Officers Installed .-- Leban n N+xt Place of Meeting .- 34 New Lodges.

The Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania finished the business of the convention in session in Erie G. O. BENNER Thursday of last week and adjourned. Lebanon was chosen as the convention city for 1903.

The new grand master, Edwin L. was ratified.

The proposition for building a new Odd Fellows' temple at Philadelphia was laid over for a year. These officers were elected and installed by the Rebekah State Assembly : President, Laura V. Oakley, Allegheny ; . vice-president, W. Lucy Beech, Philadelphia; treasurer, Jane M. Lyon, Mahanoy City; secretary, N. Joslin, Philadelphia; warden, Mrs. J. J. Scanlon, Harrisburg. The work of revising the Rebekah constitution was concluded. The amendments adopted to-day provided for the repeal of the per capita tax for the support of the Old Ladies' Home and the question of increase of dues is left to the individual lodges to decide.

The Attorney General told the commissioner that the law should be enforced ; that it was made to prevent the sale of doctored meat, and the commissioner had no right to suspend its execution until the 1st of August, as he had given notice be would do. To this the commissioner replies that his department has been doing all it could, tut there is so much question as to whether certain doctoring of meat is injurious to health or not that it is next to impossible to procure convic-Mrs. Nearhood, wife of landlord tion.

This is no', of course, an answer to the complaint that the commissioner had ordered the law to be suspended for three months, and that order itself convicts the department of inefficienist, on his way home from a trip to cy, if not ignorance of the duties belonging to it. It is the business of Commissioner Cope to carry out the provisions of the law, and to prosecute The candidates for offices have about wherever he finds the law violated.

Will Fire Salutes.

Company B, N. G. P., of Bellefonte will send a detail to Centre Hall Friday morning to fire salutes over the graves of Messrs. Thomas and Murray, whose bodies rest in the cemetery in this place. On the return the guardsmen will perform a similar ceremony over the graves of Color Sergeant Charles Garis and private Stine at Pleasant Gap.

Teachers Institute.

The Centre county teachers institute, says Superintendent Gramley, will likely be held the week following the holidays, and the institute will not be held in Bellefonte unless the manager of Garman's opera house promises to close the opera house doors on specified nights.

Why not come to Centre Hall? The Grange Arcadia would be an ideal place for the institute to be held.

Caught by Shaft,

Paul Hindelong, an employe at the paper mill in Lock Haven, had a frightful experience early the other morning. He was caught by a revolving shaft and whirled round several times. All the clothing, except one shoe, was torn off his body. His right arm was fractured about five inches below the shoulder and both bones of the right fore-arm were broken. He also sustained severe bruises on the body.

Quarantine Raised.

The quarantine has been raised from the Millheim small-pox patients. Mr. Winters is pretty severely marked in the face. Mr. Houseman had a very light attack of the disease and escaped disfigurement. It has been discovered that Mrs. Winters also had small-pox total amount is supposed to be $1500. in a very light form, but the case was not reported to the board of health. The borough expended in the neighborhood of $40) to keep the disease from spreading, and was successful in accomplishing its desire.
