A Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Boakwater, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days' time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by J. F. Smith, H. F. Rossman, J. B. Fisher's Sons.

DEATHS.

CHARLES PRATT.

Charles Pratt died at the Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia, Saturday, of typhoid fever. The body of the deceased was brought to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Pratt, of Unionville, where interment was made Tuesday. His age was about thirty-five years, and he was employed as a traveling salesman by a Philadelphia house.

ANDREW JACKSON BOOTH.

Andrew Jackson Booth died at the home of his son-in-law Frank Gates, at Graysville, Monday. His age was nearly eighty years. Interment was made in the old church yard at Pine Hall. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church, and during the rebellion was a member of the Second Cavalry of Pennsylvania. He was a life-long Democrat. A family of five daughters survive him.

ADAM STOVER.

Adam Stover, Sr., expired Monday afternoon at the residence of his stepson, Geo. Calhoun, at Mill Hall. Deceased had been in ill health for some time. About 10 days previous he suffered a stroke of paralysis, compelling him to take his bed.

Mr. Stover was born in Centre county about 75 years ago. He has been a resident of Mill Hall for forty years, where he was highly respected and esteemed by all. He is survived by his step-son, George Calhoun, of Mill Hall, and one sister, Mrs. Josh Armstrong, of Pleasant Gap.

JACOB KAMP.

Jacob Kamp, a wealthy shoe dealer of Lock Haven, died at his home in that place Thursday morning of last week, from diabetes. The burial took place Saturday.

Jacob Kamp was born in Flonheim, Germany, November 18, 1838. When seventeen years old he came to this country, and located in Lock Haven. In 1859 he embarked in the boot and shoe business, which business he continued until his death.

Mr. Kamp was married twice. His second wife (Sarah R. Wolf, daughter of John Wolf, of Potters Mills, and niece of Mrs. Leonard Rhone, of this place) and eight children, survive.

WM. H. MILLER.

Wm. Harry Miller died at his home in Boalsburg Monday morning at one o'clock, at the age of eighty-nine years. The interment took place Wednesday morning, in the Boalsburg cemetery, Rev. A. A. Black officiating.

The deceased was one of the leading citizens of his community for many years. The greater part of his life was devoted to carpentering, and in the fertile valleys of Centre county there stand many barns and houses as the result of his mechanical skill. Later in life he began to till the soil, and for ten years prior to his death he lived retired.

Mr. Miller was twice married. His second wife had three children survive. They are John Miller, who lives on the old homestead; Mrs. Andrew Lytle, State College, and Miss Nora at home.

JOHN McDOWELL.

John McDowell, one of the best known farmer citizens of Millin county, was found dead in his bed on Saturday morning of last week, at his home near Milroy. He was going about on the preceding day, apparently in his usual health and his death was no doubt due to a sudden stroke of apoplexy.

Deceased was the son of John and Mary Brisbin McDowell, and was born July 19, 1845. He was married October 11, 1888, to Elizabeth R., daughter of the late Alexander Reed. His wife survives him with one son and daughter. Also one sister, Mr. Margaret I., widow of Rev. A. H. Parker.

Mr. McDowell was a man of more than ordinary intelligence and prominence and had a host of friends and acquaintances in Millin and Centre counties who very deeply regret his unexpected death.

Keith's.

The bill for Keith's this week promises to be entertaining. In Al. Shean and Chas. Warren and Tom Lewis and Sam J. Ryan, the bill embraces two comedy acts which are perhaps the strongest pair of funny sketches ever seen in a single Keith bill. The fact that two are to be seen in a single bill promises an hour of fun rarely equalled at this home of laughter. Another great comedy favorite is Joe Flynn, whose original parodies have always been received with decided favor; Nichols Sisters are perhaps the foremost comedienne; Frobel and Ruge do an aerial comedy turn that is not only exciting, but highly amusing; Inman and Vincent are said to be clever Irish comedians; Dailey and Vokes have been featured in several comedy shows.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.
