Reformed—Centre Hall, 19 a. m.; Tusseyville, 2:30 p. m.

Lutheran—Georges Valley, morning; Union, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening.

Evangelical—Bash meeting at Egg Hill; three services.

Presbyterian—Centre Hall, 2:30 p. m.; Spring Mills, 10:30 a. m.

Methodist—Sprucetown, morning; Centre Hall, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening.

Register.

September 2 is the last day for voters to register. See to it that your name is on the register's list.

Evangelical Picnic.

The second annual picnic of the United Evangelical circuit was held Saturday on Grange Park. The attendance was up to the expectations of those at the head of the church.

Shipped Car Load of Apples.

The Centre Hall Evaporating Company Tuesday of this week shipped a car load of hand-picked fall apples. Before the formation of this company fall apples were either reduced to cider or left to rot on the trees.

Keiths.

"Billies First Love," is the title of a comedy replete with ludicrous situation and bright lines. Miss Valerie Bergere is the chief actress, in fact, she is the thing and not the play.

Farmers Institute.

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Martin is making preparations to hold the various Farmers Institutes throughout the State next winter.

Robert S. Seeds, of Birmingham, will again have charge of the second section, which will be composed of Indiana, Cambria, Clearfield, Fulton, Blair, Somerset, Huntingdon, Centre, Clinton, Mifflin, Juniata, Snyder, Union and Northumberland counties.

Reduced Rates to Williamsport.

On account of the meeting of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, at Williamsport, Pa., September 1, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Williamsport and return, good going and returning on that date only, from Tyrone, Scotia, and points on the Scotia Branch, Clearfield, McCartney, Snow Shoe, Emporium, Bellefonte, and points on the Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad, East Bloomsburg, Elmira, Mt. Carmel and intermediate points, at rate of single fare for the round trip (minimum rate, 25 cents.)

After Postmasters.

The postoffice department is after fourth class and presidential postmasters, hundreds of whom have been defrauding the government. It is done this way: The plan to defraud is simple. Presidential postmasters are dependent upon their receipts for their income, while fourth class postmasters are paid according to the number of stamp cancellations.

The Reporter's subscription list will be corrected next week. If you want your label advanced, don't be afraid to cause us that much additional labor.

Marriage Licenses.

F. Alexander Carson, Potters Mills. K. Aileen Wilkinson, Potters Mills. Albert Dean, Hecla. Leah Colyer, Hecla. Daniel J. Beck, Loveville. Sarah Heberling, Penn'a Furnace. Edgar L. Morrison, Blanchard. Alice A. Kunes, Blanchard. Wm. H. Hunsinger, Atlantic City. Caroline E. Witmer, Fillmore. George P. Miller, Pleasant Gap. Jennie R. Noll, Pleasant Gap.

Vaccinate the Children.

Many school boards throughout the state will enforce the law relative to vaccination of school children. The law is appended.

"All principals or other persons in charge of public, private, parochial, Sunday school or other schools, are hereby required to refuse the admission of any child to the schools under their charge or supervision, except upon a certificate signed by a physician setting forth that such child has been successfully vaccinated, or that it has previously had small-pox."

Republicans Nominate Dresser.

The Republican Congressional Conference at DuBois, which was held Thursday, of last week, was short and decisive, the result being the nomination of S. R. Dresser, Esq., of McKean county, by acclamation. Four candidates were presented: Dr. M. J. Locke, of Centre; Hon. W. C. Arnold, of Clearfield; Capt. C. F. Barclay, of Cameron; S. R. Dresser, Esq., of McKean.

Twenty ballots were taken, when a motion was made to unanimously nominate Mr. Dresser.

Farm Talk.

This is some of the talk about farm crops:

Louis Rossman, of near Penns Cave, threshed one hundred and fourteen bushels of wheat from one load of oats.

Audy Long, south of the Old Fort, claims to have the best crop of oats in these diggings. It is a field of 12 or 15 acres.

John Kline, west of Centre Hall, has an oats stalk of fourteen stems, on which there are 218 grains.

John Arney threshed three hundred and two bushels of wheat from fourteen acres.

Enters the One Cent Field.

The Philadelphia Daily Press announces its change in price from a two cent to a one cent paper.

With nothing changed except the price, The Press, at one cent, will continue to be the great home newspaper, but with a new field of activity. Its news pages, its departments will represent trained efficiency, and its supremacy will be, as before, along the lines that have given it weight and authority, place and prominence at home and at large.

Democratic Conference at Du Bois.

