Centre Hall, Pa.

PUBLIC SALE OF PENN'S CAVE.—There will be sold at public sale on the premises all that certain messuage, tenement and tract of land situated in Centre county, Pa., three miles north of Spring Mills, on the Lewistown and Tyrone railroad.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 22, 1903, 3:30 P. M.
(Tract No. 1 and July 1.)

TRACT NO. 2, PENN'S CAVE. Beginning at a stone in the public road leading to Farmer's Mills, thence along said road and land of George Long north 61 1/2 degrees east 20 perches to stones, thence north 25 1/2 degrees east 20 perches to stones, thence south 61 1/2 degrees west 25 perches to stones, thence south 61 1/2 degrees west 25 perches to the place of beginning, containing 6 acres net measure, together with all the privileges in and under the ground as far as the same is hollow or can be reached by entering into said Cave, thereon erected Penn's Cave Hotel, stable and out buildings.

DESCRIPTION OF PENN'S CAVE. Penn's Cave is a beautiful summer resort, situated three miles from Spring Mills, on the Lewistown and Tyrone railroad. The Cave itself is a subterranean cavern, fully one-fourth of a mile in length, the interior of which surpasses description. The walls and ceiling are decorated with myriads of stalactites and the projecting irregular rocks are studded with stalagmites. Penn's Creek, which empties into the west branch of the Susquehanna River, below Sunbury, rises at the mouth of the Cave. The crystal pure water flows through the Cave and can be navigated by a boat, carrying from twenty-five to forty passengers, the entire length of the Cave. The Cave opens abruptly, the outlet being only large enough to carry away the water. The entrance of the Cave is gained by descending a flight of easy steps. The Cave has been guarded against vandals ever since its discovery, more than a hundred years ago, and thus remains in its natural beauty.

DESCRIPTION OF PENN'S CAVE. Penn's Cave Hotel is a frame structure 30x52 ft., three stories in height with twenty-six rooms, kitchen, 10x12 feet stable, 20x35 feet. The buildings stand immediately over the Cave.

The location is strictly rural; the climate is all that could be desired, hunting and fishing nearby. This property will be sold at a price that should entice the interest of speculators. It is peculiarly suited for a well-appointed summer resort, a gentleman's place or home for a club. The tract contains six acres of land, and is so situated to give every needed access to the cave proper. The description is not adequate. The place must be seen to be appreciated.

Terms: Ten per cent. of purchase money to be paid on day of sale, the balance of one hundred per cent. to be paid on confirmation of sale, one-third in one year, and the balance in two years, with interest, the deferred payments to be secured by bond and mortgage on the premises.

JAMES LEWIS IS KNOWN HERE.

Stopped West of Centre Hall for Several Weeks Last Winter.

James Lewis, who was wounded in the Foust stable before he would surrender, is known by a number of people near Centre Hall. Last January he slept, for a night or more, in a stable on the farm of Hon. L. Rhone. He was short of provision, and went to the home of Captain Bill Snyder, who lived near by, for something to eat. Mr. Snyder gave Lewis, who said his name was James Albright, permission to sleep in his house, as it was a bitter cold night. This hospitality the man seemed to greatly appreciate, and he accordingly remained there for a period of three or four weeks.

During the tourists stay with Snyder, he assisted Richard Brooks to bale hay. Work went awkward with him, but he was willing and soon learned to handle a fork.

Mr. Brooks, while in Bellefonte recently, visited Lewis, and at once recognized him as the man referred to above. He was addressed "James Albright," but Lewis pretended that he did not know Mr. Brooks. When the hay baling incident was related, Lewis acknowledged he was the man.

The quartet of robbers now in the Bellefonte jail will be tried by the Government at Williamsport at some future date. The prisoners will be removed to the Lycoming county prison ere long and there await trial.

MASSACHUSETTS GRANGES.

What the State Grange is Doing For Farmers in the Bay State.

The annual meeting was held at Worcester, Mass. George S. Ladd was re-elected master. There are over 100 granges in the state with about 15,000 members. The state grange favored state legislation to reimburse farmers for cattle killed by the cattle commission in view of the trouble from foot and mouth disease then prevailing. Further extension of rural free mail delivery was urged, and grangers were asked to observe Arbor day by the planting of trees along the highways. More equitable taxation was advocated. The grangers also recommended that a bill be introduced into the legislature which will oblige manufacturers of concentrated foodstuffs to put on the outside of the bag the exact formulas of the contents. It recommended that some of the agricultural societies of the state be consolidated. The secretary of the Salisbury and Amesbury Mutual Fire Insurance company, controlled by the state grange, reported that during the year ending Dec. 1 policies were written to the amount of $407,608 and that the total outstanding risks are $775,368. Losses last year were only $150.

