Latest News of Pennsylvania Told in Short Order.

William A. Frazier, of Glasgow, Scotland, and Albert Gusnick, of Sandusky, O., both stonemasons, were killed about noon by a Lake Shore passenger train at Erie. They were working for the ailroad company on a culvert and noicing an approaching freight train tepped on to the other track and were un down by the passenger train. Both were terribly mangled. E. A. Meskill, of Wellsville, O., a Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad brakeman, while walking on the tracks in the Conway yards, was run down and cut to pieces by a freight train.

The inquest into the death of William Washington, of Sharon, colored, who lied from injuries alleged to have been inflicted by abuse at the hands of his father, Henry Washington, and his step-sister, Cora Eolan, was held. Mrs. harlotta Washington, whose testimony had not been taken before, told the story of how the boy had been burned with hot irons and placed on a red hot stove. She testified that the father compelled he boy to sleep in the kennel with 11 dogs. The jury returned a verdict that the boy died from abuse and held the lather and Cora Bolan responsible. Great excitement has been aroused by developments which seem to point to an attempt to murder Mrs. Charles Ingles, of Uniontown. Some time ago she was shot from ambush and seriusly wounded, and Harry Artis, of Fairchance, was brought before a justice in the case, but Mrs. Ingles did not appear against him. It is now charged that a few days ago Artis talked with two colored men, H. O. Grady and Thomas Walker, offering them a gold watch and $50 to kill Mrs. Ingles, and providing them with an ironwood stick or the purpose.

COMMERCIAL REVIEW

General Trade Conditions,

Bradstreet's says: Wholesale trade is still seasonably dull and disastrous floods have checked trade and transportation in the Southwest. The situation as a whole, however, is still far from unfavorable. Higher prices for farm product of all kinds favor some compensation to producers from this source The country's foreign trade promises well, failures are down to a low minimum and bank clearings, though reduced by duliness in stock speculation, point to record totals outside of a few important speculative centers. Price readjustments, where lower quotations are necessary, as in iron and steel, go on without disorganization and feeling grows strong that such demand, discouraged by former high prices, may nortly develop.

Reliway gross earnings thus for re-ported for the month of May show a gain of 11 per cent, over last year, while April net returns indicate profitable operation. Relatively the best trade re-ports come from the Northwest and the country between the Ohio river and the lakes and the Mississippi and the Alle-