Thursday of last week the Democrats of the Twenty-first congressional district, consisting of Centre, Clearfield, Cameron and McKean counties, met in conference at DuBois, and D. E. Hibner, Esq., of DuBois, was unanimously chosen as the candidate for Congress from that district. Timothy Costello, of Bradford, was elected chairman of the conference, and W. Harrison Walker, Esq., of Bellefonte, and C. H. Shaffer, of Smethport, secretaries. Mr. Hibner made a good speech, accepting the nomination. Speeches were also made by Hon. D. L. Krebs, Hon. James Kerr, Hon. W. C. Heinle, W. Harrison Walker, Esq., C. H. Shaffer, Mr. Brownell, of Bedford, and others.

The conferees from Centre county were: John T. Todd, Phillipsburg, W. Harrison Walker and J. K. Johnston, of Bellefonte.

LOCALS.

Rufus Lee, of Millinburg, spent Sunday at Linden Hall.

Irvin Stover, of Pittsburg, is at his old home at Centre Hill, enjoying the scenes of his youth. Mr. Stover is employed with the American Bridge Company, being a steel-structural workman. He will return to Pittsburg Monday.

The Potter township school board was unable to adopt books at its meeting last Friday. The board was divided in its judgment. W. A. Snyder, the representative of Silver, Burdette & Co., was given an order for a number of large reading charts. Their action on this point was unanimous.

J. S. Rowe, the local agent for the Kinnear manufacturing company, of Warran, Pa., manufacturers of the Martindale Automatic acetylene gas generator, has the contract to pipe the Reformed church at Boalsburg, which is to be lighted with acetylene. Mr. Rowe is also figuring with a number of private individuals, who are thinking of putting that kind of light in their dwellings.

Will be in Town Friday.

Photographer Smith will be in Centre Hall Friday. Come to his studio if you want first-class work at a reasonable figure.

LITTLE CHILD KILLED.

16-Months Old Child of Clyde Smith, of Boalsburg, Instantly Killed.

Saturday forenoon the 16-months old son of Clyde Smith, who works for Frank McFarlane and lives in his tenement house, just east of Boalsburg, was killed in a peculiar manner. Mr. Smith with his wife and son were going out for a load of hay, when the boy fell through the ladders and struck his head on a stone cutting a gash through his skull and causing instant death. His remains were buried in the Boalsburg cemetery, Monday forenoon.

Rev. Hepler, of Lemont, conducted the funeral services. Four little boys, Laird Osman, Fred Weber, Oscar Riebel and Daniel Mothersbaugh, acted as pall-bearers.

Short-Horn Bull Calves.

John G. Dauberman, Centre Hall, has for sale Short-Horn bull calves, from two weeks and up old. These calves were bred from the milking strand of Short-Horn stock and are good ones.

Bush Meeting.

A bush meeting will be held in the grove near the United Evangelical church, at Egg Hill, beginning Friday and continuing until and including Sunday evening. Services Friday and Saturday evenings, and three services Sunday. Besides the pastor, Rev. J. F. Shultz, other ministers will be present.

Vacant House Burned.

Fire on Thursday of last week destroyed the dwelling house of Mrs. Sadie Neff, southwest of Colyer. The property was that owned and occupied by Josiah Taylor, during his life, and afterward owned by his son John Taylor. The house was vacant at the time of its destruction, making the fire necessarily of an incendiary origin.

Petition for School.

The citizens in the neighborhood of Potters Mills have petitioned to have two public schools like heretofore instead of one as decided by the township board of directors.

The Cross Lane school, east of Potters Mills, will be reopened in September. This school house was closed for a number of years, and the scholars conveyed to the Potters Mills schools at the expense of the township.

Lost a Portion of His Right Arm.

Franklin Beck, of Carroll, who is suffering from blood poisoning, had his right arm amputated below the elbow last week by Drs. Hayes, of Lock Haven, and Bickel, of Loganton. Mr. Beck is well up in years, but it is believed that he will recover his health. Mr. Beck was poisoned by ivy about six weeks ago. Shortly after a small boil appeared on his hand, which Mr. Beck squeezed and pricked with his poisoned fingers. Blood poisoning resulted, necessitating the amputation.

New Hotel Movement.

There is a movement on foot to organize a stock company for the purpose of erecting a large hotel on the present site of the College hotel, says the College Times. It is to be a three story brick structure of modern design and to cover the entire lot. The estimated cost is $25,000. The old hotel building will be moved over on High street and fitted up for dwellings. The promoters of this enterprise are Rev. Chas. Atkins, of Pine Grove, Jno. N. Krumrine, Jno. L. Holmes and H. D. Meek.

Fever at Spring Mills.

There are several cases of Typhoid fever in the vicinity of Spring Mills. One of the patients is Miss Maggie, daughter of Squire John Grenoble, whose condition the beginning of this week was critical. In the family of Francis Gramley there are three cases of the same disease. One of these is John Gramley, a son of Francis; another afflicted is a daughter. The third is Mrs. McMuttery, who makes her home with the Gramleys.

