Harris Township.

A ministerial meeting was held at the Reformed parsonage Monday. Among those from a distance who attended the harvest service in St. John's church on Sunday were, Mr. and Mrs. John From, Mrs. Andrew Lytle and daughter Nell, of State College; Mrs. George Tibbens, Axemann; Gideon Behtol, Snow Shoe, and Harry Burkholder, Centre Hill.

Plum Grove.

Farmer Hetzle and Charles Summers, of Aaronsburg, were seen passing through this place early Monday morning. Miss Annie Carper visited at the home of her parents at Linden Hall, over Sunday.

Nittany Mountain.

Every one on the Mountain is through harvesting their oats, despite the wet weather; next will be the thresher. Mrs. Tone Noll is suffering with a lame neck and side.

Smithtown.

W. F. Smith is improving at this writing. Calvin Swartz was home to spend Sunday. The buckwheat crop in this section is all cut.

Lemont.

Mrs. Jacob Houtz has been quite ill since she returned from Winburn, where she visited at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed. Graham, a week.

John Lucas, formerly of this place, but now residing in Kylertown, is reported quite ill with cancer of the stomach and will very likely not live more than a month.

James M. Grove, who was very ill, is better. The Methodist social Thursday evening of last week was a fair success.

Samuel Tressler, who has been appointed as assistant in the Lemont station with a fair salary. The people are well pleased for he is accommodating and trust-worthy.

Miss Bessie Thompson is on the sick list this week but is improving. Mrs. Maggie Armstrong, who has been ill for a long time, is improving as rapidly as can be expected.

William Schreck purchased the old homestead and part of the Peter Schreck farm, which is known as the William Sellers tract. Of the former he sold the part west of the railroad to E. C. Ross and also sold the timber of the latter.

Rev. J. I. L. Ressler, the presiding elder of the U. B. in C., preached at Houserville Friday evening.

James O. Clark is improving very slowly. Miss Mattie Ray, of Altoona, is visiting her many friends in these parts this week.

H. Houtz Long, who has spent the past winter and summer in Philadelphia, looks old style but says that he can not stay more than three weeks, as the school will open.

The directors of College township met Saturday evening and elected F. K. Smith as teacher of the Lemont Grammar school. That winds up the list and all is in readiness for Monday when the schools will open.

D. G. Meyers, Lemont's barber, has decided to go to State College, where he has been offered the tempting salary of $65 per month.

State College will not be able to accommodate all the students for the coming term with bed and board, so must call on Lemont to help them out, and there will be a number of boarders in town.

John R. Schreck and wife, of Grant-pian, are home for a few days' rest.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure.
