Spring Mills.

Mrs. Roy Rearick Saturday returned after a brief absence. Mr. Rearick looked quite pleased on the arrival of his wife, of whom it might be said, if the writer were plain spoken, is quite handsome.

Wm. Neese killed two hogs, the combined dressed weight of which was seven hundred and twenty-two pounds. Dr. P. W. Litzell developed two porkers that dressed but one hundred pounds less.

A. K. McManigle, of Milroy, who is identified with large lumber operations, was in town Saturday and had several cars loaded with prop timber, which, by the way, was the first shipped away for some time.

Among the sick reported from the different parts of country surrounding town are Wm. Homan, Charles Wise, and Mrs. Frank Rearick.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hettinger, at the toll gate, had a baby girl enter their home, and although this is the second child the parents are quite happy over the event.

These cold brisk mornings and days do not keep G. W. Dunkle confined to the house, but rather cause him to step more quickly, and discuss current topics with greater earnestness.

Among the most substantial citizens of Gregg township is Samuel Harter, of Georges Valley, who frequently comes to town. Although Mr. Harter spent his entire life in hard work on the farm, he is quite active, and this winter for some weeks cared for the live stock of his tenant, John Hosterman, who was ill and unable to secure help.

The bell for the Lutheran church is expected to arrive any day. The purchase was made some time ago from the C. S. Bell Company, Ohio, for $150.00, the company making a handsome contribution toward the fund. The weight of the bell stripped of fixtures is eight hundred pounds.

The sick are all slowly improving. Mrs. Wm. Musser left last Saturday for Altoona, where she expects to visit her mother, and her daughter Marion, who is attending school there.

John Leitzell, of Lewisburg, spent several days hunting, with good success. Mrs. Braucht, wife of Dr. Braucht, and son Dean, went to Howard to visit her sister, Mrs. Jonas Condo.

Prof. Rearick made a business trip to Lewisburg. "Stackey" Brown, the popular landlord of Milroy, and Brown McNitt, stopped for a short time on their way from Woodward. "Stackey" had a couple pounds of Swiss cheese with him which were sampled by Major Huss, and pronounced fine.

M. B. Duck, residing a short distance above the village, received a paralytic stroke early on Monday morning last; his condition is very critical. The genial editor of the Reporter made a flying visit to this place last week. We are always glad to greet Mr. Smith, but unfortunately, Spring Mills sees him rarely of late.

Miss Orpha, the accomplished daughter of T. M. Gramley, of this place, has charge of the intermediate school of the village, and has proven herself a teacher of rare tact and admirable ability for managing and training children. Her influence and absolute control of the scholars in her department borders on the marvelous. When the session begins decorum and order reign supreme, and continues until the session ends, and it is not from any fear of punishment or detention after school hours, that they all bow to her authority and yield obedience. But all the scholars appear to love her and strive their utmost to please her. Naturally with such a thoroughly competent instructor—a teacher who takes a pride and interest in the work, is patient, impartial and always has a kind word for her young pupils, is ever ready to assist and explain any lesson beyond the immediate comprehension of their youthful minds, make rapid strides in all their studies. Miss Gramley's appointment as a teacher in the Academy was a very fortunate one and while displaying her skill in teaching young ideas how to sprout, has won golden opinions from all sorts of people.

Mrs. W. Willis Rishel, of Montgomery, who visited her mother, Mrs. D. H. Ruhl and other friends for a week or more, left for her home last Saturday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Ruhl, who will spend the winter with her daughter.

Rev. Charles Stover, of Clearfield county, arrived here Tuesday to attend the funeral of his brother, Jeremiah Stover, which took place at Farmers Mills Wednesday.

Mrs. C. A. Krapp made a short visit to her sister, Mrs. P. H. Meyer, residing at Boalsburg.

Mrs. Lizzie Bartholomew, who for the last four years has lived in the home of Hon. Wm. M. Allison, left last Tuesday for Curwensville, where she intends making her future home, and will assume the household duties in the home of Harry Teats. Mrs. Bartholomew, during her stay at this place has made a large number of friends, all of whom regret very much to see her leave.

At this writing M. B. Duck, residing about two and one-half miles west of town is in a serious condition. He was partially paralyzed on Sunday night, and since that time has been unconscious. On this account Allie Duck, his son, closed his school in Penn Hall.

Thomas Decker, who was reported as having typhoid fever, is improving to such an extent that he is able to be out again. Mrs. C. J. Finkle is also able to resume her accustomed duties, while the daughter, Miss Elsie, is convalescent.

Mrs. Duncan Runkle and little daughter Edyth, who are suffering from typhoid fever, are slowly improving.

The stores are all dressed in their holiday attire, and present a beautiful appearance. They remind all that Christmas is near and impress the fact that the gay festivities of the Christmas season are about to begin.

Christmas services will be held in the Reformed church Sunday afternoon and in the Methodist church the night before Christmas.

Turkeys are in great demand through this country at the exorbitant price of twelve cents a pound. A Christmas turkey at such prices is quite a luxury.

Farmers Mills.

Merchant John Rishel was to Georgetown last week, to see the doctor of Hickory Corner.

D. H. Rearick purchased a fine colt from Calvin Garbrick, of Nittany. Edward Dunkle has shot fifteen rabbits this season.

Al. Bradford and Charles Stover have quite a time keeping track of their dogs. John Hagen bought some fine shoats from William Rishel this week.

