Postmaster Krape will occupy his new building the last of the week. The store room and postoffice department are very handsomely fitted up.

John F. Heckman is remodeling the residence he recently purchased and when completed it will add greatly to the appearance of the neighborhood.

On Saturday evening last a meeting was called by the old veterans to meet at the residence of George W. Dunkle, to make preparations and to frame a program for Memorial Day. In addition to other business it was unanimously resolved that they were unalterably opposed to the holding of fairs, festivals, base ball games, or any enterprise or amusement of a similar character on that day. And it was further resolved, to request all patriotic citizens to condemn and frown down any such attempt to make an occasion so solemn as Memorial Day, one of amusement, mirth and levity.
