Clerks Killed. NINE DEAD AND SEVEN INJURED.

Fast Mail and Express From New York for New Orleans, Ronning at High Speed, Jumps the Track on Trestle Over Creek Near Danville, Va., and Locomotive and Four Cars Fall 75 Feet Into the Water.

Charlotte, N. C. (Special).-While running at a high rate of speed train No. 97, on the Southern railway, the southbound mail, one of the fastest regular trains in the world, jumped from a trestle 75 feet high half a mile north of Danville, Va., and was almost demolished. Of the crew of 16 men, including postal clerks, on the train, 9 were killed and 7 injured.

The express messenger, W. F. Pinkey, was the only person on the train that es-

the track, carrying with it four mail cars and an express car. The trestle, a wooden structure, also gave way for a space of 50 feet. At the foot of the trestle is a shallow stream with a rocky bottom. Striking this the engine and the cars were reduced to a mass of twisted iron and steel and pieces of splintered wood. As the cars went down they touched the sides of the Riverside cotton mill, which is very close to the trestle. All the men on the death list above were killed instantly, it is thought, and their bodies were mutilated by the fall. The skin and hair of the engineer and fireman were torn off by the impact of the steam engine. Several thousand persons from Danville went to the scene of the wreck soon after it occurerd. No one on any of the cars had made an effort to jump and the bodies of all those killed were found in the wreckage of the different cars to which they belonged. Ladies who drove out to the wreck from Danville fainted at the sight of the bodies, some of which were crushed to a ghastly degree. It seemed miraculous that any living being could have escaped, for each car falling with the engine bounded from it and completely collapsed after striking the rocks at the foot of the trestle.

All the express matter in the express car was practically destroyed, except six crates full of canary birds. None of the birds was hurt, though the crates were eral executive board of the Knights of Court, handed down an opinion which Beirut indicate that the situation is the Dead Letter Office for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1903, has been prepared, and will be embodied in the forthcoming report of First Assistant Postmaster Géneral Wynne. The report states that it is made to appear that there has been a large and steady increase in its annual receipts, which is due to the great and constant increase in the volume of matter passing through the mails.

The total receipts for the year were something over 10,000,000 pieces-the largest in the history of the office-exceeding those of the preceding year by some 850,000 pieces. Of the aggregate number 8,895,205 pieces were opened.

The money found in opened letters amounted to $48,634, but this sum included money (generally coin) found loose in the mails or in postoffices and consigned to the Dead Letter Office. Commercial paper found, such as drafts, checks, money orders, etc., represented a face value of $1,493,563. Bullet-Sheriff's Posse Captured Another The events of the next two days are awaited with great anxiety, and popular feeling is becoming more excited. A largely attended meeting of Macedonian sympathizers was held at Rustchuk, Bulgaria, September 2, and adopted resolutions appealing to the Bulgarian government to declare war on Turkey immediately.

In revolutionary circles war is believed to be imminent unless Turkey stops massacreing the Christians, of which there are no signs at present. Dr. Christo Tatartcheff, president of the Macedonian organizations, says that the insurgent committees attach cussed in 1897, and later in 1899 and

The Porte, added Dr. Tatartcheff. to gain time to finish the extermination what it regards as the dangerous elements in Macedonia, have the troops now at Monastir free to move against Bulgaria and bring more soldiers from Asia. While the Sultan's government is discussing propositions for reform in Macedonia the troops continue to massacre the Christians and devastate the country.

Referring to the details of the proposed arrangement, Dr. Tatarcheff said there was no guarantee even i the commission was appointed that i would ever be more than ornamental The present village commissions ir Macedonia have Bulgarian members, but they are always favorable to the Turks. The president of the Mace donian organizations concluded by declaring the insurgents would be satisfied with nothing short of interventior by the powers.

Special significance attaches to the Macedonian meeting at Rustchuk be cause the resolutions adopted are the first open expression of such an emphatic character in favor of war coming from any popular meeting in Bulgaria, Rustchuk is the chief commercial town in the country. Resolutions were also passed thanking the Pope, the English ishops, the tradesunion congress and the British and American press for their expressions of sympathy with the Macedonian cause. Fighting is reported to have taken place near Kotckani, on the frontier, in which the Turks lost 50 men killed and the insurgents suffered a loss of 10. A panic prevails at Kotchani, and all siness and work is at a standstill. A number of reports of other minor encounters and more atrocities by the Turks continue to come in.
