Sow and Cultivate.

Little people, do you know there is such a thing as sowing and afterwards cultivating a Christmas gift? The Christmas gift can be grown just like the daisy, the lily, the poppy.

When from day to day you are doing your duty you are sowing the Christmas gift seed. When you are an obedient, loving child, when you try to please your mamma and papa you are cultivating the Christmas gift plant, and it is only an inhuman parent that will not permit the plant to yield bountifully.

Farm Talk.

There is a great deal of farm work to be done, and farmers are anxious to have the pleasant weather continue for a month longer.

The second crop of hay was about all housed last week, but there remains considerable cloverseed to be cared for.

The winter apples are not nearly all picked. The crop is a large one, and the quality above the average. Some potatoes remain to be lifted.

The wheat fields present a fine appearance. The present wheat conditions are high perfection.

Fire in Boggs Township.

Orvis Fetzer, of North Boggs township, has been very unfortunate within the last few weeks. He lives on the farm belonging to Francis S. Rhoads.

About a month ago the house which he occupied caught fire and was entirely destroyed; he succeeded, however, in saving a portion of his household goods. He then fitted up the summer house in which he has been living since that time. Friday about noon this building from some unaccountable cause took fire also, and together with its contents was burned to the ground, a cook stove being the only thing saved. It is a sad loss to Mr. Fetzer as he and his family have lost their all, and as there was no insurance it is doubly hard.

Re-Dedictory Services.

The re-dedication of the Reformed church at Boalsburg, of which Rev. A. A. Black is pastor, will take place on Sunday, November 2, at 10 a. m.

The dedication sermon will be delivered by Rev. Lewis Robb, of Altoona. Services will be held at the same hour in the Lutheran church, and will be conducted by Rev. G. W. Kershner, of Centre Hall.

Friday evening previous to the re-dedication, Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt, of Bellefonte, will deliver a sermon. Saturday evening services will also be held, the sermon to be delivered by Rev. J. I. Stoneypher, of Boalsburg.

The historical sermon will be delivered by Rev. W. H. Groh, of Carlisle, a former pastor.

Special music will be rendered at all the services.

THE STRIKE SETTLED.

Union Agrees to Facilitate Prompt Resumption of Mining.

President Roosevelt Tuesday summoned the Coal Commission to meet in Washington on Friday morning next, this action following immediately upon the telegraphic notification from Wilkesbarre that the United Mine Workers' Convention had unanimously accepted the Commission to arbitrate the differences with the operators, and had ordered the men back to work on Thursday.

There was only one session of the Miners' Convention. The Committee on Resolutions made its report in the form of a communication to President Roosevelt, accepting the Commission, and announcing their decision to report for work on Thursday morning, October 23.

Governor Stone said that the troops "will be kept in the coal region just as long as there is any necessity for it." He also said that the troops will not all be recalled at the same time, but that the withdrawal will be gradual.

Methodist Church Dedicated.

As the result of a grove meeting at Hannah about a year ago, a beautiful frame church now stands at that place, the dedication of which took place last Sunday. Rev. E. S. Lathaw is the pastor. The entire indebtedness was provided for, and a balance is left for improvements of a general character.

A Novel Parade.

Ex-Governor Pattison will address a mass meeting at Pottsville on Halloween and the occasion will be marked by a novel parade. The Democratic farmers of Schuylkill county will contribute 1,000 pumpkins, which will be converted into jack o' lanterns and carried in the parade. They will be followed by a cavalcade of miners mounted on mine mules.

Elaborate Celebration.

The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania Free and Accepted Masons, has issued invitations for the sesqui-centennial anniversary of the initiation of Gen. George Washington into the Masonic fraternity. The historic event took place in the lodge of Fredericksburg, Va., November 4, 1752.

The celebration will be held in the Masonic Temple in Philadelphia on Wednesday, November 5. The Centre Hall Lodge will be represented by D. A. Boozer.

Locates Its Bishops.

The United Evangelical General Conference adjourned Tuesday afternoon, after a session lasting thirteen days. The report of the committee, stationing Bishop H. B. Hartzel in the East and Bishop W. E. Heil not farther east than Chicago, was almost unanimously adopted.

The following are the appropriations: East Pennsylvania Conference, $10,000; Central Pennsylvania, $10,000; Illinois, $10,000; Pittsburg, $3,600; Ohio, $5,700; Des Moines, $4,900; Northwest, $8,075; Platte River, $6,250; Kansas, $2,900; Oregon, $4,250. Total, $63,075. The appropriation for home work and miscellaneous purposes was limited to $21,000.

