Eugene E. Lario, of 751 Twentieth avenue, ticket seller in the Union Station, Denver, Col., says: "You are at liberty to repeat what I first stated through our Denver papers about Doan's Kidney Pills in the summer of 1899, for I have had no reason in the interim to change my opinion of the remedy. I said when first interviewed that if I bad a friend and acquaintance suffering from back ache or kidney trouble I would unhesitatingly advise them to take Doan's Kidney Pills. I was subject to severe attacks of back " ache, always aggravated if I sat long at a desk. It struck me that if Doan's Kidney Pills performed half what they promised they might at least help. This induced me to try the remedy. It absolutely stopped the back ache. I have never had a pain or a twinge since."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Lario will be mailed to any part of the United States on application. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists, price 50 cents per box.

Lafayette began its new year under happy auspices. The new men number nearly 150 and the chapel was so crowded that many Freshmen had to sit in the gallery, to which President Warfield reierred as the "celestial regions." At the opening exercises Acting President Kirkpatrick formally retired and turned the college manage-ment over to President Warfield. The students were urged by both to make the most of college advantages. Stacy Roberts, 1904, president of the Brain-ard Y. M. C. A., addressed the new students and Manager Canning. 1904, of the football team, announced a mass meeting of the upper classmen immediately after chapel. This meeting prevented the usual Sophomore-Freshman rush.

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

General Trade Conditions,

R. G. Dun & Company's "Weekly Review of Trade" says:

An encouraging symptom is' the decreased complaint regarding collections, accompanied by more discounting of bills. Weather conditions have been favorable for retail trade. There are frequent reports of larger jobbing Fall business than last year.

Railway earnings in August were 9.1 per cent. larger than last year and 15.4 per cent. greater than in 1901.

New England maufacturers continue busy on Fall and Winter footwear Leather is quiet in this vicinity. At the West there is more activity. Notwithstanding heavy receipts of attle, packers are asking fractionally higher figures for hides. Prices of cotton goods are slow to reflect the reaction in the faw material, and the demand is not improved. Buyers are en-couraged to delay placing contracts, and mills are not seeking business.

In the jobbing trade a large distrioution of merchandise is in progress, his branch of the industry reporting profitable season.

Failures this week were 172 in the United States against 205 last year, and 19 in Canada, compared with 22 a year ago.

His Forte.

The seven-year-old pride of the family had concluded his recitation of The Boy Stood on the Burning Deck, and the fond mother, turning with dignified complacency to the unnerved visitor, remarked.

"And I have been assured by really eminent judges, Mr. Marterdum, that he closely approaches Sir Henry Irving in dramatic style, without however that great actor's offensive manner isms.

"I am not surprised to hear it!" assented the victimized one, with a strained smile.

Mabel, also," continued the matron blandly indicating a six-year-old mite of flaxen-haired precocity, "plays ex-quisitely. Her rendering of In My Cottage Near a Wood, with variations, i not dissimilar in touch and feeling to Paderwiski at his best-as you shall presently determine; while Egbert, yonder (get your slate and pencil ready, darling), though barely turned four, draws engines and railway lines in a manner suggestive of academy honors at no very distant future. They all have their fortes, you see! In fact, most people have, when you come to think of it. What is your forte, Mr. Marterdum?"

"Mine, madam?" gasped the wretched listener. "Mine? Oh, I-I run!" And he suited the action to the word.

Judged by Her Book.

The girls in a large department store, says Frank Leslie's, are, as a rule, carefully watched not only in the store, but out of it. The buyer of each department knows pretty well the habits of his sales ladies; knows how much it costs them to live and how they spend their evenings. It is easy for him to get the information not merely through the store detective, but in many other ways

The buyer is, as a rule, a tolerant person, who cares only for two things -namely, that the girls "deliver the goods"-i. e., that they make big "books"-and that they appear respectable. If they stay out so late at night that they do not reach the store promptly in the morning they may be discharged, transferred from one department to another or merely not rise in the way of salary, depending on the degree of their misdemeanor. If the girl's book is unsatisfactory, she is simply discharged or transferred, and no reason is given, but if she is wise she knows the reason why.

If, on the other hand, the girl is a good seller the buyer will excuse a great deal in the way of irregularity of habits. As long as a girl sticks closely to business she is allowed a great deal of freedom, but when her "book" begins to suffer it is time for her to "look out."
