Large Paper Contract.

The New York and Pennsylvania paper manufacturing company, whose factories are at Lock Haven and Johnsonburg, was awarded a contract by the national internal revenue bureau to furnish 1,500,000 pounds of paper at four and seven-sixteenths cents. The company also placed a bid to furnish 500,000 pounds of paper to be used for the printing of postage stamps. The Lock Haven Mills have furnished the paper for the latter purpose for a number of years.

Appropriations Pared $500,000.

Governor Pennypacker cut down appropriations to charitable institutions to the extent of $500,000. The institutions in Central Pennsylvania were given the full amount set down in the appropriation bills passed by the Legislature, thus: Bellefonte Hospital, $5,000. Williamsport Training School, $4000. Same Colored Women's Home, $5000. Same Home for Friendless, $10,000. Williamsport Hospital, $35,000. Harrisburg Hospital, $37,500. Lock Haven Hospital, $5,000. Pennsylvania State College, $139,116. Phillipsburg Hospital, $17,600. State Normal Schools, $290,000. State Col. Ex'm'ntal Station, $2,000. Childrens Aid Society, Pa., $15,000. Huntingdon Reformatory, $230,000.

DECKER THE STANDARD BEARER.

The Republican County Convention Closes in Farrellet Style.

The Republican county convention Tuesday was well attended so far as delegates were concerned, but the audience was limited to that class, save a few Bellefonte Republicans and Democrats, who watched the work of the convention.

Chairman Reeder called the convention to order. After reading of the call for same, Wilson I. Fleming nominated John M. Dale for chairman. The secretaries elected were James B. Strohm, Centre Hill, and Harry S. Stuart, Sandy Ridge.

After the appointment of a committee on resolutions of which Wilson I. Fleming was chairman, George Smith, of Centre Hill, nominated John D. Decker, of Potter township, for Jury Commissioner. His nomination, like all the other acts of the convention, was made unanimous.

The delegates elected to the state convention to be held May 27, were Messrs. Eli Townsend, of Phillipsburg, and T. H. Harter, of Bellefonte.

Wilbur F. Reeder was then elected chairman, and at this instant Mr. Fleming emerged from the committee room assuming an unconscious air as to what had happened.

New rules governing the party nominations and the appointment of local chairmen were then adopted. These rules were several years ago defeated by the insurgent element, but it was only under the agreement that these rules should become operative that Mr. Reeder was permitted to become county chairman. The new rules tie the chairman's hands, as they provide for the election of local chairmen by the voters of the district.

Next came the resolutions, in which credit was given to the Republican party for every laudable thing under the sun.

The resolutions inspired the orators, and the mentioning of a name brought the favored sons to their feet.

The farce begins:

Judge Love excused himself for making a political speech, which apology was probably due to the niceness of being punctilious as pointed out by Attorney-General Carson in his reference to Governor Pennypacker.

Reeder came next, but his speaking machine was unsuccessful in producing applause. He opened his remarks by paying disrespectful compliments to the Democratic party; he shouted, but no one approved of his remarks.

Townsend, Coburn and Dale each took their turns to talk, as did also Harter.

Meeting of Classis.

The West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church is in session at Boalsburg, and will continue until Sunday evening, inclusive. Full program in last week's issue.

New Axe Factory at Mill Hall.

Upon what is supposed to be good authority, it is stated that a new axe factory is to be erected at Mill Hall that will have a capacity of one thousand axes per day. It is said members of the Mann family are interested in the new axe plant.

Heavy Fire Loss.

Mr. Brown, the well known lumberman on the Tyrone Branch railroad, his shipping point being the Junction, midway between Pennsylvania Furnace and Scotia, had two heavy losses by forest fires. The first was last week when his saw mill and landing were destroyed near Reedsville, and this week five hundred cords of paper wood located at various points near the Junction, were burned.

G. A. R. Encampment

For the benefit of those desiring to attend the Annual Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Pennsylvania, at Allentown, June 1 to 6, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Allentown from all stations on its line in the State of Pennsylvania, on May 31, June 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, good to return until June 6, inclusive, at rate of a single fare for the round trip. For specific rates, apply to local ticket agents.

The Weather.

The temperature reached its highest point for May Monday when mercury rose to eighty-nine degrees. The precipitation for the month to date was but twenty-eight one hundredth of an inch—on third 27 and eighteenth 01. Since April eighteenth the rain fall measures .44 of an inch, which is unusually small for that period of the year. Vegetation, grass and grain is suffering on account of drought. Much of the corn and oats, barley and potatoes will not come up until rain comes.

Festival at Centre Hall.

The Centre Hall fire company has arranged to hold a festival in Public School Park on the evening of Memorial Day. All the delicacies of the season will be served. The Penn Hall band will be present to enliven the occasion with music. An effort will be made to entertain every one. The proceeds, of course, will be applied to the purchasing of appliances needed in fighting fire, and no one interested in Centre Hall should hesitate to liberally support the movement.

LOCALS.

Ascension Day.