Mr. Thompson, of Nittany, passed through here looking for fat stock. Charles Hagen shot a fine rabbit this week, the first one he shot.

Charles McCool, who is working for Miller Goodhart, spent Sunday at his home in Spring Mills. Good sleighing in this community.

Aaronsburg.

Geo. E. Stover has returned home after having been engaged as carpenter at Windber a few months.

The Calathumpians were out serenading Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Saturday evening.

A. S. Stover wishes to inform the public that he will start a singing school on Saturday evening which it is hoped all will attend.

Luther Bower is the happiest man in town, since a baby boy arrived. Mrs. Phoebe Kreamer and son, of Bellefonte, are visiting Mrs. Kreamer's brother, A. S. Stover.

Miss Nellie Weaver has gone to spend a few weeks with friends in Spring Mills. Mrs. Ella Irely and daughter, of Warren, are the guests of Dr. C. S. Musser.

Mr. and Mrs. Olen Glenn are visiting Mrs. Glenn's parents, Allen Keener's.

Oak Hall.

Miss Mary Eiters is still confined to her bed with inflammatory rheumatism. Miss Anna Kaup is able to sit up again.

We are having fine sleighing at the present time. Harry Lonebarger, Linden Hall's jolly pedagogue, spent Saturday at the county seat.

Edward Sellers spent a day last week at Bellefonte. Prof. C. L. Gramley visited our schools last Tuesday.

E. K. Smith is hobbling around with an attack of lumbago. John Reish, of Centre Hall, spent Saturday evening and part of Sunday at the home of Mr. Barnhart.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Homan are the proud parents of a new boy that came to their home last Wednesday to stay.

The religious services held at Lemont are largely attended by our people.

Centre Hill.

Misses Lola and Margie Strohm Friday returned from Bellefonte, where Miss Lola had been employed in Miss Snyder's millinery store.

J. F. Bible and mother spent Friday with Mrs. Samuel Bruss, near Centre Hill. D. C. Rossman and wife arrived last week on a visit to their many friends.

Mr. Rossman Tuesday returned to York, where he is engaged in a grain, coal and feed yard, but Mrs. Rossman will remain a month or more with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bible.

George was seen driving his new horse Saturday. Guess he is getting ready to take his lady out sleigh riding. How about it, Cordie?

Peter Smith made a trip to Millin county last week, with some fine porkers. Milton Benner and Miss Esther L.

Christmas Goods

"Yes, here is the place we have been looking for. Look at the Christmas gifts! Here we can get something that will please our friends, and they can get what will please us! So here we will buy."

This is what we hear our customers say when they come and see our goods, so be sure to come before the best selections are all made.

We have a very nice line of candies of all assortments for Christmas. It is not the low priced candy we are calling your attention to, but the good candy we are selling at a low price. Don't think you are getting goods that are "no good" for anybody, but the best to be had.

Remember while you are buying your Christmas goods we have a full line of winter goods that are just in season at present. Underwear for men, women and children. Footwear of all description. Hats, Caps, Fascinators, Hoods, Kerchiefs, fancy and plain, Rubber and Leather goods, Outings, Flannels, Blankets, both bed and horse, Duck coats, at all prices, also lots of other things we will have to offer you when you come.

We are at the proper place, Centre Hall station.

J. Frank Smith.

Smith spent Sunday evening at Frank Moyer's.

G. W. Smith took a sled load to the county seat Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Goodhart expect their daughter, Mrs. Evans, home sometime this week.

Colyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McClellan, of Millheim, are visiting his mother, Mrs. McClellan, of this place.

Miss Ray Smith, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Mary Moyer. Miss Cora Houtz, of Pleasant Gap, is assisting her parents to move to Millroy.

Miss Leah Kline, of Oak Hall, is making her home with Harry Fleisher's.

Mrs. Elias Rickert and son James, of Yegertown, visited her parents at this place.

Misses Katie Boal and Lydia Ishler, of this place, spent Monday at Centre Hall.

Benjamin Rickert and Stuart Jordan and family spent Sunday evening at the home of Frank Bogdan, at Potters Mills.

Mrs. Nancy Weiss is visiting at the home of George Bitner. Emmet and Stuart Jordan were out hunting Monday and met with good success, returning with two rabbits.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lee were guests at the home of George Bitner on Wednesday.

Mrs. Andrew Jordan and son Greeley, spent Sunday at the home of Chas. Stoner, at Tusseyville.

Mrs. Mary Long was a guest at the home of Arthur Lee on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Floray and son Guy, were guests at the home of Aaron Detwiler on Sunday.

PROCLAMATION!

Frigid Zone Nov 27, 1902. I, the Original and Only Santa Claus, God-Father of the Little Chaps, hereby make proclamation:—

I have appointed Mr. Edwin F. Garman, of 32 Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa., as my special agent in your city to sell all the Skates, Dolls, Toys, Games, etc., which I have designated for you for the past twelve months. I have also ordered and commanded Garman to make known to you that I will be with you early Christmas morning, dressed in my best and richest clothes, and will give to all good children those nice Christmas candies and presents which I have so carefully put up: so you will surely find me. I want you all to be good. Remember, I am the original old Santa Claus; I will come down all the way from the North Pole in my special sleigh, drawn by my pet reindeer.

Given on the 27th day of November, in the 1902nd year of my glorious reign in the Frigid Zone.

SANTA CLAUS. GARMAN'S STORE. His Agent, Bellefonte, Pa.
