CHURCH APPOINTMENTS.

Presbyterian—Centre Hall, 2:30 p. m.; Spring Mills, 10:30 a. m., Communion. Preparatory services Saturday 2:30 p. m.

Lutheran—Georges Valley, morning; Union, afternoon; Centre Hall, evening.

Reformed—Centre Hall, 10 a. m., Communion; Tusseyville, 2:30 p. m.

Methodist—Springtown, morning; Centre Hall, afternoon; Spring Mills, evening.

Fell Dead at Funeral.

While attending funeral services at Lewistown over the remains of Wm. McGirk, who was killed on the railroad at Hollidaysburg a few days ago, Mrs. Mary Decker, seventy years old, widow of the late David Decker, of Strodes Mills, dropped dead of heart failure.

Corner Stone Laid.

The corner stone of the new front of St. Luke's Reformed church in Lock Haven was laid last Sunday. The building will be greatly enlarged and beautified. The following have been the pastors: Rev. J. W. Pontius, Rev. F. F. Christine, Rev. Isaac S. Stahr, Rev. George W. Gerhard, Rev. T. Derr, Rev. Warren J. Johnson.

Strawberries in October.

J. Will Smith, while looking after his herd of fine Jersey cows, Tuesday morning, happened to spy a patch of wild strawberries and was attracted by some of the ripe fruit. Several stalks were lifted and brought to this office. The strawberry stalks, with the ripe fruit on them, were transplanted, and now adorn the Reporter windows.

Celebrated Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Deininger Tuesday celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. Mrs. Deininger had been seriously ill with pneumonia, but had recovered sufficiently to enjoy the event. With the exception of Druggist J. D. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Deininger claim the distinction of having lived in Centre Hall longer than any one else. Mr. Deininger has been a progressive citizen and to him is credited the erection of a dozen or more dwelling houses.

Democratic Meetings.

State issues and the ills of Pennsylvania will be discussed at the following places: Oct. 17—At Yarnell and Spring Mills. " 20— " Pine Grove Mills. " 21— " Boalsburg, Scotia and Mt. Pleasant in Boggs Twp. " 22— " Julian and Grove's School House in Benner Twp. " 23— " Bellefonte. " 24— " Ripka's School House in Gregg Twp. " 25— " Potters Mills. " 27— " Sandy Ridge and Mann's School House in Curtin Twp. " 28— " Woodward and I So w Shoe. " 29— " Millheim.

The Colyer Meeting.

The meeting at Colyer Wednesday night was an enthusiastic one, and Democratic doctrine was explained in the good old way. C. M. Bower, Esq., and Col. John A. Woodward were the principal speakers. The addresses were given the most strict attention. No one could convince those who attended that meeting that Pennsylvania has no ills. Capt. H. S. Taylor, candidate for sheriff, and J. W. Kepler, candidate for assembly, also made short addresses.

Cemetery Request Denied.

The Bequest of $500.00 made the Lutheran and Reformed Cemetery Association of Boalsburg by the Misses Margaret and Nancy Sparr was denied that body by the auditor. It seems there was some difficulty about certain conditions the association refused to comply with.

About $32,000 was distributed among eight of the Reed heirs. Besides this, other bequests were made—a farm to Jacob Sparr, of Madison, Ohio, and one thousand dollars to Sarah Reed, who made her home with the maiden ladies.

STRIKE NEARING SETTLEMENT.

The Operators Willing to Arbitrate—Ask Roosevelt to Appoint Commission.

The coal strike is nearing settlement. The operators made a proposition that public sentiment will force Mitchell and the miners' union to accept.

Briefly stated the operators are willing to arbitrate all disputes, except that they reserve the right to employ non-union men.

At the meeting of operators Tuesday, a proposition was made by J. Pierpont Morgan, for the operators, to President Roosevelt, that a commission of five persons be appointed by the Chief Executive, whose decisions should be in force for a period of not less than three years.

The commission to be constituted as follows:

1. An officer of the Engineer Corps of either the military or naval service of the United States.

2. An expert mining engineer, experienced in the mining of coal and other materials, and not in any way connected with coal mining properties either anthracite or bituminous.

3. One of the Judges of the United States Courts of the Eastern district of Pennsylvania.

4. A man of prominence, eminent as a sociologist.

5. A man who, by active participation in mining and selling coal, is familiar with the physical and commercial features of the business.

Will Ship Evaporated Apples.