Charles Bottelger, a baggagemaster on the Lykens Valley Railroad, was arrested by Post Office Inspector Malone on Thursday on charge of robbing the mails. Articles to the value of $100 were found in the possession of Bottelger's sweetheart, Miss Lizzie Esterline, and these are supposed to have been stolen by the baggagemaster from mail pouches enroute to and from Lykens on the car of which he had charge. Bottelger made a confession to Inspector Malone of the theft of several articles.

"I Want to Know." "I want to know" is an expression we hear old women sometimes use. It is the essence of an inspiration which drives us to find out the truths of life for ourselves. The man or woman who really "wants to know" and makes those wants known is sure to learn. Our desire and search for knowledge necessarily begin in the darkness of ignorance.

A company has recently been organized at Burton, O., with a capital stock of $200,000 to make a specialty of growing vegetables for the Cleveland market.

There is a possibility that the national grange may meet at Niagara Falls next November.

The grange adapts its functions to the everyday work of its members.

Keep up the agitation for grange halls to be owned by the grange.

DEATHS.

MRS. JANE ROSE VAN VALZAH.
The news of the death of Mrs. Jane Rose Van Valzah, widow of Dr. Frank H. Van Valzah, of Spring Mills, was received by all with the greatest sorrow. While it was known by her friends that her life was threatened at all times, they still hoped she would be spared for a longer time.

On the 20th of May Mrs. Van Valzah went to New York City to consult a physician in regard to an intestinal tumor the existence of which she had suspected only a few weeks before. An exploring operation revealed the fact that nothing could be done to relieve her. She returned to the home of her sister, near Bloomington, Indiana, where she had been temporarily residing for a little more than a year, and where her death took place Saturday of last week.

The body was brought to Spring Mills Tuesday and taken to the residence of Hon. Wm. M. Allison, accompanied by her two surviving sons—Robert and James Wilson, and her brother, Flavel B. Van Valzah. Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church Wednesday at 10 a. m., conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. T. H. Schuyler, assisted by Rev. W. T. L. Kieffer and Rev. Dr. D. M. Wolf.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Jane Rose Van Valzah, was married to Dr. Frank H. Van Valzah, deceased, of Spring Mills, June 23, 1880. To this union were born four children—John Henry, who died November, 1883; Robert, now a senior in Princeton University; Sara Boude, who died in March 1899; and James Wilson.

Dr. Van Valzah died in November 1898. The family continued to reside in Spring Mills until the spring of 1902, when, after the death of Mrs. Van Valzah's aged mother, she and the younger son removed temporarily to Bloomington, Ind. A brother, Flavel B., and a sister, Mrs. R. H. Chamberlain, remain. Mrs. Chamberlain was not permitted, on account of ill health, to accompany the funeral party east.

The deceased's early home was in Union county. Her age was fifty-seven years. Mrs. Van Valzah was a thoroughly conscientious, christian woman, and was held in the highest esteem by her acquaintances.

MRS. REBECCA HENRY.
Mrs. Rebecca Gilliland Henry died suddenly Saturday morning, at four o'clock, at her home in Reedsville, and was buried Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Mrs. Henry was born near McAlevys Fort, Huntingdon county. Soon after her birth her parents moved to Oak Hall, where they lived for some time, and then moved to Millin county, where most of her life was spent.

She leaves to mourn her death, her husband and the following brothers and sisters: Rankin and David, Dakota; Samuel Sterrit, Mrs. Margaret Henry, and Jane, Reedsville.

She was united in marriage to Davis Henry twenty-five years ago, and their only child died in infancy.

ALVIN SHUEY.
Alvin Shuey, a highly respected citizen of Lemont, passed away June 30, after suffering for twelve weeks from cancer of the pancreas, and enlargement of the stomach.

Deceased leaves to mourn his death, a wife, son and six brothers, as follows: Jared and Ira, Abaline, Kan.; William, Daniel, Harvey and Henry, of Lemont. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Stonocypher, of the Lutheran church, and I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 717, of both of which he was a member. His loss will be deeply felt by all, for when his hands found a duty to perform it was always well done.

GEORGE L. POTTER.
George L. Potter died at his home in Bellefonte Wednesday about noon after a brief illness. He was born in Potters Mills, April 6, 1847, and was a son of William W. Potter. Since 1874 Mr. Potter was engaged in the insurance business. He is survived by a widow, who was Elizabeth J. Sander-son, and two daughters.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by C. W.
