THE COUNTY TICKET.

- For Assembly: J. W. KEPLER, of Ferguson Twp. J. H. WETZEL, of Bellefonte.

The "Press" takes the Democrats of McKean county, Chairman Cressy and Hon. L. Rhone to task for complaining that "the farmers and home owners of Pennsylvania pay $16.50 in taxes for each $1000 in value while the steam railroads pay but $2.75.

But the "Press" misses the point in controversy. The farmers and home owners complain that they are taxed to the extent of six times the tax levied upon railroad property of like value.

The Republican candidates of Centre county met in Bellefonte Monday. The expression on this side of the county is that none of the Republican candidates will be able to poll more than the regular vote.

A new phase of Sabbath desecration is attracting the attention of some of the Methodist clergy.

It is greatly to be deprecated that some of our political leaders seem to have no regard for the Sabbath; that Senator Platt, of New York, should gather his political lieutenants together at Manhattan Beach, and that Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, whom Mr. Pennypacker declares is a greater man than Clay or Webster, should gather his faction on Sunday at Atlantic City.

The Pittsburg Post says editorially: The Democrats are making strong senatorial nominations in the few districts in the State allowed them.

and his legislative experience will make him an important and valuable addition to the next Senate.

Under the new Alabama constitution the registration just completed shows a pretty thorough obliteration of the negro vote, without disfranchising the whites.

The United States geological survey has issued its annual report on the mineral products of the country for the year 1901.

The two great Pennsylvania products and utilities, coal and pig iron, head the list. Coal is king, the total product being valued at $348,700,000.

There are 56 minerals, metallic and non-metallic, which are included in the products of the country in this geological report.