The Centre Hall Evaporating and Canning factory this week will ship two car loads of evaporated apples—one car from the Coburn and one car from the Centre Hall plant. Each car represents the product of about three thousand bushels of apples. The evaporated product is comparatively low in price this year, and if the company is left a margin at all it will be quite small.

Mothersbaugh-Bailey.

D. K. Mothersbaugh and Miss Nannie Bailey were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bailey, in Boalsburg, Tuesday, at noon. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. D. E. Hepler.

After the congratulations an elaborate wedding breakfast was served.

The young couple are held in the highest esteem by their acquaintances. The groom is the son of Owen Mothersbaugh, and is one of the successful teachers in Harris township.

Mr. and Mrs. Mothersbaugh took the train Tuesday afternoon for Pittsburg and other points.

Presbyterian Synod.

The Presbyterian Synod of Pennsylvania, the largest ecclesiastical organization of the kind in the world, will convene October 16, in the First Presbyterian church of Allegheny, for four days. Its territory covers all of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and western Africa. It enrolls twenty-two Presbyteries, over 1100 churches, 225,000 church members and gave last year to home and foreign missions alone, over $500,000.

The commissioners chosen at the recent meeting of the Presbytery of Huntingdon in Centre Hall are: Ministers—R. F. Wilson, Lewistown; D. E. Hepler, Lemont; J. M. Waddell, Clearfield; J. H. Mathers, D. D., Bellefonte; R. M. Campbell, Pennsylvania Furnace, and J. E. Irvine, Ph. D., Altoona. Elders—J. L. Somerville, Winburne; H. A. Davis, Esq., Altoona; Dr. J. L. R. Reichhold, Clearfield; G. W. Gance, Phillipsburg; T. D. Weaver, Moshannon; William Roberts, Martinsburg.

Millinery Opening.

Mrs. M. C. Ishler, of Tusseyville, has just received a fine line of millinery goods for fall and winter, consisting of pattern hats, outing hats, etc. Her opening day will be Saturday, October 18, when she extends a cordial invitation to the ladies to come and inspect her goods and find that prices are low.

Mrs. Hannah Moore.

Mrs. Hannah Moore, widow of Jonathan Moore, died on the 3rd instant at Yeagertown and was buried on the 6th at Tusseyville.

The deceased's maiden name was Hannah Luckenbaugh, and twice married, her first husband being Peter Stuffer. She was the mother of Mrs. Wm. Colyer, of this place. Her age was seventy-seven years.

Popular Missionary Rally.

Miss Charlotte E. Hawes, of Wel Hien, China, will be in Centre Hall on Sunday, October 26th, and will make an address in the Presbyterian church in the evening on "Chinese Life and Work; Escape from the Boxers." Miss Hawes was in the midst of the Boxer troubles and had a very narrow escape from death and many thrilling experiences. She is a very interesting speaker. No one should miss hearing her. On Saturday evening, October 25th, she will speak in the Presbyterian church of Spring Mills. Both meetings are open to the public, and every one is cordially invited to be present. A collection for the missionary cause will be taken. Do not fail to come.

LOCALS.

Mrs. Myra Kerr is having her house repainted. The work is being done by Ole Stover.

Mrs. Keller, wife of Dr. Will Keller, of Munson, and two children are the guests of P. F. Keller, in this place.

A Warm Match" at Garman's opera house, Bellefonte, Friday evening, 1 amazing, amusing, ambitious, amicable and artistic. Popular prices.

Sugar Valley has an unusually large crop of apples. It is estimated that fully thirty thousand bushels of apples have been shipped from there to Pittsburg.

Ex-county commissioner Joseph W. Hubbard, of Beech Creek, Clinton county, was found ill last week in a field where he was cutting corn. He is eighty years old.

Ex-Sheriff W. H. Ishler is spending this week in Scranton, being one of the jurors from this section in attendance at the United States court now in session in that city.

Harry Bible spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Bible, near Centre Hill. Mrs. Bible had been ill for the past week, but has now recovered.

Mrs. Floray's sale of household goods, etc., was postponed until Saturday, 25th, at 1 p. m. The sale will be held at her former home at the foot of the mountain.

A. M. Wright, representing James H. Dunham & Co., dry goods merchants, was in town Tuesday. He is a good Democrat and takes considerable interest in political affairs in Clearfield county.

Mrs. Isiah Walters, of Middleburg, and Mrs. Herbert Young, of Three Rivers, Michigan, are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Rearick. The former is a sister and the latter a cousin of Mrs. Rearick.

