

Everybody's Shoes Are Here . . .

Every kind of Boot and Shoe for everybody—men, women, children and the babies, and for every business, every dress and every sport and pastime use.

Our Boots and Shoes are the very best, and our prices the very least.

Agent for W. L. Douglas's $3.00 and $5.50 Shoe for Men, and Queen Quality the famous $3.00 Shoe for Women.

If you want correct Footwear, come to headquarters for it.

Mingle's Shoe Store, BELLEFONTE, PA.

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Evangelical—Lemont, morning; Linden Hall, afternoon.

Presbyterian—Centre Hall, morning; Potters Mills, afternoon.

Reformed—Spring Mills, morning, Harvest Home services; no services at Farmers Mills.

Lutheran—Centre Hall, morning; Spring Mills, afternoon; Tusseyville, evening.

Plowed up $1655.00. L. G. Durfee, a farmer living near Townville, Crawford county, plowed up gold and silver amounting to $1655.00, which money was hidden there by robbers who last spring cracked the bank safe in that place.

Photographer Smith. Photographer W. W. Smith will be in Centre Hall during the week of the Encampment and Exhibition and will be prepared to do the latest styles of work in the most satisfactory manner.

Hog Cholera in Milfin county. A correspondent from Milroy in the Lewistown Gazette says: Disease is again breaking out among the hogs in this section.

Potatoes. Reports from nearly every section of the state say early potatoes are rotting, and that the late varieties are either badly blighted or crippled for want of moisture.

Ferry Breen Bought Farm. Perry Breen bought the Joseph Gilliland farm, near Potters Mills, for $4,000. The farm is particularly adapted to grazing, and will suit one like Mr. Breen who makes stock raising a specialty.

A Hint for China Lovers. A richly illustrated article on Historic Pitchers, by Ada Marie Peck, which appears in The Delineator for October, will prove of interest to china collectors and china lovers.

Lillian Burkhardt is to head this week what appears to be as strong a comedy bill as has been put forth at Keith's since the beginning of the year.

LOCALS. The date of the Milfin county fair is Oct. 14-17.

Lower Penns Valley was visited by a frost Saturday morning.

A heavy hail storm passed over sections of Clinton county on Tuesday.

A reduction of 20 per cent. on all cash sales until October 1 is offered by D. A. Boozer.

Leslie W. Jacobs states that he will take a full course in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania.

Joe Winters, of New Berlin, was in town Wednesday. He is the originator of many a good joke, and represents a first-class grocery firm.

The soldiers' reunion was well attended Thursday of last week at Hecla Park. The association has nearly $1000.00 in its treasury, which will be applied to the Curtin monument.

Alexander Shannon, of Smith Center, Kansas, is expected in Centre Hall today, Thursday. Mr. Shannon is the general agent for a life insurance company, and does considerable traveling.

Rev. J. W. Shannon, wife and children, of Elysburg, spent a day in Centre Hall with the family of William Lohr. Rev. Shannon is a son of Rev. Samuel G. Shannon, and was born and spent his boyhood days in Centre Hall.

M. S. Bond, of Chulasky, Northumberland county, last spring planted an acre of onions from which he sold $118.00 worth of green onions, and harvested 350 bushels of dried onions, which are now worth seventy-five cents per bushel.

Dr. H. S. Braught this week purchased the property of Mrs. Jennie Van Valzab, at Spring Mills.

Dr. Ritter is much interested in the State Veterinary Association meeting which convenes at Reading Tuesday.

Mr. Murray today (Thursday) went to State College where he will enter the sophomore class.

John K. Moser, of Niles, Ohio, and Mrs. Lou Beale, and sister, of Laurelton, are guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Jacob.

Boyd Magee, son of R. M. Magee, Esq., of Philadelphia, spent several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Emerick.

Three new Lutheran churches were dedicated Sunday—Lewistown, Union county; Coplay, Lehigh county, and Lincoln, Lancaster county.

Pretty Wedding.

Miss M. Elizabeth Bible and Daniel C. Rossman were married at the home of the bride at Centre Hill, Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

The groom approached the officiating minister, Rev. T. W. Haven, in company with Mrs. J. Frank Bible, as matron of honor, and the bride on the arm of her brother J. Frank Bible, and by the ring ceremony the two were pronounced one.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bible, and the groom is a son of Calvin Roseman, of York, and is engaged with the Martin Carriage Works at that place.

