Condensed Bulletins. Prof. H. A. Surface, professor of zoology and chairman of the library committee of the natural history club at Pennsylvania State College, has conceived the idea to condense bulletins and put them into proper form to tendent of public schools. The other be used by newspapers throughout the state. The bulletins as they leave the various departments of the college are too lengthy to be used in newspapers, and to recast them requires more work than the average county editor is willing to perform, even if he is acquainted with the subject. If Prof. Surface's idea is put into practice, the substance of many bulletins will appear in the weekly | apers.

A Quiet Wedding Wednesday Afternoon in Centre Hall,

A quiet and unpretentious wedding took place in Centre Hall Wednesday afternoon, at 'three o'clock when W. Gross Mingle, of Bellefonte, and Miss A. Mabelle Boal were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Schuyler of the Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. G. W. Kershner of the Reformed church, at the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Boal.

The couple entered the room, which was tastefully decorated with roses. unattended and without stepping to a wedding march. The bride, dressed in white Paris muslin carrying a bouquet of white carnations, and the groom in black looked very pretty. The omission of the usual attendants and music gave the affair proper solemnity, yet on the faces of the young couple could be read inward happiness.

The bride and groom scarcely need an introduction. The bride has hosts of friends on both sides of the county, and the groom through his business association and social qualities is well known throughout the county.

After the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Mingle drove to Zion, where they boarded a train for the east. They will be at home at the Brockerhoff house after July 1.

The guests out of town were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mingle, and Misses Mingle, Bellefonte; Gross Yearick, Mrs. J. Emory Hoy, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Runkle, Pittsburg; Mrs. Agnes Spangler and grand daughter Ruth Barber, Joliet, Ill.; Mrs. C. H. Meyer and daughter, Millersburg. The bride's sisters and their families and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. The teachers elected were as follows: Grammar, James B. Strohm; Secondary, F. A. Foreman; Primary, Miss Anna Bartholomew. The salaries fixed were the same as heretofore-$35,-00, $32 00 and $32 00. Per Month.

DOUBLE-BREASTED SACK

A more popular style this season than ever for summer and onting wear. Made by hand; permanent shape; exclusive fabrics.

FOR the Double-Breasted Sack Suit [Coat and Trousers] the principal fabrics used are fancy flanuels, genuine homespuns, wool crashes, striped serge, blue, black or Oxford homespuns, serge or unfinished worsted. Many of the fancy cloths are confined patterns shown by us exclusively.

These suits are made up for us. The taste with which all the findings are matched and selected, the perfect harmony between the suiting, the linings, buttons and trimmings, make every garment an artistic creation and shows what care and thought we expend on even the smallest details of workmanship.

Beyond all this are the practical advantages of the clothes—their fit and durability. The permanent shape worked into every garment as it is tailored and the encouraging thought that at last you can sell your customer a thin suit that does not hang upon him like a rag; but instead carn his gratitude by making it possible for him to be at once cool and well dressed during the
