Spring Mills.

Rev. Kuntz, of the United Evangelical church, left on Monday morning for Baltimore. The conference with which he is connected meets in that place this week. His many friends hope he will be sent back to this field again.

The Spring Mills schools will begin their spring term April 13, 1903, with Prof. W. P. Hosterman conducting the normal and Miss Orpha Gramley the primary department.

Last Saturday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cummings gave a very delightful dinner party in honor of their daughter Anna, it being her twelfth birthday. Miss Anna was the recipient of many useful gifts from her friends. The young folks had a very enjoyable time and returned home at an early hour.

It was George Dunkle's move last Tuesday. Mr. Dunkle started the flittings in this place, moving into the Ad. Neese home along the railroad. Krider Frank expects to move into the house vacated by Mr. Dunkle.

Miss Orpha Gramley spent Sunday visiting her brother at Boalsburg.

Prof. A. M. Allison spent Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Braucht. Hon. Wm. M. Allison made a short trip to Bellefonte this week, visiting his brother Archibald, who sustained injuries from a fall on the ice some time ago.

Aaronsburg.

Miss Annie Edmunds, who has spent the greater part of the winter in Renova, returned home for a few weeks.

David Summers, of Monessen, is spending a few weeks under the parental roof.

Mrs. Catharine Barner and children, of Lock Haven, are the guests of Mrs. Barner's father, Frank Detwiler.

Herbert Smull and wife, of Smulltown, spent Sunday at the residence of Jesse Wert.

Mr. and Mrs. Ketter, of Yeagerstown, spent a day at the home of Herbert Condo.

Miss Jennie Hull is spending a few days at Landlord King's, at Coburn.

Miss Margaret Mayes, one of the most fashionable seamstresses, is busily engaged sewing at her home on W. Main Street.

Charles Smith and sister Clara, of Penn Hall, tarried a few days with their uncle, Wilmer Stover's.

Forest Leitzell and family have moved from this place to Illinois, where he has secured steady employment.

Smulltown.

Ed. Winters and wife, of Millheim, spent Sunday in this place.

Dr. Musser is seen passing through town every day.

Mame Wolfe, of this place, spent Sunday at Aaronsburg.

Amos Fehl and son, Noah, were to Loganton a few days last week.

The people on the sick list are all improving.

Geo. Smull, the Life Insurance Agent made a trip to New York last week.

Wanted at Once.

- 100 bushels, good, sound Apples. 200 bushels Potatoes. 500 pounds of Lard. 500 pounds of Live Poultry. Must have the above at once. Highest market price paid in cash or merchandise. O. T. KORMAN, 44, Spring Mills, Pa.

Colyer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Colyer entertained a large and merry crowd of young people Monday evening of last week. Every one enjoyed the games and fine music by the string band, and Leslie Jacobs, of Centre Hall, rendered some fine selections on his graphophone. Those present were, James Stover and wife, Dr. H. S. Alexander and wife, Asher Stahl and wife, Thos. Palmer and wife, Misses Cordelia Acker, Anna Bebelheimer, Ray Smith, Rhoda Royer, Mary Wolf, Ada Stover, Bertha Bible, Alice Decker, Jennie Sweetwood, Messrs. Charles Lucas, James Godhart, John Armstrong, Ammon Burkholder, George Smith, Harry Bible, Frank McCoy, Samuel Johnson, John Bitner, Blain Palmer, Lloyd Smith, Alex. McCoy, Michael Smith, all of Potters Mills; Thomas Swartz, Tusseyville; Henry Shadow, Arthur B. Lee and wife, Colyer; Miss Ruth Swabb, Aaronsburg; Ray Burns, Pitsburg; Leslie Jacobs, Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bortoff spent Sunday at the home of Frank Bogdan at Potters Mills.

Miss Carrie Bortoff returned home Saturday, after spending several months at State College, with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Ripka.

Harry Decker, of Egg Hill, transacted business at the home of William Reiber, Friday last.

Howard Shadow, of Yeagerstown, spent Sunday at home.

Among those on the sick list are Mrs. George Lee and Miss Marion Meiss. All are improving.

Thomas Boal and sisters, Misses Nora and Emma, of Stone Mill, spent Sunday evening at the home of P. B. Jordan.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cummings and daughter Carrie spent Sunday at the home of Charles Frazier.

Misses Virgie and Pearl Kritzer spent Sunday at the home of William Bower.

The first sign of spring was noticed Monday morning by the appearance of a flock of blue birds.

The funerals of Mrs. O. K. Love and Mary Dashev were well attended considering the unfavorable weather.

Mrs. Clyde Boyer, of Boalsburg, is visiting her uncle, J. R. Lee.