Franklin Brown Dead. Franklin Brown, who had been in feeble health for several years, died at his home about two miles east of Boalsburg Sunday evening from complications arising from advanced years in life.

Harvest Home Services. Harvest Home services will be observed in the Reformed church, Spring Mills, Sunday morning. All are invited to participate.

Eagles Will Meet at Bellefonte. At the annual meeting of the Knights of the Golden Eagle in Williamsport, Bellefonte was chosen as the place of meeting next year.

Trustees Meet. The trustees of the Presbyterian church at a meeting held the other evening, decided on making various repairs and improvements about the church.

Keith's. Lillian Burkhardt is to head this week what appears to be as strong a comedy bill as has been put forth at Keith's since the beginning of the year.

LOCALS. The date of the Milfin county fair is Oct. 14-17.

Lower Penns Valley was visited by a frost Saturday morning.

A heavy hail storm passed over sections of Clinton county on Tuesday.

A reduction of 20 per cent. on all cash sales until October 1 is offered by D. A. Boozer.

Leslie W. Jacobs states that he will take a full course in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania.

Joe Winters, of New Berlin, was in town Wednesday. He is the originator of many a good joke, and represents a first-class grocery firm.

The soldiers' reunion was well attended Thursday of last week at Hecla Park. The association has nearly $1000.00 in its treasury, which will be applied to the Curtin monument.

Alexander Shannon, of Smith Center, Kansas, is expected in Centre Hall today, Thursday. Mr. Shannon is the general agent for a life insurance company, and does considerable traveling.

Rev. J. W. Shannon, wife and children, of Elysburg, spent a day in Centre Hall with the family of William Lohr. Rev. Shannon is a son of Rev. Samuel G. Shannon, and was born and spent his boyhood days in Centre Hall.

M. S. Bond, of Chulasky, Northumberland county, last spring planted an acre of onions from which he sold $118.00 worth of green onions, and harvested 350 bushels of dried onions, which are now worth seventy-five cents per bushel.

Dr. H. S. Braught this week purchased the property of Mrs. Jennie Van Valzab, at Spring Mills.

Dr. Ritter is much interested in the State Veterinary Association meeting which convenes at Reading Tuesday.

Mr. Murray today (Thursday) went to State College where he will enter the sophomore class.

John K. Moser, of Niles, Ohio, and Mrs. Lou Beale, and sister, of Laurelton, are guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Jacob.

Boyd Magee, son of R. M. Magee, Esq., of Philadelphia, spent several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Emerick.

Three new Lutheran churches were dedicated Sunday—Lewistown, Union county; Coplay, Lehigh county, and Lincoln, Lancaster county.

LOCALS.

Tuesday next will be Democratic day at the encampment and exhibition on Grange Park.

The storm on Tuesday was destructive to the apple crop. Many hundreds of bushels were blown from the trees.

Miss Florence W. Kline, daughter of John Kline, of near this place, Monday went to Williamsport where she will attend Dickinson Seminary.

D. A. Boozer will, until October 1, sell, for cash harness, whips, blankets, robes, collars, and all goods in stock, at a reduction of 20 per cent. from former prices.

From present indications the operators in the coal regions propose running their mines to suit themselves, or not run them at all. They refuse to make concessions of any sort to miners.

Thomas Moore, the junior member of F. P. Blair & Co., jewelers, Bellefonte, has accepted a position in Wanamaker's store, Philadelphia, and will remove his family to that place in the near future.

An interesting breach of promise case is being heard in the Huntingdon county courts, in which Miss Cora A. Kime is prosecutrix and Prof. I. Harvey Brumbaugh is defendant.

Fire Tuesday totally destroyed the slaughter house and stable occupied by Rosensberry Brothers, a large tannery, in which were stored 400 tons of ice, and an untenanted dwelling house at McVeytown, owned by Trexell heirs.

Mrs. Alexander, wife of Dr. J. F. Alexander, today, Thursday, is entertaining Hon. W. A. Allison and family, Spring Mills; Archie Allison and family, Frank McCoy and family, Bellefonte, and Edward Allison, Potters Mills.

The Centre Hall Evaporating Company was obliged to have a car load of apples shipped from Bald Eagle Valley for evaporating purposes.

J. R. Thompson, of Salona, Republican candidate for county treasurer in Clinton county, purchased of William Boyer five tracts of timber land in Green township, that county, containing 2000 acres, known as the Joseph Kemmerer lands.

