.................... Everybody's Shoes Are Here

~~~~~~~~~~ Every kind of Boot and Shoe for everybody-men, women, children and the babies, and for every business, every dress and every sport and pastime use. Whether you walk or ride play golf or ball, whether you fish or hunt, dance or go a-bicycling, or whether you like to be dressed up and keep so, we have Shoes for all these uses and for all these purposes.

Our Boots and Shoes are the very best, and our prices the very Agent for W. L. Douglas' $3.00 and $3.50 Shoe for Men, and Queen Quality the famous $3.00 Shoe for Women.

If you want correct Footwear, come to headquarters for it.

Mingle's Shoe Store, BELLEFONTE, PA. *****************

CHURCH APPOINTMENTS

Reformed-No services. Lutheran-No services.

Presbyterian—Centre Hall, 10:30 a m; Pine Stump, 2:30 p. m.

Evangelical—Lemont, 10 s. m.; Linden Hall, 2:30 p. m.; Centre Hall, 7:30 p. m. These services will be conducted by Presiding Elder E. Crumoling, of Lewisburg, who will administer the holy

A 4 3-4 Lb, Potato.

A potato hard to beat was dug by Joseph M. Carson, near Potters Mills, Monday of this week. The variety was Maggie Murphy, and the tuber weighed 44 pounds, and was twelve inches in length.

In Bellefonte Oct. 7.

7. A meeting will be held in the suit all. Give her a call. court house.

During the afternoon of that day, the ex-Governor will be in Philips-

The President Under Surgeons' Knife,

Owing to bruises received in the trolley accident at Pittsfield, Mass., President Roosevelt was obliged to undergo a slight surgical operation while at Indianapolis on Tuesday. A sac leg between the knee and ankle.

Marriage Licenses.

Wm. T. Dillan, Julian. Sallie M. Gill, Martha. Herbert F. Shenck, Howard. Sarah F. Robb, Beech Creek. James Zerbe, Spring Mills. Nora M. Mowery, Spring Mills. Wm. McMiller, Bellefonte. Gertrude M. Hagg, Bellefonte, Harry C. Custer, Philipsburg. Anne E. DeBrine, Philipsburg.

Presbyterian Reunion.

For the accommodation of those not members of Presbytery who may wish to attend the memorial services and reunion at Penn Hall, Oct. 8th, hacks, charging 25cts. for the round trip, will run from the Spring Mills station to the grounds. The Penn Hall band will be prepared to furnish a lunch at a reasonable rate to any who may desire it.

Removed a Calculus.

on Mrs. Lydia Neese, of Spring Mills, Tuesday by Drs. Musser, Braught, Frank and Hayes. The patient is now resting well, and her complete recovery is anticipated. The operation from the hepatic duct. In other words a hard, stony substance was re- inmates of the house. moved from the channel leading from the liver to the stomach.

Two New 'Coons.

The Reporter has added two 'coons to its menagerie, and now has a trio of the cute little cusses that are becoming as tame as a family cat. H. E. Shreckengost, of Farmers Mills, is the famous 'coon hunter who captured the vicious little brutes Wednesday night of last week. That particular night proved an exceptionally good one for hunting 'coons, as the party were successful in killing four others, making six for the night's chase.

Foot Ball Schedule

Following is a schedule of foot ball games to be played by the State College eleven:

Sept. 26-Dickinson at State College. Sept. 27-Western University at State College.

Oct. 4-University of Pennsylvania at Phil'a. Oct. 11-Villanova at State College.

Oct. 18-Yale at New Haven.

Oct. 25-Susquehanna at State College. Nov. 1-Annapolis at Annapolis.

Nov. 8-Gettysburg at State College. Nov. 15-Washington and Jefferson (place to be selected later. ) Nov. 27-University of Buffalo at Buffalo.

October 17th has been set aside by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Shaffer as Arbor day.

THE CENTRE REPORTER. LUTHERAN MISSIONARY CONVENTION.

