

RAILROADERS' INDORSEMENT

Chairman Austin Tells Why They Are For Pattison—An Earnest Response.

After Chairman Wright had concluded his speech of notification at Reading Charles B. G. Austin, chairman of a committee of the State Board of Railway Employees which endorsed Mr. Pattison's candidacy for governor at its convention at Harrisburg, was introduced. He said:

As chairman of a committee appointed by a convention of the State Board of Railroad Employees of Pennsylvania, held at Harrisburg on September 1, representing 342 divisions and lodges of organized labor in the state of Pennsylvania, composed of 123,000 voting members, all of this commonwealth, I desire to say that they, being conversant with your previous record, made during two administrations as governor, and believing it again elected that you will give to organized labor the consideration to which we feel they are justly entitled, they unanimously endorsed your nomination for governor and they will use all honorable means to secure your election.

The Governor's Reply.
In concluding, Mr. Pattison addressed himself to Chairman Austin and the committee of the State Board of Railroad Employees, who were present. He said:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen: To the citizen enlisted in the cause of good government, sympathy and support from every source is always most welcome. There are times when such assistance is of double value, and there are certain elements, the co-operation of which is absolutely necessary to success. Nothing could give me greater satisfaction and encouragement than the message you so kindly bring, telling of the patriotic action on behalf of an organization of faithful workers for whom I have always had the very highest regard. The men who run the railways of America maintain a standard of fidelity and efficiency that reflects credit upon themselves and the whole body of daily workers. They understand the duties of good citizenship, and their loyalty to the state, to society and to their homes, impels them to take active and intelligent part in public affairs. They well know that the workman, like the merchant, the banker and the farmer, has a worse enemy than the faithless public servant and the political boss. It is also his lot to bear a share of the cost of bad government, yet he has the strength to render effective service to the people. I trust you may be supported in the stand you have taken by your fellow workers in every field of industrial activity. The strong hand of labor may now and at all times protect itself and promote its own welfare by the proper use of an honest ballot. I thank you very much for your greeting upon this occasion.

There was no scene of enthusiasm at Reading more remarkable and suggestive than when Gov. Pattison concluded his short address to the railroaders, a large representation of these workers being in the great audience. They arose to their feet and cheered again and again, being joined by the entire assemblage.

A STRONG MAN'S TRUE WORDS.

The man behind the speech never was more clearly and effectively shown than in the address of the Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor at Reading. Every citizen of Pennsylvania should read this candid and truthful statement of the condition of public affairs in this state. In every sentence there is convincing evidence of truthfulness and sincerity, united with the highest courage and patriotism. Mr. Guthrie has studied the questions of the day with an unprejudiced mind and the unselfish purpose to render some service to the cause of political regeneration throughout the commonwealth and the restoration and maintenance of good government for the benefit of all the people.

Although a life-long and consistent member of the Democratic party, in this discussion of the issues of the hour he rises above mere partisanship and like his distinguished colleague on the Erie ticket, he makes his appeal to true patriots, no matter what their views upon ordinary party questions. He has been foremost in co-operating with his fellow citizens of Pittsburgh in making war upon the political Philistines of that long mis-governed city, and therefore has earned the right to speak earnestly and successfully to the voters of the whole state, urging them to strike a final blow at political despotism and corruption.

Mr. Guthrie, like every thoughtful man of the time, understands the real destructive character of the political machine represented by Quayism, and he wisely and justly points out that it can only be overthrown through the leadership of the opposition party, which has upon many occasions demonstrated its trustworthiness and courageous determination to fight the people's battles to the end. There never has been two stronger men presented for popular support than Pattison and Guthrie, who will next week begin a campaign tour that will be memorable in political annals. What they say on the platform will represent clear-headed conviction, the very essence of patriotism, and their utterances will embody the thoughts of good citizens of every class.

The tide against Quayism and its counterpart, Pennypackerism, is rising every hour, and the prospect of a great victory over the combined forces of political iniquity should encourage every Democratic voter and independent citizen to renewed zeal and energy all along the line.