The Penn Hall band will be here on Memorial Day.

Robbie McCormick, who fell and broke his leg, several weeks ago, is improving rapidly.

Roland Kerr, of Chicago, son of Mrs. Myra Kerr, of this place, was an arrival this, Thursday, morning.

Rev. R. J. Sample (Lutheran) died at Punxsutawney. He was formerly of Milroy where the interment took place.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Straw and Jacob Straw, of Braddock, were in Boalsburg, their former home, last week, on the sad mission of burying a little child of the former.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Mingle, Miss Fannie Hoffer, Col. and Mrs. J. L. Spangler and Mrs. D. H. Hastings were some of the people from Bellefonte who drove through Centre Hall Sunday.

Miss Grace Christine, daughter of Rev. F. F. Christine, of Hardin, Ohio, is on her way to Centre Hall, having come as far as Pittsburg last week. She and her brother Fred, Sunday spent the day with the family of J. T. Potter, at Clairton, near Pittsburg.

One of two more gasoline lamps are sure to be strung up over the streets ere long. Help the movement along. The lamps, when put in position, are entirely generous and indiscriminating. They give light to the liberal and close-fisted alike. Subscribe toward the lamp funds.

The new street lamp in front of Kreamer and Son's store is giving entire satisfaction. It sheds a splendid light, and although hemmed in by trees, when hung at the proper height throws its light well on the walks for a great distance. The lamp was purchased from W. B. Krape, who is exceedingly proud of the miniature light house.

LOCALS.

The first number of the Zoological Quarterly, edited by H. A. Surface, Economic Zoologist, and issued from the State Department of Agriculture, treats of "Birds Around the Farm." The quarterly can be secured from the department by farmers without cost.

The large iron stack which Henry Lowry and his men were placing on the brick chimney at the Water Works fell Thursday afternoon just as they about had it in position, says the Daily News. The stack is twenty feet long and weighs eighteen hundred pounds. Fortunately no one was injured.

The new schedule on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad to go into effect Monday will be of advantage to nearly every one along the line. Centre Hall and Spring Mills, and other points, can be reached in the afternoon and business transacted between trains. The trains will pass at Coburn.

Landlord Runkle will make some improvements in front of the hotel in a short time. The raised walk will be lessened in width about one foot, doing away with the steps, and a new brick walk laid the entire length of the hotel between the present walk and the shade trees.

H. B. Spangler, of Chicago, Illinois, is visiting his father, W. W. Spangler in this place, and will remain for about two weeks. Mr. Spangler is in the general office of the North Western railroad. He is one of three brothers—the others being William E. and Bernard E.—in Chicago, all of whom hold responsible positions.

The many friends of Wm. T. Speer, who went to Philadelphia last week to have an operation performed for a complaint which has caused him considerable annoyance for the past two years, will be glad to learn that the operation was successfully performed on Saturday, says the Daily News, at St. Luke's Hospital by Dr. Carl Vischer.

Miss Gertrude C. Wieland, of Linden Hall, one of the most successful school teachers in Harris township, was in town Tuesday, not having discovered that the examination by Prof. Gramley had been postponed. Miss Grove, of near Centre Hill, also put in her appearance for a similar reason. She taught her first term last year, and with much success.

G. Howard Rishel has changed his place of residence from Sayre, Pa., to Blossburg. He has been engaged with the Prudential Life Insurance Company since 1892. On the fourth instant he was promoted to assistant superintendent, having as his territory almost the entire county of Tioga. Mr. Rishel is a son of John Rishel, deceased, and is one of the many Potter township young men whom the Reporter is proud to speak of.

The Bellefonte High School held its commencement exercises this week, which closed the fourth term of school under the principalship of Prof. John D. Meyer, of this place. Mr. Meyer has met with singular success in his school work in Bellefonte, and largely through his personal effort has succeeded in creating a thorough educational sentiment in the county seat, a condition essential to obtaining the best results in the class room.

THE STAR STORE.

ESTABLISHED 1889.

GEO. O. BENNER PROPRIETOR.

We must say that Saturday, 16th, the first day of our reduction sale, was the best day for moving goods we have had for some time. Many thanks to our many old customers and to the new ones who have dropped into line and who are learning to know a good thing when they see it. Remember we are adding new things everyday and our stock is fast filling up with new and attractive merchandise that is bound to please your eye and more than that, we guarantee to please you in price. You will understand that we are in a position to do the latter. Our expense is trifling, as you well know, and is it not plain that we can do as we say. The beauty of the matter is we are doing that very little thing right along and a whole lot of people are taking advantage of it too. Of course there are people in every end of the county who if they saw a good thing, and knew it would do them good to accept of its advantages, would say nit, for fear it would do somebody else some good. That kind of trade we don't want and can get along very well without it too. If you are not already a customer of The Star, all we have to say is, you could be one. Give us a trial and we are satisfied you will continue to be one, because you will see the difference from the way you have had to do heretofore. Fall into line. Our Terms—Cash to everybody.