Accidents in Lower Centre Valley.

In lower Centre Valley a number of accidents occurred during the past week that are worthy of notice. The patients are under the care of Dr. C. Sumner Musser, of Aaronsburg, which is a guarantee that they are receiving the best professional attention.

Mrs. Shoemaker, widow of Rev. David Shoemaker, while visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Desher, fell and broke her right arm near the shoulder.

Paul, son of Ed. Boone, of Fiedler, while playing "crack-the-whip," was thrown and broke his collar bone.

Mrs. Samuel Evert, of Coburn, slipped on a wet board and broke her right arm near the wrist.

Mrs. Daniel Bressler, of near Millheim, tripped on the carpet and broke her arm near the shoulder joint.

Popular Missionary Rally.

Miss Charlotte E. Hawes, of Wei Hien, China, will be in Centre Hall on Sunday, October 26th, and will make an address in the Presbyterian church in the evening on "Chinese Life and Work; Escape from the Boxers." Miss Hawes was in the midst of the Boxer troubles and had a very narrow escape from death and many thrilling experiences. She is a very interesting speaker. No one should miss hearing her. On Saturday evening, October 25th, she will speak in the Presbyterian church of Spring Mills. Both meetings are open to the public, and every one is cordially invited to be present. A collection for the missionary cause will be taken. Do not fail to come.

Stover-Musser.

Robert S. Stover and Miss Bessie I. Musser were married Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Musser, on Main street, says the Millheim Journal. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. W. Haven, pastor of the M. E. church. Only a few immediate friends of the family were present. The bride is a popular young lady in that place and for a number of years has been employed in the Bell telephone exchange. The groom is a rising young business man and conducts a jewelry store on Main street. The bride and groom left on the morning train for Pittsburg. All wish the young couple a happy married life.

Large Pumpkins.

Joel Kerstetter is the champion pumpkin grower in Centre county so far as heard from. On his farm, near Centre Hall station, without any special cultivation whatever, he grew eight stalks that developed twenty-four pumpkins, the average weight of which was fifty pounds, the largest of which weighed eighty-five pounds, and two others balanced the scales at sixty-five and sixty-five and one-half pounds, respectively. Mr. Kerstetter will be willing to swap seeds with any one who can beat his pumpkin record.

I. O. O. F. Officers.

Lodge No. 955, of Millheim, installed its officers for the ensuing year. They are:

N. G.—S. M. Campbell. V. G.—C. W. Wyle. Sec.—C. W. Hartman. Treas.—John H. Wagner. R. S. to N. G.—Geo. E. Homan. L. S. to N. G.—B. W. Wyle. Warden.—H. F. Confer. Conductor.—F. M. Stevenson. LOCALS.

It is true that the gang didn't steal the Susquehanna river, but all the same they tried to swipe the bed from under it.

High medical authority states that "laziness" is a disease, and is largely hereditary. In other words, the blame is placed on the ancestors, who, being dead, cannot sue for slander.

Jas. L. McCabe's "Maloney's Wedding Day" will take place at the German opera house, Bellefonte, Friday evening, October 24. It is the merriest jumble of fun and wholesome comedy ever put together.

Mrs. James Stuart and two children, of New Bloomfield, returned to their home Tuesday. Mrs. Stuart had intended taking to her home her mother, Mrs. J. O. Deintinger, but her health had not recovered sufficiently to make the journey.

LOCALS.

The latest advices from China state that Rev. C. Newton Dubs, missionary of the United Evangelical church, is safe. The missionary was in great danger of his life owing to an uprising of the Boxers. A guard surrounded his home for some time.

Fred Meyer, of Rock Springs, had the misfortune of losing four head of cattle Wednesday night of last week. The straw stack in his barn yard blew over and buried three head of young cattle and broke the back of his best cow, which had to be killed.

W. H. Keller went to Milroy beginning of this week to reenter the services of Mr. Beebleheimer who is conducting large lumber operations in the Seven Mountains. Mr. Keller is Mr. Beebleheimer's right-hand man on the saw mill, being a skilled Sawyer.

Misses Tillie and Maybelle Keller accompanied their father as far as Milroy.

J. H. Wetzel, candidate for the assembly, is shaking hands with Democrats and the voters in general in Centre valley during this week. Mr. Wetzel, while in the legislature proved himself a friend of farmers by supporting every measure of possible benefit to their class. By promising to take care of this large class of voters in Centre county, Mr. Wetzel is not making any new promises, but is only promising to repeat his efforts to do the farmers justice if elected in November. What the Republican candidates for assembly will do if elected is a mystery; in fact, they can not positively say themselves, because they will be governed by the party bosses.