The Society of the Central Pennsylvania

The Convention of the Woman's Home and Foreign missionary society was held in the Lutheran church, Pine Grove Mills, beginning Monday evening and closing Wednesday. The first session opened at 7.30 p. m. with a large attendance of delegates and others. Miss Cora Halahan, president of the society, called the meeting to order. Rev. C. T. Aikens led in devotional exercises. Mrs. D. G. Meek made an address of welcome to the visiting delegates and others present from a distance. Her address received a fitting response from the president in behalf of the convention. Rev. J. M. Rearick of Centre Hall, filled the Tuesday morning session was led by Mrs. Yoder, of Allenville. This session was mostly devoted to business; reports of delegates, secretaries, treasurers, etc. The afternoon session was in charge of Miss Lillian Stetler, of Middleburg. The topic, "Are Woman's Missionary Societies effective for good," was discussed by several of the ladies. The evening session was opened by an anthem by the choir. followed by an address by Rev. J. A. Singmaster, D. D., of the Theological Seminary, Gettysburg.

Wednesday morning session was in charge of Mrs. H. C. Walker, Lewistown. Roll call, reading of minutes, and unfinished business was in order. 10 a. m. memorial service in memory of Miss Ella Fleming, Belleville, and other co-laborers fallen asleep.

Wednesday 2 p. m., addresses by Mrs. Geo. Wagner, Reedsville, and Miss Ada Burley, Lock Haven, followed by the Children's hour and an address by Mrs. Julia Deininger, Mill- Ishler and children of Hublersburg, Wednesday evening, address by Rev. A. Stewart Hartman, D. D., general secretary of F. H. M., Baltimore, Md. The old officers were reelected.

New Millinery Goods.

Mrs. Lucy Henney will leave tomorrow, Friday, for Eastern cities to purchase her stock of Fall and Winter goods. She will return Friday, Oct. Ex-Governor Pattison and others of 3rd, when she invites the ladies to call prominence in the state will be at and inspect her goods, which will con-Bellefonte Tuesday evening, October sist of the latest styles and at prices to

Coal Region Notes.

Two more men were killed in the coal regions-one a striker the other a workman.

The sheriff of Lackawana county, Monday made urgent appeals for Congress in the Seventeenth district troops. The deputy sheriff was shot

A mob of two hundred drove out ton, Huntingdon, and Franklin. the workmen from a colliery, blew up cent to be shut down, leaving the whole region in darkness.

LOCALS.

Miss Mary Heim, of Spring Mills, is in Lewisburg, where she will spend several weeks.

your tax to entitle you to a vote at the November election.

J. Frank Rearick is putting an acetylene plant in the home of Dr. Frank in Millheim.

street cafe was partially destroyed by ey several months ago went west to fire Monday morning.

Mrs. Rebecca Floray will make sale of a lot of household goods, etc., Saturday afternoon October 11. Charley Alters, little son of Joseph Alters in this place, was seriously ill the beginning of this week. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Conley, of this place, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Conley, of Bellefonte, Sunday attended A delicate operation was performed the funeral of Perry W. McDowell, at Abdera. Mr. McDowell was an uncle of J. W. Conley.

The residence of Herbert T. Miller, in Bellefonte, was entered the other night, and twelve dollars in cash takconsisted in the removal of a calculus en from Mr. Miller's trousers. The deed was done without disturbing the

The first number of volume twelve, of the Franklin and Marshall Weekly, made its appearance Wednesday of last week. Harry M. Bitner is the first mentioned in the list of editors, and the business management has been given into the hands of John S. Hosterman.

Workmen who are making excavations for the new Pennsylvania Railroad yards, east of Altoona, have unearthed some remarkable curios, among them the fossil of a prehistoric reptile. This fossil was found at a depth of sixty feet. It is in an almost perfect state of preservation.

Ten Ichi, the marvelous Japanese magician who is to appear at Keith's this week, is a man of much consequence in his own country, and is said to be quite wealthy. The three females in the troupe are named Ten Katsu, Ten Waka and Ten Toshi. The word Ten means Heaven in Japanese. Hence the translation of the young women's names are respectively: Heav- ciety to Protect Children from Cruelen's Victory, Heavenly Eyes and Heavenly Teeth. The troupe is Ten tal. Philadelphia. He was also a spe-Horhi, which means stars of heaven. cial representative of the War Depart- price. The chief features of the turn are the ment in Cuba after the war with thumb and tie trick and the enchanted Spain. He will pass his remaining fountain, which are entirely new here, years at Devon, a suburb of Philadelno magician having attempted them. I phia.

CROP REPORTS.

Crop and Weather Reports from Interior Countles .- Drought,

Juniata-Pastures are drying up ground too dry for seeding. Mifflin-Same conditions as in Juniata county, except the seeding is done; Perry-Too dry for seeding; late corn poor; potatoes good; clover seed

Somerset-Corn is frosted and very poor; potatoes and apples short crop. Union-Ground very dry; wheat being sown; corn not well filled.

