THURSDAY, JUY! 10, 1902.

* Everybody's Shoes Are Here . . . .

Every kind of Boot and Shoe for everybody-men, women, children and the babies, and for every business, every dress and every sport and pastime use. Whether you walk or ride play golf or ball, whether you fish or bunt, dance or go a-bicycling, or whether you like to be dressed up and keep so, we have Shoes for all these uses and for all these purposes.

Our Boots and Shoes are the very best, and our prices the very least.

Agent for W. L. Douglas' $3 00 and $3 50 Shoe for Men, and Queen Quality the famous $3 00 Shoe for Women.

If you want correct Footwear, come to her dquarters for it.

Mingle's Shoe store, BELLEFONTE, PA.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS. Lutheran-Union, morning; Georges Valley, frem on; Centre Hall, evening.

.......................

Reformed-Centre Hall, C. E. Anniversary, evening: Union, afternoon; Spring Mills morning. Presby Merian-Centre Hall, 10:20 s.m Spring Mills 2:10 p.m. Methodist-Centre Hall, 10:30 a. w.; Spruce-town, 2:30 p. m.; Spring Mills, 7:30 p. m.

Sweeping Before Their Doors, The ministers of Bellefonte have passed a resolution asking Bellefonte merchants to quit Sunday selling.

Married at Centre Hall,

J. Fred Herman and Miss Ella E. Miller, both of Bellefonte, were married at the Evangelical parsonage by man is a son of Jacob Herman, of Lemont. The young couple will live in Hall and the Branch, are unsupplied. Bellefonte.

The Fourth.

The greatest national holiday was quietly spent by citizens of Centre K. Mothersbaugh; Oak Hall grammar, Hall. There was the usual thunder of Edward Williams; Oak Hall primary, the anvil, the fussy nickle "cracker," and the squib to annoy the very patri- all, as there were no applicants for otic who each recurring Fourth read Dale's or Pleasant View. the Declaration of Independence.

A Sneak Thief.

of Rev. Dr. Hepler, pastor of the Pres- to A. E. Kerlin. Mr. Kerlin, so rumor byterian church at Lemont, Sunday says, will erect a dwelling house on night a week, and stole his pocket the site, and will also build large pens book which was lying on a table in and engage in poultry raising. He is the dining room. The purse contain- well acquainted with the product of ed about fifteen dollars in cash, a the hen, and there is no reason why check, etc.

Horse Thief Captured.

About the middle of June mention was made of a horse and buggy being stolen from Miss Carrie Holt, of Roland. Edward Walker was arrested at Mill Hall for the theft, and after being placed in jail at Bellefonte confessed to the Pennsylvania railroad expired, having committed the crime. Walker and the Postal Telegraph company stated that the horse was at Brookville. Miss Holt went to that place to recover the animal.

Broke His Arm.

A young son of A. H. Weaver, east of Centre Hall, had the misfortune to break his arm Friday, June 27. The lad, who is about twelve years of age, was leading a horse to water when the animal made a quick turn and threw the boy to the ground. The arm was dislocated at the wrist and the radius crying and said, "I want to go to broken. Dr. Emerick reduced the fracture.

The Jackson.

Persons from this section going to Atlantic City will find "The Jackson" at the foot of Virginia Avenue, beech front, one of the prettiest and best located hotels in the city. Wm. Whitney is manager of this popular hotel, and this fact alone is a guarantee that all guests will receive the best treatment. Mr. Whitney was for a long time connected with the Bingham house, Philadelphia, where, in fact, he proved the drawing card of the house.

