be done. The Democratic senators on the committee asked that Aguinaldo, Mambini, Sixto Lopez, Major Gardener and some others be summoned as witnesses. The latter is the American officer whose report was suppressed by the war department, although of the party gotten up by prominent citizens utmost importance No testimony is more important as to actual participated in by nearly the whole fonte, Rev. Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased. Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose,