The counties of Juniata, Mifflin, Pike, Potter and Tioga this week report to the climate and crop service that potatoes are rotting. York and Adams report good potato crops, while most counties report the crop below the average.

LOCALS.

C. H. Meyer sold his livery business rived in Centre Hall Tuesday.

Miss Mildred, daughter of John Barnhart, deceased, of Bellefonte, died Tuesday, at the age of twenty-one

George Meyer, of Coburn, father of Merchant W. H. Meyer, is a visitor in Rev. J. M. Rearick, Misses Rebecca Derstine and May Rhone and Mrs. S. W. Smith attended the missionary convention at Pine Grove Mills.

Mrs. P. Carscadden, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. H. E. Little, of Minneapolis, Minnesota, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stiver several days last Station Agent Philip Bradford, of Linden Hall, and wife, and Mrs. Geo. were entertained by Mrs. Bradford, at the station, over Sunday.

The Mifflinburg town council last week passed a resolution to increase the borough indebtedness $6,000 for the purpose of erecting an electric lighting plant in the town.

State Chairman Quay is not satisfied with Pennypacker's reception at vicious bull.-Daniel Driblebis and Centre Hall and has arranged that the Mrs. John Ghaner are seriously ill .-Republican candidate and party itin- Mrs. Rebecca Nidigh, of State College, erary be at Bellefonte Tuesday, Oct. 2. is ill; little hope is entertained for her

An infant son of Calvin Lingle, north of Penn Hall, died Wednesday of last week and was buried the following day at the Cross church, Georges Valley. The babe's age was about five weeks.

Harvey I. Huber, of Chambersburg, was made the Democratic nominee for composed of the counties of Union, Snyder, Mifflin, Juniata, Perry, Ful-

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. L. Moore during containing about two ounces of serum the steam pipes with dynamite, and the past week entertained Mrs. John was removed from the president's left caused the electric light plant at Cres- C. Bible, Mrs. J. Frank Bible, of Centre Hill; W. J. Carlin, Rebersburg; Mrs Gilbert Rice, Lemont; Mrs. Edward Mosel, Altopna; Miss Sara Ott,

Rev. J. D. Shortis and Rev. E. Confer, of Millheim; Mrs. Albert Houseknecht, of Muncy, and Mrs. Hannah October 4 is the last day you can pay Stevenson, of Hughesville, were guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Shultz last Stevenson are sisters of Mrs. Shultz.

O. H. Osman's Bellefonte Water Vernon, Kansas, schools. Miss Sankvisit her brother, Asher Sankey, at Vernon, she entered the Normal there and now, as stated above, has been residence of her son-in-law, Dr. H. S. given a position.

George O. Benner, general merchant opposite the station, has moved into ty four years, from as complication of his new store room, and is now better diseases. prepared to carry a full line of goods, including hardware, which will be made a specialty. The new store room is a handsome one and is conveniently arranged, and well lighted. her husband for many years lived in See his advertisement.

Joy Winegardner, a six-year-old boy, was kicked on the head by a horse on Saturday afternoon. His nose was broken and his skull fractured. The boy lives with J. L. Winegardner, at Fiedler, and it is supposed that he went to the horse stable alone, opened the door and went in among the horses. He is attended by Dr. C. S. Musser, says the Journal, who reports that there are chances that he may

W. H. Bartholomew, during the week of encampment, entertained Mrs. Charles W. Bassler, of Freeburg; Rev. and Mrs. Haven and daughter Theo, Mr. and Mrs. James Leitzell, Dr. P. W. Leitzell, Mrs. Elizabeth Bartholomew and Master Frank Allison, of Spring Mills; Aaron Harter, Harrisburg; George Whitaker, Curwensville; Austin Curtin, of Curtin; the Misses Edna Decker and McLane, of Hublersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Williams, of Lemont. Rev. Henry McCook, D. D., of Philadelphia, has resigned the pastorate of the Tabernacle Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, after serving it for thirty-three years. Dr. McCook is the author of Westminster Sunday School lessons, one of the founders of the Soty, and also of the Presbyterian hospi-

BOUND, GAGGED AND ROBBED.

Dry Valley, Mifflin County, the Scene of the Four masked men entered the residence of Joseph Shirey, in a lonely portion of Dry Valley, and at the sug- G. O. BENNER gestion of half a dozen guns induced late corn short crop; apples short crop. him to get out of bed and cook a good meal for them.