Short in Accounts.

creek from Philipsburg, is short in his son, State College. accounts with the government about $1,000. Postoffice Inspector James H. Warde, of Altoona, who spent Tuesday and Wednesday making an inspection made known the condition of July 15 to 22, the Pennsylvania Rail-Mr. Adam's accounts a day later. The road Company will send excursion Wigton postoffice was established in tickets to Denver, Colorado Springs, 1892, and Mr. Adams has been post- or Pueblo, Col., from all stations on master ever since. The receipts have its lines, at rate of single fare for the only averaged about $300 a year, and round trip. Tickets will be sold and the shortage, it is claimed by Mr. good going on July 10 to 12, inclusive, Adams, who freely confesses to hav- and will be good to return leaving ing used the money, was spent in his Denver, Colorado Springs, or Pueblo living expenses. The money appro- not later than August 31. Tickets priated was taken from the money or- must be validated for return passage day. Dr. Musser and Mr. Yearick, are der funds and post office receipts. Mr. by Joint Agent at any of the above close personal friends, and alvays Adams has turned over his property mentioned points, for which service a make it a point to entertain each other and a little store to his bondsmen, fee of 25 cants must be charged. who will have to make the shortage | For specific rates and conditions, good.

A Profitable Mine.

The "Blue Jacket Mining and Milling Company" is the official corporation name under which a profitable Hecla, Tuesday, the engine was James W. Boal, died at the home of zinc mine in Missouri is being operat- thrown off the track and the engineer, her parents in Port Carbon, Monday ed by Messrs. R. F. Hunter, F. H. Al. Krape, of this place, was burt night. Interment will take place in Thomas, C. M. Parrish, Dr. J. E. somewhat. It is the intention to colm Laurie, J. C. Meyer, Esq, of Bellefonte; Robert Frazier, of Philadelphis; Profs. L. E. Reber, Price Jackson and F. E. Foss, State College. Messrs. Hunter and Thomas are president and secretary, respectively, of the corporation. The mine is located at Granby, and has proven profitable, the shipments being about forty tons of milled ore per week, which is valued at $25 00 per ton. The capitalization of the corporation is $30,000, and on August first the first dividend will be paid. The business is conducted from the Bellefonte office.

Principal Elected.

Merrill Allison has been selected principal of the Centre Hall High School. The election to confirm this act will take place Tuesday of next week, when a special meeting of the school board will be held for that purpose, and also to hear representatives of the various book companies bring out the merits of their particular books. Mr. Allison is a graduate of Buckand instructor. Last year Mr. Allison taught the High School at Alexandria, and would have been reelected to that position on Monday evening, but for the informal action of the Centre Hall school board the latter part of last

Public School Teachers.

Ferguson: Pine Grove high school, of Franklin and Marshall College; grammar school, William Keller; prigrammar school, M. E. Heberling; primary, Maude Irvin; Gatesburg, Catharine Bollinger; Marengo, Nancy Heberling; Glades, Nora Goheen; Oak Grove, Earl Musser; Fairbrook, A. L. Bowersox: Centre, Margaret Keich-Rev. J. F. Shultz, July 3rd. Mr. Her- line; Kepler, John Dunlap; Krumrine, N. M. Hartswick. Two schools, Pine

College: Lemont grammar, Andrew Gregg; primary, Orin Grove; Houserville, E. K. Smith; Centre Furnace, Miss Sophia Thompson; Branch, D. G. W. R. Williams; but could not elect

Lots Sold. J. D. Murray sold the last parcel of A sneak thief entered the residence lots that once comprised his little farm

the poultry business should not prove profitable under his management.

Western Union Out. A special train passed over the L. and T. Sunday about noon to establish Postal Telegraph offices along the line. The Western Union contracts with succeeds them. The work of establishing offices was done on Sunday, in order to prevent the Western Union #### from serving an injunction. Fled From Thunderbolt.

While O. S. Howe was returning home with his little daughter from work in a field recently near Selinsgrove a thunder storm came up and the two sought refuge under a tree. After a minute's wait the child began mamma." She ran for home and the father started after her and when both were not more than thirty feet from the tree a bolt of lightning shattered it, some of the broken limbs falling near them as they ran.

Normal Graduates.