BLACKJACK PARTY'S LAST DITCH

It was worth a thousand times what it cost to have representative men from all parts of this state see the Philadelphia machine in full motion. The riotous assault on the delegates to the Union Party convention was an object lesson showing the ways of the political outlaw which the average voter, in town and country, never witnesses. For many years the newspapers have printed the disgraceful story of hoodlum outrages until their readers have turned in disgust from the depressing spectacle.

It has often been said that there was much exaggeration in these statements and that the accounts published were colored to suit partisan and factional purposes. But the real truth has not been realized. The drama performed before the astonished eyes of the legally chosen Union delegates showed the utter degradation and desecration of the baffled and demoralized Quay forces. Veteran observers of exciting events in connection with politics have been amazed at the audacity and criminal recklessness of the hirlings of the machine, and now all hands are engaged in a futile effort to deceive the public, the purpose being to make it appear that the whole affair was only a bit of factional contention, with no serious consequences.

The foul spot cannot thus be wiped out and honest Republican papers have expressed their condemnation of the murderous methods pursued. The attempt, likewise, to give the matter some sort of legal standing is an insult which the Dauphin county court will surely resent. If such wicked violence, such outrageous disregard of the rights of citizenship, such infamous resort to the bludgeon and the blackjack and every species of political vulgarity and hoodlumism, is to be tolerated, elections in Pennsylvania might as well be abandoned, and the government of the state and all its cities turned over to outlaws. It is stated that a large proportion of the rioters in Musical Fund Hall came directly from the House of Correction to do the bidding of men even worse than themselves.

This incident, at the threshold of the present contest against Quayism and all that it stands for, will arouse the patriotic indignation of decent men irrespective of party. It will be worth scores of thousands of votes to the Democratic Reform ticket. The blackjack party will be crushed through the uprising of the self-respecting citizenship of our long suffering state. Push the battle from house to house with increasing vigor and determination every day.

In one of his 1900 speeches Quay contemptuously referred to the Independent Republican voters as "mules." The compliment is being returned this fall by the tallest and hardest "kicking" ever known. Keep it up until the odious machine is smashed beyond repair.

Pennypacker's silence these days is something wonderful. A double guard has been put upon the eulogist of Quayism, lest he furnish more solid shot for the "enemy." There is enough on hand to riddle the machine fort, and it will all be effectively used.

The successful fight of 1899 began in Reading. All the indications are that history will repeat itself this year. The Democratic lines are in splendid shape at the opening of the great reform battle of 1902.

Help along the great work of house cleaning at Harrisburg. Send your contribution, large or small, to the Democratic state chairman. Every dollar received will be wisely and honestly expended.

The most effective Democratic argument in favor of Pattison's election is Pennypacker's fulsome praise of Senator Quay.—Williamsport Sun.

The nomination of ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison for governor by the Democratic State Convention is probably the strongest that could have been made by the minority party, and is certainly a unique honor in the political history of the state. As a man and an official, Mr. Pattison has enjoyed the confidence and esteem of the people whom he has served in a public capacity, and he will, therefore, bring to his canvass a strength which no other candidate in his party ranks could expect.—Lancaster New Era (Rep.).

A preamble of self-gratulation denying any credit to the Almighty for whatever of prosperity is supposed to exist, followed by a mass of words as meaningless as the chattering of daws, constitutes the platform adopted by the Republican convention. A sop is tossed to veteran soldiers and sailors, the same sop which has been thrown at them for years as though the Republican party paid the pensions, and at the same time admission is made of the abuses and atrocities in the Philippines which the national administration tried so hard to conceal.—New Haven Democrat.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford county, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by J. F. Smith, H. F. Rossmann, J. B. Fisher's Son's.

A Communication.
MR. EDITOR—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely relieved me.—W. S. Brockman, Bagnell, Mo. This remedy is for sale by J. F. Smith, H. F. Rossmann, and J. B. Fisher's Son's.