"Where's your money?" demanded the leader of the gang, who picked his teeth with a big dirk in order to lend a Wild West flavor to the query.

"I haven't a cent in the house," quavered the old man.

The robbers knew better than that. At least, rumor has always given him credit with hoarding wealth.

"You've got to show," said the stranger, whereupon Shirey was kneeked down, prodded with knives and rolled about incontinently. Finally he was bound and gagged, and the search for money was begun.

Everything in the house was gone in Millersburg. He and his family ar- through. But the search was not prolific, as only $48 was found. After eating a second meal, the robbers departed. They are thought to be circus followers. Shirey worked out of his thongs about noon and crawled to a neighbor's house. He is in a bad way.

Tire Setting a Specialty. Wilbur A. Henney has opened his blacksmith shop on Church street and is ready to do all kinds of blacksmithing and wood work, special attention is given to setting buggy and wagon tire. His past record as a mechanic is sufficient to warrant a liberal share of the public patronage.

Pine Grove Mills.

C. M. Fry and wife, of Pittsburg, after sight seeing in Washington for a week are now visiting among friends about Pine Grove.

Emanuel Shuey, who went west about 25 years ago, is visiting about State College, and is thinking of renting a farm.

Farmer E. C. Fry is laid up for repairs from damages received from a recovery.

Another Barn Burned.

The large barn on the farm of Mrs. Pugh and Miss Clara Valentine, situated in Spring township near Nigh Bank and occupied by Henry Kline, was entirely destroyed by fire about ten o'clock Thursday night of last week It was fortunately discovered in time to save the live stock but Mr. Kline lost his crops of grain and hay. The origin of the fire is unknown but is supposed to have originated from spontaneous combustion caused by the second crop of clover hay becoming overheated. Fortunately both barn and crops were insured, the former in a Cash Company, and the latter in the Patrons of Husbandry. On the personal property there was actual insurance to the amount of $739 00, as follows : Hay, $340 ; wheat, $214; harness, $67; oats, $40; barley, $28; week. Mrs. Houseknecht and Mrs. two wagons, $50. The bulk of implements were stored in an implement Miss Mabel Sankey, of Potters Mills, shed, which was not destroyed. These has been selected principal of the figures were obtained from the secretary of the company, James A. Keller.

Death of an Aged Lady.

Mrs. Mary Ann Smith died at the Alexander, at Potters Mills, Monday pmorning at an early hour, aged seven-

Mrs. Smith was the widow of Henry R. Smith, a soldier of the Mexican War, who died about six years ago, at Pine Grove Mills. The deceased and Potter township prior to moving to Pine Grove Mills. Her maiden name was Mary Ann Moyer.

The subject of this sketch was highly respected citizen of the community in which she lived, an earnest Christian woman, and for years had been a faithful member of the Reformed church, to which she was greatly

She is survived by the following sons and daughters: Emanuel, Michael, Ella, and Kathryn, wife of Dr. H. S. Alexander, Potters Mills; John and William, Spring Mills; Luther, Johnstown; Emma, wife of Geiss Wagner, Manhattan, Illinois.

The funeral will take place this. Thursday, morning, interment at Tusseyville, Rev. A. A. Black, of Boalsburg, officiating.

You can save 20 per cent. on all saddlery by buying for cash from D. A. Boozer until October 1. hand spring wagon with lock, etc., in good condition. S. K. Knepley, Cen-For Sale,-R. D. Musser, Spring Mills, Pa., offers for sale a thoroughbred English boar pig, fourteen weeks old. It is a fine and well marked ani-

THE STAR STORE.

PROPRIETOR.

New Store Room New Goods .... New Department

In this advertisement we simply want to say that The Star Store is in its New Room and that we are ready for business.

New goods are coming in every day: these are

Hardware A New Department.

A New Department in The Star Store is a full and complete line of Hardware. Come to see us—if not to buy, to inspect.

THE STAR

Ho!! For the Fair Grounds!

Come and make our Store your Headquarters during the Great County Fair, beginning Tuesday, September 30th

> All the Clothing that is "fit to wear" for Men, Boys and Children.

> > Hats and Neckwear in profusion ....

See our lines of ---

Underwear.

Everything for

Montgomery & Co.

Clothiers and Tailors

LOCALN

The Potter township public schools opened Monday.