The following young persons from this county graduated at the Lock Haven Normal: Daisy I. Barnes, Bellefonte; Elizabeth Barr, Snow Shor, Alfred E. Bowersox, Rock Springs; Bertha Omega Duck, Spring Mills; Sallie C. Firzgerald, Bellefonte; Helen Harper, Bellefonte; August S. Kech, Snow Shoe; Jennie M. Lucas, Moshaunon; Madge Audray Orris, Milesburg; Flora A Penny, Snow Shoe; Maude Postmaster M. S. Adams at Wigton, A. Rankin, Moshannon; Lillian A. Chester Hill borough, just across the Reese, Philipsburg; Sophia H. Thomp-

Reduced Rates to Denver,

On account of the Biennial Meeting, A. O. H., to be held at Denver, Col.,

apply to ticket agents.

Al. Krape liurt.

While shifting an engine at the lumber operations of McNitt & Co., at Ward, Ellis L. Orvis, Esq , J. Mal-bring Mr. Krape to his home Friday.

LIST CORRECTIONS.

The Reporter's subscription list was corrected this week. Those who made payment since last notice will please observe whether proper credit has been giv-

The Reporter is grateful for the liberal amount of subscriptions paid during June and the beginning of July, and kindly asks every reader who does not know how his account stands to examine the label on this issue.

Special School Meeting.

The Centre Hall school board will hold a special meeting, in the public school building, Tuesday evening, July 14, 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of electing a principal, and to hear representatives of book companies who may desire to attend.

D. A. BOOZER, President. S. W. SMITH, Secretary.

Mutes Graduate.

Messrs, Melvin H. Wheeler and Homer C. Wheeler, of Peterborough, N. H.; Robert R. Pollak, of Alabama, and Tileston Chickering, of Milton, Mass., morals and a good record as student mathematical department, shaved his many years ago. beard so that the four pupils might better read his lips. The quartette are planning to become civil engineers.

Snaker.

Louis Sunday killed a rattle snake Sunday that measured three feet six inches in length, and carried nine rattles. The skin of the reptile attracted considerable attention when displayed Prof. Zook, of Lancaster, a graduate in the Reporter windows. The average man seeing such a snake alive would have sworn it to have been fifty mary, Alice Robinson; Baileyville feet long, but Mr. Sunday killed and skinned the "baste," so it could be correctly measured.

Guy Jacobs killed a copper head that measured two and one-half feet.

Marriage Licenses.

David A. Allen, Howard. Lucretia Roberts, Bellefonte. William Solt, Fleming. Esther Biddle, Fleming. George B. Morrison, Fleming. Mabella M. Shires, Lock Haven. George Dunlap, Clearfield. Elsie Poorman.

William G. Housel, Bellefonte. Debra M. Long. William Calhoun, So. Philipsburg. Mary Lauver, South Philipsburg. George B. Thompson, Lemont. Magdaline Calloway, Bellefonte. Harry J. Houser, Spring Mills. Lizzie Kennely, Spring Mills. George S. Fisher, Nittany.

Mary E. Gunsalius, Nittany. Charles M. Stover, Howard. Martha E. Wyble, Howard. J. F. Herman, Lemont. Sallie E. Miller, Bellefonte. Marvin M. Marty, North Craspaburg, Vt. Mamie L. DeLong, Romola Harvy F. Snyder, Coburn. Mable C. Hosterman, Coburn. James Miller, Bellefonte. Edith Brown, Hagerstown, M.I. Foster W. Young, Bellefonte. Sadie. E. Dunkle, Bellefoute. C. D. Johnston, Blanchard.

Blanch E. Schenk, Blanchard. Thomas E. Edgar, Blue Ball. Susan Walk, Blue Ball. John D. Conway, Fall Point May Hollinshead, Fall Point, James Clark, Philipsburg. Elizabeth Ferguson, Philipsburg.

Grain cutting has commenced in this neighborhood.

LOCALS.

The furniture store of J. H. Krumbine was repainted, which greatly adds to its appearance.

It was incorrectly reported that Miss Freda Hess and Walter Barr, of Linden Hall, were secretly married.

General Daniel Heckman, of Loganresulted in the brute severely lacerating his arm.