AFFLICTED FAMILY.

Aged Man at Farmers Mills Lies Helpless for Months.

Francis Gramly is the head of a family living near Farmers Mills that has been sorely afflicted since last February. Mr. Gramly is about eighty years of age, and at the time mentioned he fell from a sled and broke one of his lower limbs. The break refused to mend, and the old gentleman has been obliged to lie in bed ever since. At present his condition is pitiable. From the waist down he is paralyzed, and his limbs to the heels are covered with bed-sores. Death would be welcomed by him any moment.

To add to this misery, some weeks ago Mrs. Gramly's brother, John Hoy, of Madisonburg, while visiting there was taken ill with typhoid fever, and while he was ill Mrs. McMurtrie, the oldest daughter of Mrs. Gramly, and Mrs. Gramly took the disease. The family is very poor, and the only attendant was a local German nurse provided by the township authorities. The trio of fever patients have recovered.

George Emerick, of Afoikey, Stephenson county, Illinois, died Thursday of last week at the age of seventy-six years. Fifty years ago the deceased went west from this county. His widow and nine children survive.

Many of the Democrats who voted and worked against J. W. Kepler two years ago are his warmest supporters. They discovered that Republicans are incapable of properly representing Centre county in the legislature, and have concluded that it is their duty to support the Democratic nominee for that office. Their judgment is right.

Mr. Green, manager of the electric light works of Altoona, and John Schell, one of his trusted employees, Tuesday of last week came to Centre Hall, stopping with the latter's father, William Schell. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday were spent hunting gray squirrels, and the find was sixty-three. Mr. Green returned to his home Saturday, but Mr. Schell continued his visit with his parents over this week.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Gehert, Bellefonte, was the scene of a very pretty wedding event Thursday morning of last week, when their youngest daughter, Miss Lillian May Gehert was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Orian Allen Kline, a son of Harrison Kline, says the Daily News. The ceremony took place promptly at 11 o'clock and was performed by Rev. Wilford P. Shriner, D. D., of the Methodist Episcopal church. There were about fifty guests in attendance and a delightful wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony.

Capt. A. A. Rhinehart, of Irving, Illinois, was the guest of Capt. George M. Boal, beginning of this week, his prime object in coming east being to attend the National Encampment at Washington. Capt. Rhinehart entered the services of the National Government in 1862, and became Captain of Company D, 148th Pennsylvania Volunteers, and served until the close of the war. He has the distinction of having been a captain who for a time commanded a brigade. At the outbreak of the war, Mr. Rhinehart lived with his father on the farm east of Centre Hall, now occupied by Isaac Smith, the senior Rhinehart having previously lived and conducted the blacksmithing business in Centre Hall and Potters Mills. At the close of the war the Captain, with many other soldiers, went west and engaged in farming, in which calling he has been successful. Mrs. Rhinehart is a daughter of Anthony McAllister, deceased, of Bellefonte.

Troops may be kept in the mining regions several weeks longer to suppress possible rioting. The troops will be withdrawn by regiments, and those stationed at Shensadoah and other districts where the most trouble has taken place will be withdrawn last.

What is the use of keeping up a Democratic county, state and national organization, if Republicans are to represent Democratic interests in the Legislature? If you have any belief whatever in Democracy, you can not vote for Mr. Strohm or Schoonover for assembly.

Dr. W. E. Park and wife will drive to their new home at Nelson, Tioga county, having started this, Thursday, morning. Dr. Park had been at that place several weeks, but took sick and came to this place to recover strength. He had been a resident of this place about three years.

While threshing at the farm of Joe Kling, near Jacksonville, last week, the boiler of John Holmes' traction engine blew up and injured Samuel and Oscar Kling. One of the boys was badly injured about the face which may cause the loss of his vision. The cause of the explosion was due to a leak in the boiler.

Mr. Short, editor of the Clearfield Republican, a Democratic paper, has succeeded in having a commission of investigation appointed to look into the acts of the Republican commissioners of that county who spent $1500.00 for lightning rods, that it is claimed could be purchased for at least $300.00. Republican methods are to lay high taxes, have plenty of money in the treasury, pay big prices for material, etc., and get a rake-off. Centre county voters, look out. If you want the affairs of the county economically administered, vote to continue Democratic rulers in the commissioner's office.

LOCALS.

Frank R. Cox has been appointed post-master at Centre Oak, or Oak Grove.

Dr. Ritter reports having a cabbage head measuring seventeen inches in diameter.

Being so much of a farmer, why doesn't Penytalker give us a speech on rake-offs?