James Runkle and family, of Tusseyville; Mrs. Lydia High, and Mr. and Mrs. James Runkle, Jr., of Colyer, spent Wednesday evening at the home of J. H. Moyer.

P. B. Jordan, of Colyer, and Maurice Runkle, of Tusseyville, had quite an upset on the way to the sale Saturday. No one was injured.

Charles Frazier and Lloyd Smith left Monday for Altoona, where they will be employed on the railroad.

News reached this place Monday of the death of Mrs. Ed. Detwiler, nee Sadie McClellan, at her home at Reedsville.

The children of James Horner were all at home on Sunday; they are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Horner, Farmers Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Clair Stamm, Linden Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Elias Rieckert, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkie Horner, Colyer; Miss Edna, Bellefonte; Miss Bertha, at home. All enjoyed the day.

Dora Wingard spent Sunday at the home of her mother.

Murray's School District.

There were quite a lot of farmers from this section attended Wm. Houser's sale, below Aaronsburg.

H. B. Haugh made a business trip to the east end of the valley.

Ethel Miller entertained her grandmother, Mrs. Weaver, Saturday.

Misses Blanche and Gerlie Lambert had a quilting party Saturday. As a big time was expected Mr. Lambert killed a beef for the occasion.

Saturday was a rainy and stormy day.

Pigs and shoats do not seem to be very plenty in this section this spring.

There will not be very much moving in this section this spring. The changes will be noted later.

Supervisor John Breen was around settling. He also opened the roads that had been drifted shut.

It is very inconvenient for the people of this section to get their mail since the Penns Cave post office has been closed, but we hope Uncle Sam will soon be around with his mail wagon.

Hirelings are scarce in this section, and a fair price is being offered for farm help this spring.

Most of the farmers are at present cutting wood for summer.

Jesse Long will be proprietor of the Cave house this summer.

Daniel Ream purchased a new organ last week, and those who like music should call on him as he can sing as well as play.

Wakened Children.

For a long time the two year old child of Mr. P. L. McPherson, 50 N. Tenth Street, Harrisburg, would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble and gave her half of one of Chamberlin's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville, F. A. Carson Potters Mills, C. E. Finkle, Spring Mills.

Potters Mills.

Mrs. Calvin Ruhl went to Union county to visit her husband's parents. The other day Edward Allison was standing looking at his stock, not thinking of danger, and in the twinkling of an eye his buck sheep struck him from behind, knocking him down, but in falling he landed on the buck's back, breaking the fall. The buck backed for another shot but Mr. Allison was wise, kept his head down, rolled away and jumped up in time to catch the buck by the head thus saving himself from being badly hurt. He received a slight injury to his leg, but otherwise he don't mind the encounter.

Last Saturday Miss Cordelia Acker held a banquet at the school house in honor of her scholars. Cake and ice cream were served. Miss Acker is a noble young lady and deserves much credit for the work she has done for her school.

J. F. McCoy made a business trip to Bellefonte.

James Malone was in town and in bad shape; James is one of the finest leather finishers on the road.

W. C. Bible is home from Burnham and is on the sick list; he has tonsillitis and a stiff neck and is not improving very fast.

A few days ago James Reish thought he would have a fox hunt and gathered his hounds together and started for the mountain. In a short time the baying of the hounds was heard and they started a red fox for Boal's Gap and Treaster's Mountain, where the fox made several trips with the hounds in pursuit. Mr. Reish shot many times and at last brought the fox to the ground by a well directed shot. He arrived home in good time, but very tired, the hounds bringing up the rear with drooping tails and ears.

J. D. Decker was in town and in a good humor, but does not like the proposed rural delivery system.

Deputy Sheriff Brungart was in town last week on business; he does not look as though he was getting illegal fees from the county, as the Gazette charges him with. Mr. Brungart is a man of unimpeachable character.

As your correspondent from this place has so far failed to give the readers of your paper an idea of the business activity and the principal infant industries of this prosperous village, the people of this community will be enlightened through your columns. One of the infant industries is raising pups. F. A. Carson, the merchant, has several kennels of highly bred, bird dogs. J. P. Strong has kennels of the Climber Spaniel, Water Spaniel, St. Bernard, Bull, Fox Hounds, Beagle, pointer, P. M. Setters, and various other breeds which are simply dogs. Mr. Strong is an exporter of dogs, sending them to all climates, including the suburbs of this village. The puppies readily become acclimated to the streets, chicken nests, broom handles and stove wood. Mr. Strong is considering the advisability of purchasing a dog incubator, also of having his infant industry protected by legislation. In the exporting of dogs he has as lively competitors in the open markets of the world Dr. Sweetwood and Uncle Johnny Bitner. Mr. Strong is also a breeder and raiser of fancy poultry—he never receives less than 25c for his eggs. When eggs are low in price, however, he gives more eggs for 25c than when high in price.