Mrs. W. H. Schuyler returned home months with friends in Clinton and Binghamton, New York.

are wanted at the Bush House, Belle- and Lewistown turnpike from the fonte, at very good wages. Experience | Centre county line to a point where is not necessary.

speech said the trusts mus; be checked, but he permitted congress to keep in repair, at the county's expense, adjourn without notifying that body roads passing through unseated lands. of his wishes. Roosevelt is beginning This particular piece of road is not beto talk to the gallery.

Newton Bitner, station agent at Pine, Lycoming county, has the bearing of a railroad magnate. He is a graduate of Paddy Mountain College Ecgs .. of Telegraphy, which institution has sent out many first-class operators, and keeps the Pine station in the pink of condition. He credits Potter wwp. with being his birth place.

Dr. C. S. Musser, of Aaronsbarg, was the guest of Gross Yearick, o Philadelphia, at the bome of W. B. Mingle, Esq., in this place, Wed neswhen in the same locality. Both gentlemen called at the Reporter office, and a p'easant call it was.

DEATHS. MISS ANNA BOAL.

Miss Anna Boal, daughter of Rev. Bellefonte this, Thursday, afternoon, the body and friends passing through Centre Hall on the west bound train at 3;30. Miss Boal hås been a sufferer from consumption for about a year, having contracted the disease while teaching in the south.

Miss Boal is well known in this place, having lived here for a year, about five years ago.

Thomas Longee died Sunday night at his home at Howard aged 70 years. Mrs. Thomas Kessinger, of Lewistown; Charles, in the Philippine Island; George, Curt, Joseph and Miss Maud, at home, are survivors.

W. Frank Bottorff, who was a native of Hublersburg, this county, died at his home in Lock Haven on Friday, July 4th, aged 37 years.

ELIAS KLINGLER.

Elias Klingler, aged about eighty years, died at his home in Manhattan, Illinois, June 25th, after an illness of over a month, from paralysis. He was all mutes, graduated from Harvard in his younger days a resident of Snynell, '01, and is a young man of good college. Prof. James Love, of the der county, but removed to Illinois

LOCALS.

W. H. Keller, son of P. F. Keller, of Munson Station; was in town last

The Sprucetown Sunday school will hold a festival, August 16, afternoon and evening. J. K. Montelius and wife, of Piper

City, Illinois, and Harry A. Gast and wife, of Mifflinburg, registered at the Centre Hall hotel last week. Messrs. Reamer and Cook, conductors on the L. and T., are off on a vacation. Messrs. DeVictor and Beachler are acting in their respective places. The Bellefonte Daily News, under its new editor, Col. John C. Miller, is as good as any of Barker's January editions, besides it furnishes several pages of news.

Clement F. Deininger is in town for the week. He holds a clerkship with the Westinghouse company, in Pittsburg. Saturday and Sunday were spent in Bellefonte by Mr. Deininger. Wanted-A girl for general housework in a small family in Pittsburg. Must be a good cook and laundress. Wages $4 00 a week. This offer should be inquired into. Apply at this office. Dr. J. F. Alexander Tuesday returned from York, having gone there several days previous to sell his pacing horse. The deed was done, and at a principal of the Milesburg schools. figure-$187.00-quite satisfactory to

Why not have your name placed on the subscription list of the Reporter? If the reader of this notice is already a Reporter is anxious to thank him for ed. becoming one.

During a hose carriage race at Muncy on the Fourth, Frederick Creigher, of South Williamsport, fell and the hose cart ran over him, breaking three ribs and injuring him internally. He is not expected to live.

Mrs. Mame Slaughenhaup, of Harrisburg, in company with her brother, Elmer Hettinger, of Centre Hill, were callers the other day. Mrs. Slaughenhaup's husband is proprietor of the Eagle house, a popular Harrisburg botel on 7th and Boast streets, where visitors to the state capitol from Penns Valley will be royally entertained if they become patrons of the house.

Bigler Shaffer, of near this place, received a severe cut on the right leg on Monday. He was repairing a binder, and in order to do so the tongue of the machine was proped up, and while enengaged leaving the guards quickly de- ter. scend. In their motion the sharp point of one of the guards struck Mr. Shaffer, ton, had an encounter with a sow that cutting a gash in his leg, necessitating several stitches on the part of Dr. Lee to properly dress the wound. Porter Odenkirk watched this bit of surlast Saturday, after a visit of two gery and pronounced the work correct.