Jewett Gorham, of Elbridge, N. Y., and Mrs. Elliott Bogart, of Geneva, N. Y., are expected by Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Park Friday to remain until after the encampment, when with Mrs. Gorham, who has been with her son, Dr. Park, for some time, they will return to their home.

Rev. Alfred Barr and sister, Miss Alberta Barr were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Foreman for a day the beginning of this week.

A car load of Clearfield brick was received by the borough authorities, and is being landed in various parts of town.

The report of climate and crop conditions in neighboring counties is so too promising. Within the last week Centre county has had fine rains which will germinate early sown grains, and aid in finishing out the corn.

Clearfield—Low temperatures; rain badly needed; potatoes rotting; apple crop light and of inferior quality; pastures continue good.

Clinton—Corn good but nights too cool for it; best oats crop for years; plowing progressing but ground very dry; large apple crop; early potatoes poor and rotting.

Huntingdon—Cold nights; drought becoming serious; corn drying up, some ready to cut; pastures short; some low ground seeded but too dry for germination.

Ex Congressman J. D. Hicks will present a unique case to the board of pardons to secure the pardon of George B. Cooper, formerly a justice of the peace in Gayport, Blair county.

The camp is a busy spot these days, but the greater part of the work has been completed.

Nearly all the tents are up and ready for occupancy. The thousands of yards of white canvas looks very pretty.

A diamond is being laid out and scraped for base ball. Boalsburg and State College will cross bats during the encampment. Both are good teams.

Harvest Home services will be observed in the auditorium Sunday afternoon 2:30 p. m., Rev. G. W. Kershner, of the Reformed church, conducting the services. Everything is in readiness.

Dr. H. S. Braught this week purchased the property of Mrs. Jennie Van Valzab, at Spring Mills.

Dr. Ritter is much interested in the State Veterinary Association meeting which convenes at Reading Tuesday.

Mr. Murray today (Thursday) went to State College where he will enter the sophomore class.

John K. Moser, of Niles, Ohio, and Mrs. Lou Beale, and sister, of Laurelton, are guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Jacob.

Boyd Magee, son of R. M. Magee, Esq., of Philadelphia, spent several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Emerick.

Three new Lutheran churches were dedicated Sunday—Lewistown, Union county; Coplay, Lehigh county, and Lincoln, Lancaster county.

PRE-BYTERIANS IN 1795

Presbyterian Picnic and Dedication of Marker. The Presbytery of Huntingdon will meet in Centre Hall Monday October 6th, at 3:15 p. m.

It has been decided to take this opportunity to have a reunion of all Presbyterians within reach. They were among the earliest settlers of the Valley and had much to do with shaping its history and it is very appropriate that their descendants should come together and hear something of their heroic efforts to found the church in this region.

But it is not forgotten that along with them, engaged in the same noble work, were those of sister churches, and a most cordial invitation is extended to members of all churches and others to unite with them.

Wilbur A. Henney has opened his blacksmith shop on Church street and is ready to do all kinds of blacksmithing and wood work, special attention is given to setting buggy and wagon tire.

I will have an office open at Grange Park the coming week and will be in attendance the greater part of the time myself, for the benefit of those who desire to take out insurance, or consult me concerning same.

The following is the train service for the Encampment and Exhibition, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Leave Bellefonte for Park 6:40 A. M.

Montandon for Park 5:40 A. M.

Other special trains will be added as occasion demands.

The report of climate and crop conditions in neighboring counties is so too promising. Within the last week Centre county has had fine rains which will germinate early sown grains, and aid in finishing out the corn.

Clearfield—Low temperatures; rain badly needed; potatoes rotting; apple crop light and of inferior quality; pastures continue good.

Clinton—Corn good but nights too cool for it; best oats crop for years; plowing progressing but ground very dry; large apple crop; early potatoes poor and rotting.

Huntingdon—Cold nights; drought becoming serious; corn drying up, some ready to cut; pastures short; some low ground seeded but too dry for germination.

Ex Congressman J. D. Hicks will present a unique case to the board of pardons to secure the pardon of George B. Cooper, formerly a justice of the peace in Gayport, Blair county.

The camp is a busy spot these days, but the greater part of the work has been completed.

Nearly all the tents are up and ready for occupancy. The thousands of yards of white canvas looks very pretty.