In our next letter we will give a brief history of Mr. Carson's Ferris wheel, in Laurel Run, and Jake's perpetual motion.

Mrs. James Moyer spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Smith, while Mr. Moyer was settling up poor tax. Mr. Moyer is the right man in the right place and should be kept there as long as he will accept.

Rev. Haven, of Spring Mills, was calling on his members Friday.

Mrs. Ammon Bubb spent a few days last week with her parents.

Potters Mills Orchestra deserves much praise for their kindness in furnishing such elegant music on different occasions.

Fair View Grange, of Spruceville, held their annual banquet last Saturday, about a hundred people being present. Oysters, beef, chicken and choice cakes were among the delicacies served. The program consisted of addresses, recitations and singing, also music rendered by Potters Mills Orchestra. The members left nothing undone to entertain the visitors.

Mrs. Alta Bebelheimer, of Milroy, visited Mr. Bebelheimer of this place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Smith entertained a number of people Tuesday evening, including a sled load from Centre Hall. The Orchestra and Cordelia Acker entertained the company with music and songs. Dr. Alexander and James Stover also sang a duet. Ice cream and cake were served.

Primary school—Cordelia Acker teacher—Number of pupils enrolled, male, 17; female, 11; total 28; average attendance, male, 15; female, 9; total, 24; per cent. of attendance, male, 86; female, 80; total 86. Pupils who attended every day are Minnie Workinger, Ruth Smith, Calvin Bedelton, Wm. Reish, Lowell Alexander, John Smith, Floyd Decker and James Thomas.

Pine Grove Mills.

It was a happy gathering at the home of grandmother Elizabeth McWilliams, near Pennsylvania Furnace, to remind her of her seventy-fifth mile stone of her life. A splendid dinner was served and the afternoon was spent in hearing reminiscences of long ago by the older people while the younger ones enjoyed the games and fun. The old lady is noted for her many good motherly qualities and christian character. The happy folks bid her adieu, wishing her many more returns of anniversaries.

Last Thursday evening the I. O. U. A. M., of No. 515, Tussey Council, held their ninth annual banquet at the St. Elmo, where mine host Randolph and his good wife made every body feel at home. One hundred plates were set for the juniors and their guests. J. H. Ward catered to the occasion; oysters, ice cream and cake were served with a liberal hand. Miss Maude Decker is deserving of special mention for presenting a banner cake on which the motto of the order was inscribed. The Pine Grove Mills orchestra furnished the music; the team captain W. H. Fry was made toastmaster and kept the crowd in a joyous mood. Those who responded to toasts were, Prof. Morris, Rev. C. T. Aikens, and David Fulton. The evening will long be remembered by those who had the good fortune to be present.

On Friday evening the Pine Grove Mills High School celebrated their mid-winter banquet in the new I. O. O. F. hall, when over one hundred covers were laid for the members, parents and friends. Misses Clara Ward and Belle Confer catered to the occasion in the style of chicken and waffle, ice cream and cake. Miss Sadie Goss baked the banner cake, on it was inscribed P. G. H. School. Capt. W. H. Fry was chosen toast master. He thanked the school for the high honor conferred on him to preside over the deliberations and recalled school days of long ago in the famous seat of learning, the old Pine Grove Mills Academy and pointed with pride to men of prominence, Governors, Congressmen, LL D's, M. D's, O. B. Krebs, Prof. Morris, Rev. C. T. Aikens, Prof. Wm. Keller and others responded to toasts. The Pine Grove Mills orchestra with Mary Ward presiding at the organ, furnished the music. The class royally entertained the big crowd with recitations and songs. The stage was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Much credit is due the committee, Emory Johnson, Homer Decker and Mack Fry, for the excellent program that was carried out to the letter.

For House-keepers.

Those who contemplate starting house-keeping will do well to visit John Smith & Bros. furniture store, Spring Mills. They carry the largest stock of furniture in Penns Valley to select from, in fact you can class them with goods in city stores. The bedroom suits range in quality from medium to quartered oak and polished finish. Stoves and ranges, carpets, oilcloths and rugs, window shades, curtain poles, parlor and mantle clocks. They have entire control of Penns Valley on a combination mattress, no straw, at four dollars. Special sale of wall paper while it lasts. Don't fail to visit their store before buying elsewhere.

The many friends of John Blount will be pleased to learn that he has entirely recovered from his attack of rheumatism. Chamberlain's Pain Balm cured him after the best doctors in town, Monon, Ind., had failed to give relief. The prompt relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by C. W. Swartz, Tusseyville, F. A. Carson, Potters Mills, C. E. Finkle, Spring Mills.