The commissioners of Mifflin county have relieved Brown township of WANTED-Two dining room girls the expense of repairing the Bellefonte the turnpike passes by improved land. President Roosevelt in his Pittaburg It appears that a state law imposes an obligation on county commissioners to ing Macadamized, however, as is vouched for by those who pass over it.

SPRING MILLS-O. T. CORMAN. (In exchange for goods. Cash also paid.)

.... 17 | Side ....

	Butter	0 32 1
ä	GRAIN MARKET.
	Wheat	ないののから
	PRODUCE AT STORES.
	FigsLard	Shed had been

Dorothy Dodd.

THE STAR STORE.

ESTABLISHED 1889.

PROPRIETOR.

. . . . . . BEING ONE'S OWN COMPETITOR.

There is a time-honored joke telling of the man who took the exortations of an auctioneer so salionsly that, though the only bidder, he bid against himself and thus paid more than he need We do a lot of "bidding against cursa'vas," but our purbose is perhaps more selfish and our reason rather less simple than that of the but of the above joke."

BECAUSE price pulls for us as nothing elss will—BECAUSE it is almost the only weapon in our arsenal.—We habitually chop prices when we can unstead of waiting until we mist.

We claim no credit for so doing—except the credit of being shrewd enough to know on which side your bread is buttered.

READ CAREFULLY THE FOLLOWING. Flour of sulphur per lb. 5c.
Caustic seda 2 lb. 10e.
Needles 25 in pack 1e
Ladies gauze vests 6c.
Calledes per yd. 5c.
Cicking per yd. 10c.
Unbleached muslin 5c.
Bleached muslin 6c.
Mens' dress shoe 31.25.
Ladies Oxfords 80°.
Enterprise wringer $2.00. Rice bc.
4 pounds prunes 15c.
Good broom 20c.
10-lb pail mackerel $1 07.
Apple butter per gal, 50c.
Table syrup per gal, 25c.
N. O. molasses per qt. 12c.
Goose matches 1 doz, boxes 10c.
Paset tarloca per lb. 5c.

Oil stove, ringte $1 00. Oil stove, double $1.75 Roofing paper 2 ply 75c.
Roofing paper 3 ply $1.00.
Lightning freezer 4 pt. $2.25.
Lightning freezer 6 qt. $2.75.
Collar pads 25c.
18-inch hand saw 25c. Harpoon $1.00.

BINDER TWINE, CASH PRICE, 12 CTS. PER LB.

Our stock full of following—price right. Burban't smooth wire, steeples, washing machines, wall platter, coment, plastering hair, go lo bucket pumps, chain pumps, supplies for pumps, Lane wagon jack, track and wheels for doors, la vu mowers stythes and suaths, glass, fiv screens; screens for doors, clockes baskets, floor and table oil cloth, ½ bu, and peck measures, picks and mattocks, axes, cow chains, trace chains, poultry netting, lubricating oil, etc., etc.

THE STAR.

Bargains . . .

G. O. BENNER

lugars, price low.

Pearl tapioca per lb. 5c

Bargains... Bargains..

Bargains in Ladies' Belts, Shirt Waists, Men's Fancy Shirts-your choice for 50 cents. .

Dress Trimmings, Laces, Embroideries.

A very beautiful assortment of Apliques, Neekwear, Carpets. Best 5-Cent Calico in the market. Produce of all kinds wanted. Your patronage is solicited.

000000000000

C. P. Long's Store

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Beck, of Penn Hall, had business in sufficiently to resume work. Centre Hall last week.

Elmer Royer lost a cable chain be- tract to peel a large amount of bark for subscriber, thanks; if he is not, the be will be thankful for if it is return- Ed. Sweetwood and S. H. Runkle are cipal of the Stroudsburg Normal the wound, and with the aid of crutch-School to succeed Prof. George P. es, William is able to travel over town, was a caller the other day, and report- arrived in Centre Hall last week, this lected in Potter township. ago, is booked for a visit to Penns Val- dead husband.

