THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The Pittsburg Dispatch, Republican

The nomination of Guthrie as Lieutenant Governor is at once an attempt to honor an eminent candidate and to strengthen the ticket in Allegheny county. It establishes a strong contrast to the Republican nomination for the same position. It may be doubted, however, whether it will accomplish its purpose. It is hardly likely to enthuse Mr. Guthrie's friends leading position on the ticket is deagainst his desire.

It is to be conceded, however, that in this respect, as well as in the nomination for Secretary of Internal Affairs, the Democratic candidates measure far above the Republican ticket. Mr. Nolan of Berks, is not very widely known, but he has no such blot on the Republican papers are doing. He his record as that which the Supreme Court fixed upon the Republican nominee.

The platform is one of the strongest pare its bitter arraignment of the Republican machine in Pennsylvania with the actual facts will find that its charges are unfortunately true. It is in the existence of such conditions that the wish of the independent element was founded for a ticket that would unite and strengthen all factors of opposition.

The Republican papers throughout the speak so well of the Democratic state ticket and the Democratic platform that it makes the average Democrat feel a bit uncomfortable. Pattison is clean and the platform upon which he stands is a complete representation of Democratic ideas of state government, and it appears Republican organs are for once giving an honest expression.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM. In the construction of its platform, the Democratic State convention showed rare good sense. This declaration of principles covers State issues exclusively. It recites and condemns the dishonesty and profligacy of the present State government, the shameless traffic in the votes of legislators, the carnival of corruption and bribery incident to the last election of a United States Senator, the wholesale theft of of railway franchises and all the other well-known disorders fostered under the domination of the Republican machine. It pledges the Democratic party to banish lobbyists, vote brokers, bribe givers and talkers and corruptionists generally, it guarantees to corporations exemption from "pinch legislation" and political blackmail, and it promises to the people of the State "equal and just laws; pure, honest and economical administration, and an invitation to public positions of pure, honorable, upright and able men, to take the places of the scurvy politicians who now disgrace them." It denounces the treason of the Republican party to its pledge of ballot reform, and declares for the enactment of a uniform primary election law, for personal registration and for a free, equal and secret ballot.

The platform builders have certainly done their work well. They have given to the people a confession of faith U. of the Presbyterian church, at Tato which no honest citizen can refuse coma, Wash., July 23 to 27, the Pennto subscribe and in which even the most hidebound partisan on the other side can find nothing which could be all stations on its lines, from July 10 used to stir the fires of partisan jeal- to July 20, inclusive, at greatly reducousy and rancor. CURRENT COMMENT

Brief Discussion of Political and Other Matters of Public Interest.

As was anticipated, the Democratic State Convention at Eric nominated Robert E Pattison for Governor. Mr. Pattison has already served twice in that office. His private character is beyond reproach, says the Pittsburg Gezette Republican, and in his public career he has always shown a high, if sometimes mistaken, integrity. He is a Democrat to the backbane, and if elected, he could be depended upon to use his power to the utmost for the advaucement of his party's interests.

An Executive proclamation from Washington has been regarded as essential to a due public appreciation of the fact that the forthcoming World's Fair at St. Louis has been again postponed-this time until the summer of 1904. The promoters and managers of this enterprise have been amply supp'ied with funds from the outset, but for all that they could not buy structural steel any faster than the overdriven mills could supply it. The era of prosperity has operated as a wet blanket to chill the ardor of Exposition boomers, great and small. It has proved difficult and practically impossible to exemplify at St. Louis the feverish and hurculean energy illustrated in the creation of the Chicago der and fire crackers. The uprising for Pattison's nomination throughout Pennsylvania is shown by the fact that his votes in the Erie convention came from 60 to 67 counties of Pennsylvania, and all the counties united in making the nomination unanimous. The idea spread like wildfire. It became a great popular impulse without organization, but springing spontaneously from the people. It is absurd to talk of Mr Guffey nominating or dictating the numination of Pattison, as some of would have been nominated in any event, because the people were for him.
