DECORATION DAY PROGRAMME.

R. U. Wasson, of Lemont. the Orator .-

Time 6 p. m R. U. Wasson, of Lemont has been selected to deliver the Memorial address at Centre Hall, at 6 o'clock p. m. Mr. Wasson is a junior at Pennsylvania State College, and is credited with being a splendid public speaker. He is a young man and will speak to the comrades of the sixties from a standpoint taken by the generation unborn at the time of the conflict.

The memorial services should be more heartily entered into by the citizens of Centre Hall and surrounding community. Memorial Day is a day set apart by the national government on which to do honor to the departed heroes, and no one should grudgingly spend a portion of that day in lingering among the burying ground of those who died for the country's good. But for the sacrifices made by the loyal arm-bearers of the sixties, the freedom enjoyed today, the high rank among United States stands today, the great American institutions of today, would Let every country loving person, young and old, lay aside business, labor, pleasure, and enter into the memorial services of 1902 with heart and soul.

Stave Mill Burned.

A large stave mill belonging to W. B. Bitner, of Spring Mills, and located about four miles south of that place, was totally destroyed by fire Wednesday night. In addition to the mill, fully two car loads of staves were burned. An insurance agent visited Mr. Bitner on Monday, but no insuring action. The loss is about $1000. Mr. Bitner has not decided whether or not he will rebuild. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Tribute to an Employee.

Last week brief mention was made in the Reporter of the death of Ambrose M. Aults, salesman for the firm of McClintock, Musser & Co., manufacturers of confectionery, at Tyrone. The following letter was sent to the customers of the firm in this place, which shows the high esteem in which the firm held their employee:

PROPRIETOR.

Chop off The "Side Issues." The old adage was "Don't put all your eggs in one basket. Andrew Carnegle has bettered it thus: "Put all your eggs in one basket and waten that basket." Sple ndid advice for you and me, farmer, merchant, anybody. That J. Plerpont Morgan can govern a multitude of railroads, finance a billion dollar steel trust, and organize the consolidation of the world's shipping interests, does not prove that YoU or I can run anything on the side, except that the present business suffers. Corcentration counts. Now this is just what we have been trying to do since 1889. The merchantic pursuit is one business and that is all we want to do. We are studying every detail in it. Pheing it in such shape so as to give you all that your dollar can possibly buy. The old story, of which we have told you frequently, counts largely in this deal. Chop off the "Side Issues."