H. F. Rossmann, of Spring Mills, in his regular advertisement announces that he has received his winter's supply of goods, and that his stock is complete. Mr. Rossmann invites customers to call on him, and insures fair usage.

The report that J. M. Dalby was shot in a row at Lewistown is incorrect. His death occurred Wednesday morning of last week, after an illness of several days, as related by his brother, L. H. Dalby, of near this place. The deceased, up to within a few weeks of his death, lived at Latrobe.

Leslie Treaster had a peculiar experience while picking apples near Colyer. He climbed a large tree and worked his way out on a large, smooth limb, and when he wished to return to the trunk to descend, he found himself unable to pass over the smooth limb. Several ladies to whom he called for assistance relieved him by the use of a ladder.

C. M. Bower, Esq., and Col. John A. Woodward, Wednesday were callers at this office on their way to Colyer where in the evening they addressed the Democrats in that district. Col. Woodward is full of campaign talk, and has filled several engagements in the past and will do so in the future, with the State Democratic campaigning party.

Captain George M. Boal Monday went to Cooperstown, Venango county, to see his sister, Mrs. Martha Orady, of Durand, Wisconsin, who is visiting at that place at present at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Homer Crawford. Mrs. Boal accompanied her husband as far as Pittsburg, where she will spend some time with her sister, Mrs. C. D. Runkle. On his return home the latter part of the week the Captain will be accompanied by one of his nephews, Harry Orady, whose home is in Durand, Wisconsin.

SMALLPOX AT STATE COLLEGE.

The Disease Throughout the State is Rapidly Spreading.

Miss Mabel Holmes is a smallpox sufferer, and is being cared for by an experienced nurse at an isolated farm house, near State College. The young lady had been visiting in Pittsburg, and returned a short time ago to her home. About a week later she became ill and Dr. W. S. Glenn was called to see her, who pronounced the disease smallpox and a strict quarantine was ordered. As stated above the patient was taken to a vacant and isolated house on the Holmes farm, where an experienced nurse has been taking care of her.

Smallpox has been spreading throughout the state at an alarming rate. The increase in number of cases according to the State Board of Health in September was nearly fifty per cent. The present month will undoubtedly develop startling figures.

New Furniture.

Smith Bros. Spring Mills, have just received their fall stock of furniture, which was never more complete. In chamber suits from the lowest in price to quarter oak and polished sideboards; all the late style couches, dining room sets, and hard coal or wood; just the stove when the coal cannot be had. Our ranges are fine; we can get you anything in the stove line you wish. Come and examine our stock and be convinced.

SMITH BROS.

LOCALS.

The talk coming on: Christmas services.

Miss Emille Alexander is expected home Saturday to remain a week.

W. W. Smith, the photographer, will be at his Centre Hall studio Friday.

Hunters report squirrels very scarce. Not a tail was tagged Wednesday by local hunters.

John Stoner, of Millheim, while doing some work in his barn, fell and broke his arm.

Mrs. Flora O. Bairfoot and Gertrud Weaver went to Philadelphia Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J. D. Murray and Mrs. Evelyn Murray spent Wednesday among friends in Bellefonte.

Messrs. L. C. Irvin and W. Grov-Mingle, of Bellefonte, drove through Penna. Valley Wednesday.

Mrs. Witmer Smith and Miss Anna Shortledge, of Bellefonte, Wednesday were guests of Miss Grace Smith.

Mrs. Mary Shoop, of Scranton, arrived in Centre Hall Monday and is the guest of Mrs. Mary J. Odenkirk.

Mrs. S. W. Barr, who had been the guest of W. H. Stiver, a brother, today (Thursday) returned to her home in Tyrone.

Dr. Riter reports a great deal of sickness among horses in both Centre and Clinton counties. He is kept very busy just now.

L. C. Lingle, of Earlstown, lost a heifer. The animal choked on an apple which was removed by the use of a whip. Inflammation set in with the above noted result.

Milton Snyder last week came home from Jeannette on account of a very sore arm. He had the misfortune to, in some way, injure the member, and later erysipelas developed.

Howard Durst will make sale of his farm stock in the spring and move from the Durst homestead. Howard thinks he has graduated as a tenant farmer, and thinks of buying his own home.

John Noll, of Bellefonte, has the contract for the foundation work of the new auditorium at State College, and in order to be with his family while engaged there, moved to State College.