Deputy Recorder Ambrose Sloteman is seriously ill. The borough schools were largely increased in attendance on Monday. John Lucas, of Pine Glenn, was

The borough water plant behaved

Inquiries are being made for potatoes. Several car loads were shipped from Coburn recently at twenty-five prices.

Asher Stahl, who had been in Pittsburg for the past few weeks, returned home Tuesday, and will remain for tre Hill, and Charles Burris, are hibit will be given next week. The taking advantage of the High School exhibit was in charge of A. K. Risser in this place.

The Centre Hall Evaporating Company shipped a car load of six hundred stitution. bushels of apples Tuesday. Another car is being loaded.

the place of bridges carried away by the soft coal regions are booming, and high water last spring, but the Spring that they expect to receive lasting ben-Mills bridge is not among the number. efit from the strike, owing to the fact Joseph Alters has quit the carpenter | that necessity will demonstrate that business since Benner's store is com- bituminous coal can be used in many pleted, and will now aid the proprietor

Contracts were awarded for the erec-

The addition of a clerk indicates that the Star Store's trade is increasing. Hon. J. Henderson Maclay, one of Union Veteran Legion, at Chicago, the most respected citizens of the Iil., October 8 to 11, the Pennsylvania Kishacoquillas Valley, died at Belle- Railroad Company will sell excursion ville, aged nearly seventy-seven years. tickets to Chicago and return, from all Mr. Maclay represented Mifflin coun- stations on its lines, on October 5, 6, ty in the legislature twenty years ago, and 7, good to return until October 16, service. He was universally esteemed. round trip, plus $1.00. is running continuously with a force passed through Centre Hall Tuesday of a dozen or more parers, cutters, with a drove of about fifty head of bleachers, etc. Mr. Winney, of New cattle. Mr. Miller sells along the road, York, an experienced man in handling instead of making a regular public drying kilps, has charge of the plant sale of his stock. He is well acquaint-

D. Brisbin. le, of near this place, was a caller Wed- tle in a similar manner. nesday. Mr. Runkle a short time ago For Sale-A good one-horse, second returned from the Pacific border states where he had been for over two years. Some time was spent with his brother ing Mrs. Anna McClenahan. Frank J. Runkle, in lower California, Mrs. Nettie Smith and daughter who is conducting a bean ranch.

The Democratic candidates for local Henry Moyer, at Colyer. offices spent several days on Grange Miss Anns Beebleheimer is attend-Park last week to get better acquaint- ing school at Spring Mills. mal and will be sold at a reasonable ed with voters on the South side of Mrs. Heckman, of Centre Hall, is Centre county. The county ticket is spending a few weeks with her daughmade up of clean timber, and they ter, Mrs. James Reish. Miss Breeze Benner, Monday went | need not be ashamed to look a man | The sick about town are Misses Berployed in a dressmaking establishment, at the polls.

for sale cheap, by S. K. Knepley, Cen-A reduction of 20 per cent. on all cash sales until October 1 is offered by

A No. 1 second hand spring wagon

D. A. Boozer. For a bad taste in the mouth take thrown from his buggy and seriously Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by J. F. Smith, H.

F. Rossman and J. B. Fisher's Sons. itself admirably during the recent D. A. Boozer will until October 1 sell for cash harness, whips, blankets, robes collars, and all goods in stock, at a reduction of 20 per cent. from former > day morning for Tyrone, where she will attend a missionary convention in session at that place. She will return Thursday evening. A full report of the State College exand J. P. Pillsbury, who did much to

Mrs. W. H. Schuyler left Wednes-

make visitors to the college exhibit interested in the State's great in-R. B. Spangler and Master Arthur Hoover, of Hastings, visited the former's parents, ex-Sheriff and Mrs. tion of eighteen State bridges to take John Spangler. Mr. Spangler says of the Star Store to wait on customers. | thought indispensible. For the benefit of those desiring to attend the National Eucampment, where he rendered honest and faithful inclusive, at rate of single fare for the places where authracite coal was

The evaporating plant at the station | Frank Miller, of Armstrong county, Write Grant Hoover for prices on in the absence of General Manager B. ed with horse and cattle dealers through Central Pennsylvania, having Irvin Runkle, son of James C. Rutik- for years past handled horses and cat-

Potters Mills.

Miss Maude Bell, of Milroy, is visit-Ray, spent Sunday at the home of to Philadelphia, where she will be em- square in the face and ask his support tha Armstrong, Lizzie Faust and Fa-

ESTABLISHED 1889.

new and seasonable goods.