A diamond is being laid out and scraped for base ball. Boalsburg and State College will cross bats during the encampment. Both are good teams.

Harvest Home services will be observed in the auditorium Sunday afternoon 2:30 p. m., Rev. G. W. Kershner, of the Reformed church, conducting the services. Everything is in readiness.

Dr. H. S. Braught this week purchased the property of Mrs. Jennie Van Valzab, at Spring Mills.

Dr. Ritter is much interested in the State Veterinary Association meeting which convenes at Reading Tuesday.

Mr. Murray today (Thursday) went to State College where he will enter the sophomore class.

John K. Moser, of Niles, Ohio, and Mrs. Lou Beale, and sister, of Laurelton, are guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Jacob.

Boyd Magee, son of R. M. Magee, Esq., of Philadelphia, spent several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Emerick.

Three new Lutheran churches were dedicated Sunday—Lewistown, Union county; Coplay, Lehigh county, and Lincoln, Lancaster county.

THE STAR STORE.

ESTABLISHED 1889. PROPRIETOR.

For thirty (30) days we will offer at greatly reduced prices anything in our stock of dry goods, notions, shoes, case wear, quoniam ware, flowers, all heavy articles in the hardware line.

Clearance Sale.

- Below is an idea. Cottons pins doz. 1c. Cl. - tin basket 25c. Envelopes, 25 in pack 3c. Good note paper per quire 5c. Web. Unab. Dictionary cloth binding 75c. Web. Unab. Dictionary sheep binding $1.75. Arbuckle and Lion coffee lb. 10c. Price on sugars, very low. Turkey red handkerchiefs, 3 for 10c. Good calico per yd. 5c. Turkey red table linen per yd. 20c. Shirting per yd. 7c. Crestone per yd. 6c. Good muslin per yd. 5c. Figure-d black satteen per yd. 10c. 90-100 suspenders 10c. Ladies' overalls 30c. Children's one shoe 30c. Men's overalls 45c. Men's shoes $1.25. Ladies' shoes $1.00. Good broom 25c. 14in. Hoop Iron 25c. 2.5in. Mill File 2c. Hand saw 15c. Table oil cloth 1 1/2 yd. wide 17c. Caps for close jacket 25c. Jay tooth pick 20x 5c. Plain black satteen per yd. 10c.

OUR STOCK IS FULL OF THE FOLLOWING. Berhad and smooth wire, poultry netting, tar paper, building paper, domestic Oliver chilled plows and their repairs, plastering hair, oil and turpentine and their repairs, washing machines, rollers and tuck for doors, special price on nails by keg, cement, patent plaster, glass, and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Ho!! For the Fair Grounds!

Come and make our Store your Headquarters during the Great County Fair, beginning Tuesday, September 30th.

All the Clothing that is "fit to wear" for Men, Boys and Children.

Hats and Neckwear in profusion

Underwear.

Everything for the Male . . .

Montgomery & Co.

Clothiers and Tailors

GABLE & CO.

of Altoona, Pa.

Will have an

Elegant Exhibit of Dry Goods

Encampment & Exhibition Centre Hall, Sept. 13 to 19.

They invite you to visit their Booth when on the grounds. Included in the exhibit will be a first class assortment of for Ladies and Children all in the latest Fall and Winter styles, as well as other general late style dry goods and novelties.

Dress Goods and Winter Coats..

All goods will be for sale at the same low prices that are asked at the Altoona store.

GABLE & CO.

Everything is dated before or after the Encampment.

WANTED—A young man to act as clerk, and make himself generally useful. Apply to O. T. Corman, Spring Mills.

Rev. G. W. Kershner, pastor of the Reformed church, will take a trip through the eastern part of the state. He will leave Monday and be absent two weeks or more.

Rev. J. W. Wagner, wife and children, of Glasgow, Cambria county, Wednesday arrived at the home of A. E. Kerlin where they will remain over Sunday. They expect to spend some time afterward with Jacob Wagner, near Tusseyville.

WANTED—An up-to-date man for manager and general agent of this county by the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia. Salary and commissions to right man. Address, with references, F. M. Wheaton, 112 N. Broad St., Philadelphia, Penna.

Miss Edith, daughter of Superior Court Judge Geo. B. Orlandy, of Huntingdon, has gone to join three of her former classmates of Bryn Mawr College, and with them sailed on the 30th ult. for Germany, where they will remain for two years, studying the modern languages at Munich and Berlin.