Miss N. Sallie Cummings, daughter ly graced by the presence of Mrs. of Mrs. John Cummings, of near Lin- King, of this place, and Mrs. Morris den Hall, is a student at a commercial Furey, of Bellefonte, and the latter's college in Wilkesbarre, and while there grandchildren, Margaret and Louise will be informed of the happenings in Karstetter, of Reynoldsville. Mrs. gaged at the work the prop became dis- Centre county by reading the Repor- Furey and her daughter, Mrs. S. W.

Keller, of Linden Hall, were in Centre on this occasion that the ladies did the Hall last week, and did not forget to honor referred to. call at this office. Harry is a bright lad, and son of Mrs. J. W. Keller, whose business qualifications would Fertilizers and Lime. cram the head of the average country Their Proper Use.

Mrs. Lucy Henney, who for many years has been conducting a millinery establishment in this place, has been in Pittsburg the past week, where her son, Wilbur A. Henney is employed commercial fertilizers is ofttimes deat present. It is stated that Wilbur stroyed by an improper use of it. For may return to Centre Hall in the fal'. He is a fine young mechanic.

Mrs. Agnes Spangler and granddaughter Miss Ruth Barber, of Joliet, Illinois, and Mrs. C. D. Runkle, of Pittsburg, last week returned to Pittsburg after visiting in Centre Hall and surrounding country. The ladies are sisters of Mrs. George M. Boal, of this place, where they spent the greater part of their time.

Isaac Long, of Madisonburg, was in Centre Hall the other day on business, phosphoric acid-South Carolina rock and called at this office. Mr. Long is -is found when applied to soil where one of the kind of fathers who looks lime had been previously used and it after the pleasure of his children, and force spent on the soil. on the day he was in Centre Hall he Try the grades of phosphate sold by sent his sons to Millheim with his D. W. Bradford, and you will be conhorses, while he footed it to this place. vinced that commercial fertilizers, if Of course, Mr. Long would not tolerate properly applied, will pay on the best such indulgence to abuse, but he was soils as well as on the poor. very willing that the boys should not miss their trip on his account.

Dorothy Dodd.

Prof. James Gregg was re-elected Wm. McKinney, Jr., of Potters Mills who seve Messrs. Frank Emerick and James foot while peeling bark, has recovered tween his place and the Old Fort, that the Richley's in the Seven Mountains. assisting to perform the work. Dr. W. E. Park presented Centre Wm. Bressler, Wednesday of last

Robert Sweetwood has taken a con-

Hall with a new dog-a grey hound, week, while peeling bark in Stone He's friendly to all, and is everybody's Creek Gap, in the Seven Mountains, had the misfortune to cut a deep gash Prof. E. L. Kemp was elected prin- in the right foot. Dr. Park dressed

Mrs. Sweeney, wife of John Sweeny, Tax collector Alfred P. Hosterman deceased, of Mountain City, Kansas, ed that the taxes were fairly well col- being her first trip east. She is dividing her time between the homes of Milton Sweeney, of Kansas City, son Mr. and Mrs. George Sweeney, near of George Sweeney, of near this place, this place, George Rowe, of near Potwho went west twelve or fifteen years ters Mills, and other relatives of her

The Reporter's sanctum was recent-Karstetter, drove to Centre Hall to George Swabb and Master Harry pay a visit to Mrs. King, and it was

There is no occupation, trade or profession in which higher education-in a general way-could be used than by the farmer. Much of the value of instance, the agriculturalist who has a lime pit on his farm frequently mixes a quantity of the caustic lime with a commercial fertilizer that contains ammonia and phosphoric acid, imagines that he has improved the mixture. The result is quite the contrary. If lime is mixed with fertilizers containing soluble phosphoric acid, the lime and soluble phosphoric acid will again unite and become insoluble -- unavailable-in fact, useless.

The highest results from the use of Dorothy Dodd.

Dorothy Dodd.