A daughter of George S. Weaver, Miss Alice, has just recovered from a serious attack of the disease.

Corner Stone Laying.

On Sunday last, the corner stone for the new Lutheran church at Spring Mills was formally dedicated. The day was an ideal one and it seemed that Providence smiled on the occasion. The exercises were simple, but inspiring and the St. Marks Lutheran congregation received new courage, new enthusiasm and more zeal in their noble enterprise of building a church at Spring Mills.

The pastor, Rev. J. M. Rearick, performed the simple yet impressive act of formally laying the corner stone. Rev. Jacob Youtzy, D. D., of Susquehanna University, who had for his theme—"Christ the only true, the only tried and the only precious corner stone and hence the only foundation for all Christians"—delivered a forcible sermon, and held his large audience spell-bound for thirty-five minutes. Rev. D. M. Wolf, D. D., was also present, and assisted in the opening exercises.

The corner stone is a marble block 20x12x12 inches, and is a gift to the congregation by J. B. Mayes & Son, of Lemont, who certainly have the gratitude of the Spring Mills Lutherans.

LOCALS.

Rev. Ward K. Shultz will fill the appointment of Rev. Haven in the Methodist church Sunday afternoon.

It rained a slight shower Tuesday night, the first shower since Monday, 11th inst. Fine weather for oats harvest.

Miss Lizzie Bible, of Centre Hill, was the guest of her cousin, Miss Elsie Moore, west of town, for a few days this week.

Among the new instructors at State College is Prof. J. S. Fisk, who last week moved to that place from Cambridge, Mass.

R. D. Wilson, of Howard, formerly a member of the Howard Creamery Company, has moved from that place to Lewisburg.

Prof. Morris J. Babb, instructor in mathematics, at State College, has been critically ill with typhoid fever for the past three weeks.

Experts from New York opened the safe of the Belleville bank that had gone through the fire, and found its contents unharmed.

Miss Margaret Jacobs, who for the past few weeks was visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Stuart, at State College, returned home Saturday.

Prof. H. F. Bitner and family, who for the past few weeks were staying with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Murray, returned to their home in Millersville.

Mrs. Isaac Smith went to Williamsport Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Eleanor Hitchcock, mother of Mr. Witmer Smith, of Bellefonte.

A glorious old fashion Evangelical camp meeting is in progress on the Sugar Valley camp ground near Booneville, and will continue until the 28th inst.

A young man last week entered the Episcopal church at Lewistown and stole a surplice. Rev. Eastman saw him come from the church with the package, and had him arrested.

Mrs. Elizabeth Aults and daughter, Miss Mae, of Tyrone, are guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Alexander, in this place, and will remain until the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Hezekiah Walker, of Marsh Creek, died in great agony last week due to confinement. She is survived by a husband and seven small children, and was aged twenty-eight years.

Ollie Mader and family while at Millinburg last week took a notion to take an outing, and accordingly went to Atlantic City for a few days. They were perfectly delighted with the scenes at Atlantic City.

Ex-Supervisor Adam Krumrine, of Tusseyville, accompanied by his little grandson, attended the Reformed reunion, and made it a point to call on the Reporter, and do a good act—advance his subscription.

The county convention of Christian Endeavor societies will be held at Howard, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Rev. Kershner and John D. Meyer will represent the Reformed C. E. of this place. The society of the Presbyterian church has not yet selected delegates.

Mrs. D. J. Hoffman, of Vira, Mifflin county, has gained distinction by raising a sunflower stalk that has leaves measuring four and one-half feet around and three feet across. The flower measures three feet nine and three-fourth inches around and thirteen inches across.

Mrs. Lucy Henney Tuesday returned from Pittsburg, where she had been for the past two weeks aiding in taking care of her son, Wilbur Henney, who is ill with typhoid fever. Mr. Henney has recovered sufficiently that he is expected to come to Centre Hall Monday.

Clayton Stover, of Morganza Reformatory, last week made his first visit to Centre Hill, since he is employed at that institution. He was well pleased with his position, which he was able to fill in quite a satisfactory manner, but resigned to accept a position in a grocery store at Bridgeville, near Pittsburg, which town is experiencing a boom on account of the Washash railroad passing through it.

The Orangeville, (Ill.) Courier, has this to say: The following persons drove to Monroe Wednesday, in the hunting club wagon and spent the day driving through the city and picnicking in the park at the water tower: Geo. Eaton and wife, W. J. Musser, Fred Eaton, Mrs. J. W. Musser, Misses Lena, Helen, Mary and Maude Eaton, Grace and Elsie Musser, Mamie Schreckengost, Emma Musser, Stella Musser, Bertha and George Musser, Mrs. Della Ross, of Linden Hall, Pa., and Miss Anna Musser, of Pine Grove Mills, Pa.