J. E. Harshbarger, of Potters Mills, a short time ago went to Norristown, where he is taking a course in a business college. Young Harshbarger is a gentlemanly and bright young fellow, just the kind of material that is wanted by large corporations and individuals whose business demands clerical work and supervisors.

The directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad company at a meeting in Philadelphia last week authorized the rebuilding of the old Portage railway. By rebuilding the Portage railroad, the Pennsylvania will have a new route for its big freight traffic. Instead of running its freight from Galitzin, through Altoona, to Petersburg, on the main line it is proposed to send the trains over the route by way of Hollidaysburg, the trains to reach the main line at Petersburg.

The Phillipsburg Journal says: J. Will Kepler, of Pine Grove Mills, the popular young Democratic candidate for assembly, who has been spending two or three days in town looking up his interests, left for his home. We sort of look on Will as a Phillipsburg boy. He was born here, being a son of Jacob Kepler, who was a former well-known resident of our town. Will is a bright, intelligent, affable young man, and makes friends wherever he goes. He counts very strongly on being one of the next representatives at Harrisburg from this county, and he will fill the bill O. K.

LOCALS.

Dr. Park's sale Saturday. Mrs. Rebecca Floray moved into the Shreffler house below the Public School Park.

Messrs. John Dauberman, Will D. Shoop and D. J. Meyer are attending the Lewistown fair.

Miss Mary Fesse, who has spent the past year or more in Philadelphia, is now staying in Lemont.

Witmer Lee, after spending several weeks with his parents in this place, returned to Pittsburg Saturday.

Dr. W. U. Irvin, formerly of Julian, has opened an office at Unionville, and later will remove his family to that place.

Frank G. Gamel, secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., has tendered his resignation and gone to Hazelton, to engage in a similar work.

Lost—A black leather watch guard with a gilt buckle was lost somewhere between the Post office and the residence of Alfred Krape on Saturday, Oct. 11. A suitable reward will be given the finder who returns it to Rev. G. W. Kershner.

J. F. Stover, of Potters Mills, was a caller Tuesday. Mr. Stover has worked up a large business in enlarging pictures, which is done by John I. Wynd, Philadelphia. His territory covers Centre and Millin counties, and he finds that the good work furnished by his house is bringing him in many orders.

The Millifield Times says: Comrade Isaac Miller, of Freeport, Ill., visited Washington, D. C., to take in the G. A. R. Encampment, stopped off a day here, going to Centre county Thursday afternoon. He is a brother of Charles Miller, the tanner.—O. F. Mader, of Centre Hall, and Milt Mader and daughter, of Altoona, were guests at the G. W. Mader home last week.

Miss Annie Shaffer, who has been making her home with Sheriff Loveland's family, in Lock Haven, for some time, choked on a piece of meat. Not being able to swallow, she was taken to the hospital, where the obstruction which had lodged in the throat, was removed. When a child, Miss Shaffer swallowed concentrated lye in mistake for cider, since which time she has had a weak throat.

Linden Hall.

Mr. Lower, of Ohio, loaded a car of apples at this place this week.

Miss Viehdorfer, of Pine Glenn, is visiting Miss Daisy Brooks.

Mrs. Gettig has sold her property east of town and is preparing to leave for Pitsairst, where she expects to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Tharp. Mr. Palmer, of Jersey Shore, has bought the Gettig property and will take possession the first of December.

Mrs. Elmer Crissman, who has been ill for some time, is much better. Mrs. Goheen and Miss Letitia Goheen, of Boalsburg, were pleasant callers in town Tuesday.

T. E. Wieland shipped several cars of apples from Pennsylvania Furnace last week and four cars of hay from Gregg siding.

Mrs. Henry Ritz was severely bitten on the arm by a dog one day last week.

Miss Grace Carper, who has been at Centre Hall the past summer, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Frasier, of Bellwood, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Miller.

A. A. Fletcher, of the Howard schools, last week asked the scholars in the "B. Grade" to write their impressions of the town in which they live. The idea is a most excellent one, and one not acquainted with the ability of the average child of twelve to fourteen years of age, will be surprised at the correctness and the minuteness of detail they can and do give, and yet there is great variation in the description. Two compositions, one by Minnie Strunk, aged fourteen years, and the other by Agatha Wensel, aged twelve years, reached this office, and are deserving of special mention. Too little attention is given the children—their work and worth are not properly recognized by many grown people, but the Reporter notes with pleasure the strides of the little folks.
