Milton Snyder is selling a patent door strip that will save many buckets of coal for those who have them placed on their doors. Mr. Snyder weeks ago was unfortunate in slightly cutting his hand while working at his trade in Jeannette, and later erysipelas set in and during all this time he has been unable to do work of any kind. Any purchase made from him will in a manner assist him in supporting himself and family, and at the same time secure for the purchaser an article that will many times save its first cost.

DEATHS.

MRS. ELIZABETH BOOZ.

Mrs. Elizabeth Booz died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. F. Christine, Hardin, Ohio, Wednesday morning of last week. The lady Saturday previous had taken a severe cold, which grew worse, and on Tuesday following she was obliged to take her bed. Her death Wednesday forenoon was a shock to the household, as her condition was not thought to be so serious.

Her age was sixty-nine years. Interment was made at Elysburg, Northumberland county, this state, the deceased's former home. The remains were accompanied to their final resting place by Rev. and Mrs. F. F. Christine and their son, Fred L. Christine, the latter joining them at Duquesne, Pennsylvania.

The deceased is well known in Centre Hall, having had her home with the Christine family for a part of the time they were residents of this place.

MERVIN HOMAN.

The death of Mervin Homan cast a gloom over Farmers Mills and vicinity, when the sad news was received Friday of last week. The young man, who is a son of Samuel Homan, and was aged about twenty years, was engaged at the Standard Steel Works, near Lewistown prior to his illness, which covered a period of about twenty days. His death occurred at the home of his brother, W. Robert Homan, at Lewistown, and Friday the body of the young man was brought to his father's home at Farmers Mills.

Interment took place Monday forenoon, in Union cemetery, Rev. Rearick, Rev. Koontz and Rev. Wolf participating in conducting the services.

The deceased was an exemplary young man, and had ability over the average youth of his age. The pallbearers were his two brothers—W. Robert and Arthur Homan, Tibben Zubbler, George Long, Harry Hagen and Perry D. Sweller.

SAMUEL GRAMLEY.

Samuel Gramley died at his Rebersburg home Tuesday afternoon, after an illness that extended over a period of several weeks. The direct cause of his death was heart failure, but he had been generally broken down man for months previous. Interment will take place Friday, 10 o'clock, Rev. C. B. Harman, of the Lutheran church officiating.

Samuel Gramley was the descendant of a German family who came to this country about the middle of the eighteenth century. In 1793 Francis Gramley, grandfather of the deceased, settled in Brush Valley, and purchased an immense tract of land. Upon his death each of his children inherited valuable property. Philip Gramley was the sixth son of Francis, and the father of the subject of this sketch, and he also accumulated wealth. His death occurred in 1869.

Samuel Gramley was born March 4, 1827. His boyhood days were spent on the farm. He attended school but a few months before he was ten years old.

In 1848 and 1849 Mr. Gramley attended the Millinburg Academy, after which he taught school regularly until 1870. In the meantime he mastered surveying by private study.

On August 7, 1849, Mr. Gramley was married in Aaronsburg, to Miss Sarah J. Smull, a native of Miles township, a daughter of Henry Smull. Seven children were born of this union: Isabella and Tiras J. died in infancy. Prof. Cephas L., Titus M., in the creamery business at Spring Mills; Naomi J., wife of Charles Heckman, of Clinton county; Clement H., farmer at the old homestead in Miles township; Ada E., wife of William T. Hubler, resides at the old homestead. Mr. Gramley spent money liberally to educate his children, who have shown their appreciation by making good use of their opportunities. The mother of this family died May 14, 1880, and was buried at Rebersburg. Mr. Gramley afterwards married a second wife, Mrs. Catharine A. Ocker, daughter of Daniel Spangler, of Union county, and widow of the late Wm. Ocker, of Snyder county.

In his political views Mr. Gramley was a pronounced Republican, although he was a Democrat until Lincoln's first term. In 1870 he was chosen county commissioner of this county, and served nearly three years; in 1869 he was elected justice of the peace, which office he held for fifteen years. Early in life he united with the Lutheran church, for forty years was secretary of the society and for many years an elder. He has always been active in the Sunday school, in which he held the office of superintendent thirty-four years.
