DEATHS.

MRS. SUSAN MILLER.

Susan Miller died at the home of her son, Veterinary Surgeon H. H. Miller, Rebersburg, Saturday, and was interred Tuesday in the Evangelical cemetery, Rev. S. Smith officiating. Her age was seventy-eight years, nine months. The deceased was the widow of Joseph Miller, whose death occurred a little over two years ago.

The mother is survived by four children, namely, H. H. Miller, Rebersburg; Mrs. Jane Grimm and Mrs. Emma Hazel, Kansas, and Mrs. King, of Millburg. The youngest son, Wilson, died at the age of eighteen years. Mrs. Miller's death was very sudden. She was in her normal condition of health until a few hours before her death when she took a chill.

MRS. SARAH MILLER.

Mrs. Sarah Miller, wife of Michael Miller, died at her home in Madisonburg Sunday afternoon, aged sixty-three years, after an illness of seven months. She leaves to survive her husband, one son, George E., of near Madisonburg, and four daughters, Mrs. Clark Gramley and Mrs. C. H. Smull, of Rebersburg, Mrs. C. H. Zeigler, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. Reuben Vonada, at home.

To the Farmers.

Farm products in Pennsylvania this year will bring fair prices. This will cause the farmer to think much of his bushels, pounds and dollars. But efficient help on the farm can hardly be had and any help will cost more than it can produce. This will tempt the farmer to overwork himself and his family. Don't do it. Plow fewer acres. Plan for no more work than you can keep well on hand. Attend grange and farmers' meetings regularly. Do not grind the life out of yourself and wife and drive the boys and girls from the farm. At the end of the year you may have just as many dollars and what is better there will be a favorable balance in the happiness account.

A Relic of Bound-boy Days.

In a pile of scrap iron sold at the public sale of Henry Winn, deceased, in Liberty Valley, Juniata county, was found what was known in the eighteenth century as a "bound-boy's" collar, which was worn by all boys who were indentured or bound out in olden times and if they ran away they could be easily identified and returned to their master. This collar bore the following inscription, "Edward Thatcher, Tuscarora Valley, 1781," and no doubt this collar was worn by boys who were bound out to Mr. Thatcher. It looks like an "implement of torture," having prongs extending out about three inches on either side.

NEW ROAD LAW.

State Appropriates $6,500,000 to be Expended on Public Highways.

Governor Pennypacker signed the Sprout Good Roads bill. It passed the House finally Tuesday with four opposing votes, and 186 for it. The measure appropriates $6,500,000 for highways to be expended during six years. The bill further provides for the establishment of a State highway department. The Governor is to appoint a Commissioner, who shall be a civil engineer, and receive a salary of $3500 a year. The Commissioner shall appoint one assistant at $2000 a year, a chief clerk at $1500 and a stenographer at $1000. The State Highway Commissioner shall supervise the expenditure of the money appropriated for good roads.

Of the $6,500,000 appropriation $500,000 is to be expended in each of the ensuing two years. The third and fourth years, $1,250,000; fifth and sixth years, $1,500,000 each. The money distribution is to be based upon township road mileage.

The County Commissioners will give the State Highway Commissioner the township statistics of the expense; the State is to bear two-thirds and a township and its county each one-sixth.

The minimum length of road to be improved is reduced from 2500 ft. to a quarter of a mile.

The right to determine whether the improvements are to be upon a continuous road is transferred from the State Commissioners to the County Commissioners, and the latter are to specify the kind of road to be made.

The New Jersey definition of "good roads" is adopted. If a township does not want its money share the first year it may have two years' share in the second year.
